

PARLIAMENT PHOLLOWS BALDWIN BUT CHEERS HOARE IN SESSION PUNCTUATED BY INFLAMED WAR TALK

G-Men Find Clue To Four Kidnapers Of Pennsylvanian

Hat and Coat Discovered in Schoolhouse Yard and Other Clues Found in House Near Spot Youth
Was Released, Gagged.

HAD BEEN GIVEN SHOTS OF NARCOTIC

Full Description of Four in Hands of Officers as Actor-Writer Recovers
From Experience.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Dec. 19.—(AP)—A stammered story of abduction and torture, told by Caleb Milne IV from a hospital bed, tonight sent the Department of Justice on a nationwide hunt for four men he said kidnaped him in New York.

Barely had the boy finished his statement than picked G-men were checking a ramshackle, two-and-a-half-story house near Wrightstown, Pa., which Milne said was the gang's hide-out. Descriptions of the abductors were flashed to every government investigating bureau in the country.

Narcotic Punishments.
The action of a wealthy Philadelphia family said he had been fed only once in four days. His right arm was punctured with narcotic needles, his face was slapped, his lips and eyes were plastered shut with tape, his arms were bound.

He was thus abused, he told G-men, until he was hurled off and dazed from a speeding automobile last night on a road just outside of this old agricultural town.

The youthful actor-mystery writer, spoke haltingly to the operatives and stenographer assembled about his bed.

Didn't Get Ransom.
Physicians, who ordered the doors barred to all save relatives throughout last night and today, said Milne is recovering; that he is ill chiefly because of the shock and exposure. Just how long he lay in the ditch in the chill air investigators were unable to determine.

His abductors fled without the ransom they attempted to wring from Milne's grandfather, Caleb J. Milne Jr., retired textile manufacturer. Wrightstown and vicinity was searched by G-men for traces of the kidnapers. Near the hideout, they said they found a hypodermic syringe and two needles, which they believe the kidnapers used to keep Milne in a condition bordering on unconsciousness during the four days and nights he was held.

Find Traces of Food.
The agents said they also found several tin cans, recently opened, from which they believe the abductors obtained their food. Milne said he was given food only once during his imprisonment.

Recovering from exposure and heavy doses of a narcotic, Milne informed the agents he could recall scarcely a thing of what occurred from Sunday night until last night.

He remembered the kidnapers, however, because he saw each one before he was given the narcotic.

Agents said Milne told of answering a telephone call from a "Dr. Green, of Grace Square," in New York. He met the "doctor" on Saturday at the street.

Others Meet Dr. Green.
Milne said he met the telephone that his grandfather, Caleb J. Milne Jr., in Philadelphia, was "very ill" and wished to see him. The "Dr. Green," he said, was to take him to Philadelphia.

Agents said Milne related that three other men met the "doctor" in the

Continued in Page 13, Column 6.

THE CONSTITUTION BRINGS ABOUT BAN ON ARMY COACHES

McGill's Column and Editorial Result in Order Barring Active Officers as Grid Mentors.

Dispatches from Washington and from high army officials last night credited The Constitution and its sports editor, Ralph McGill, with bringing about a conference which produced a reform in football long desired by the American Coaches' Association.

It was a column by McGill and a subsequent Constitution editorial on the subject which largely influenced the War Department to issue an immediate order which bars army coaches from accepting any coaching assignments at civilian institutions in the future.

Growing Evil Ended.
The custom of pulling political strings to have army officers with coaching ability assigned to various institutions was a growing evil. The army officers, already receiving army pay from public funds, would spend most of their time with football instead of attending strictly to the military duties which were the fundamental reason for their assignments by the War Department. They were drawing pay from public funds and another salary, usually larger than their army pay, from the university.

The army was suffering a loss of prestige and morale and the football coaching profession was suffering from the inroads of army men eager to earn two salaries instead of one.

Material Sent to Capital.
McGill's columns were followed by The Constitution editorial and these were forwarded to Washington by Major General George Van Horn Moseley, commanding officer of the fourth corps area, who recommended the order barring future coaching by army

Continued in Page 6, Column 4.

Opportunities' Outlook Brighter With 6 Little Families 'Adopted'

Anonymous Atlantan Gives $500 and Many Others Give Lesser Amounts for Needy Households; Four of Families Are Still Uncared For.

By RALPH T. JONES.
Day by day the story of the Ten Opportunities for 1936 grows brighter.

Day by day it becomes easier to write this story and day by day the tears of worry and hunger are wiped from the cheeks of more of the mothers and children who are waiting, so anxiously, for the news that Atlanta has heard their plea for help and has accepted the "opportunity" for service their particular need represents.

The Opportunities found a new group of friends yesterday.

One grand friend is a man, well known to everyone in the city, but who refuses to permit us to use his name. He is a $500 friend. That is the sum written on the check he sent to the general fund for the Ten Opportunities.

Another Friend Sends $45.
Then there is another giver, who sends $45, enough to provide $15 a month for an opportunity family for three months, who also asks that we give no name, but merely credit the gift to "Another Friend."

"And A. B. O." sends her check for $50, which she wants applied to the $25 monthly need of Opportunity

Three, enough to fill the need for two months, with the possibility that the same giver will be able to help still more at the end of that time.

And "N. J.," a young Atlanta business executive, sends another $45—at $15 per month for three months—with the implied possibility that, at the end of that time, he'll continue the monthly gift, if business has been good with him and he is financially able.

Families Facing Despair.
You have, of course, read the stories of the 10 opportunity families, whose little groups of widows, or crippled fathers, and their children who will go down to utter despair, who will see their homes broken up and the youngsters put in institutions before the end of 1936, unless someone comes to the rescue.

Of the 10 families that have lifted their voices to you, this Christmas, in their pitiful pleas for help, six have now been provided for. We ask you, by all you hold sacred and dear, to turn deaf ears to the pleas of the other four. Their needs are just as urgent, their hunger, when food is insufficient to go around, is just as keen.

Continued in Page 6, Column 8.

MURDER'S HINTED IN TODD MYSTERY; 3 TO BE QUIZZED

Grand Jury's Foreman
Voices Suspicion on Basis of Evidence Gathered; Probe Is Widened.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 19.—(AP)—George W. Rochester, foreman of the Los Angeles county grand jury, declared tonight evidence he has gathered indicates strongly that Thelma Todd, screen actress, might have been a "monoxide murder victim."

A more searching inquiry into the Thelma Todd death mystery began tonight with probed police questioning of three chief figures.

Detective Chief Joseph Taylor ordered officers to question again Robert West, business partner and "best friend" of the blonde fun-maker of the films, and to interview Charles Smith, treasurer of the Todd-West cafe, as well as Robert J. Anderson, the cafe bartender.

While 12,000 persons filed solemnly past Miss Todd's orchid-satin bier, where the body lay in blue satin lounging pajamas, the question of the time of death produced still another puzzle.

Mrs. Roland West, estranged wife of Miss Todd's business partner, told officers she saw the actress riding with "a dark-looking foreigner" in Hollywood at 11 p. m. Sunday—several hours after the approximate time coroners' officials said death occurred.

Other Theories.
Although a coroner's jury held she met death in her big motor car of many monoxide fumes, the story of Mrs. West and additional baffling factors spurred close study of other theories.

The inquest verdict yesterday merely said death "seemed" from circumstances surrounding find

Continued in Page 16, Column 5.

Resigning Minister Defends His Plan As Europe's Hope

Day's Developments
In Ethiopian Crisis

By the Associated Press.
LONDON—House of commons supports government, 397 to 165, although Prime Minister Baldwin admits error in supporting peace plan.

GENEVA—League council buries peace formula, sanctions to continue. PARIS—Deputies predict overthrow of Laval cabinet.

ADDIS ABABA—Ethiopians claim major victory in north with many Italians slain.

ASMARA—Italians claim enemy attacks thrown back on two fronts.

ROME—Il Duce silent on peace plan, may talk Saturday.

VATICAN CITY—Vatican newspaper denounces as "base" rumors that Catholic church is helping finance Italy's war.

WASHINGTON—Chairman McReynolds, of house foreign affairs committee, says new neutrality legislation is imperative.

Continued in Page 6, Column 5.

Says He and Laval Met in Atmosphere Super-charged by Hostility and Tried To Prevent Another World Debacle.

BALDWIN IS READY FOR OIL SANCTIONS

Chamberlain Tells House
France Is Pledged To Support Britain If Italy
Should Declare War.

By CHARLES P. NUTTER.
LONDON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Great Britain's house of commons, tossed by a tempest of bitter and pleading words, rallied a rousing majority behind Stanley Baldwin's government tonight in the face of the prime minister's avowed "mistake" on African peace.

In a midnight ballot, the United Kingdom's chosen legislators rejected, 397 to 165, a labor motion of censure for the government's part in the discredited Anglo-French plan to end the War in Africa by territorial concessions to a fighting Italian Duce.

Thus Baldwin's tory party, victor by thumping margins in general elections held only last month, ended 12 hours of drama by beating down an opposition attempt to brand the cabinet with "disgracing the nation."

Error of Judgment.
Earlier in the night the house of lords, without a division, had upheld the government.

Baldwin, sombre and wan, frankly threw himself on the mercy of the house in the silent, fog-bound chamber.

"It was an error of judgment," he admitted. "Such a position shall not be possible again."

But from frail, bandaged Sir Samuel Hoare, the resigning foreign secretary who helped Premier Pierre Laval, of France, write the plan, came this stirring defense:

"It was in an atmosphere of war that our discussions took place.

"Ever since I have been in the foreign office, I have been obsessed with the urgent duty of doing everything to prevent a European conflagration."

France Promised Aid.
Weeping, he stumbled from the chamber amid cheers from an assemblage often openly hostile to Baldwin.

The Prince of Wales listened intently to Sir Samuel's speech. The day-long debate ended with a bitter cry from Hugh Dalton, militant laborite, that the hands of a "hunting" Mussolini are dripping with a mixture of Ethiopian blood and British oil, and a brave defense of Hoare by Neville Chamberlain, Baldwin's chancellor of the exchequer.

Chamberlain said Hoare "sacrificed his great position from a sense of duty and from the prompting of his own conscience," and assured the house that France had given Great Britain "the most complete and loyal assurances they will come to our aid if we are attacked by Italy."

Ready for Sanctions.
"If the League of Nations should decide that oil sanctions should be applied," he said, "and that they be effective, and should we be satisfied that all members of the League are not only ready to give us assurances but are prepared to take their part in meeting an attack which might be sudden and unexpected, then we, too, are prepared to play our part and agree to the imposition of oil sanctions."

Baldwin said he would not let such

Continued in Page 13, Column 2.

The News at a Glance

IN THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

Clip this each day and make your scrapbook a thumbnail history. December 20, 1935

LOCAL.	FOREIGN.
City offices seek more funds in '36; means slashing. Page 1	Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin, conferring error, wins support. Page 1
Fulton county salary pay cuts arouse protest. Page 1	Fascist officers claim retreat of Ethiopian tribesmen. Page 1
Martin Hane's crime career ends in electric chair today. Page 1	SPORTS.
Outlook brighter for "Opportunities" cases; six "adopted." Page 1	War Department bans army football coaches. Page 21
Congressman Ramspeck urges retrenchment in federal aid. Page 1	Break of Day, by Ralph McGill. Page 21
Articles in The Constitution result in ban of army coaches. Page 1	Joe Louis "tired"—Havana fight postponed. Page 22
STATE.	The Spotlight, by Grant Rice. Page 22
Georgia leads nation in gain in crop value in 1935. Page 15	Jim Braddock's comeback best in 1935. Page 23
Hugh Howell declines debate on fund bill failure. Page 15	FEATURES.
Ex-Senator G. A. Weaver dies at Thomson. Page 15	Editorial page. Page 12
Large legal move blocks commitment hearing of Hoschoten doctor. Page 15	Dr. William Brady. Page 12
DOMESTIC.	Pierre Van Praesen. Page 12
G-men scour nation for known kidnapers. Page 1	Paul Mallon. Page 12
Monoxide murder is hinted in death of Thelma Todd, film actress. Page 1	Westbrook Pegler. Page 14
Railway Labor Executives' Association urges United States ownership of roads. Page 1	Daily crossword puzzle. Page 14
Irvin S. Cobb. Page 1	"Small Town Girl." Page 14
	draw on the alphabet and still be in the guess. Page 15
	Caroline Chatfield. Page 15
	Society. Pages 17, 18, 19, 20
	Theater programs. Page 20
	Culbertson on bridge. Page 20
	Tarzan. Page 20

HONEA DIES TODAY IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

Last-Minute Action by Governor Sole Remaining
Hope for Slayer.

Marvin Honea's checkered career will be ended in the electric chair at Milledgeville shortly before noon today unless Governor Talmadge intervenes to grant the 27-year-old slayer a last-minute reprieve or commutation.

The Governor yesterday definitely rejected Honea's plea for clemency saying "I like to show mercy when I can." However, he can, between early this morning and the hour of the execution, 11 o'clock, change his mind. He gave no indication of any change yesterday, the rejection appearing final.

John Willie White, a Thompson negro, likewise convicted of murder, is to be executed along with Honea. Governor Talmadge yesterday granted a 30-day respite to Eddie B. Bond, of Douglasville, who also was to pay with his life today for the murder of Joe Carroll, of Carrollton. The Governor said he was granting the respite to permit a further inventory into Bowen's claim of innocence.

Warden Rollie H. Lawrence, of the state prison farm, said last night he was notified that the two doomed men would go to the chair first. In such cases the negro usually is the first to go.

Spent Day Alone.
During his last few months in the Fulton tower officials refused to permit the Sisk woman to see Honea, asserting her visits were the cause of trouble. Warden Lawrence said these night, however, that if she or anyone

Continued in Page 6, Column 7.

CITY OFFICES SEEK MORE FUNDS IN '36

Departmental Requests
Must Be Cut Million If Budget Is Adhered To.

Departmental requests for additional funds in 1936 must be shaved more than $1,000,000 if the city is to operate within its income next year, it was indicated yesterday as heads of various governmental divisions filed budgetary requests for the new year.

The formal requests are now being tabulated by B. Graham Watt, city comptroller, and will be referred to the 1936 budget committee. Later the departments will appear before the new finance committee and then city council on the formal appropriation sheet.

Headed by the water department, which asked the right to increase outlay expenses from about 20 per cent of the water receipts to 50 per cent, and actual appropriations to that department from about $450,000 to $1,041,033.16, for fire construction and various other departments sought hikes for 1936.

Water Repairs Sought.
W. Zolt Smith, general manager of waterworks, seeks $300,000 in order to get $500,000 from the federal government for enlarging the filter plant, $165,000 for additions and improvements to the settling basins and $75,000 for improvement of the boiler system, in addition to several other minor improvements.

Twenty-five additional policemen at an annual cost of $50,000; $20,000 for renovation of the cell blocks at the city jail, installation of a police station kitchen at a cost of $22,400; and new automobile and radio equipment totaling $6,000 are major items in the police department budget. The total police department budget would be $1,032,023.70 if all items were included.

More for Electricity.
Dewey Johnson, superintendent of electrical affairs, is seeking a total of $200,000 for 1936 as compared to $225,333.17 for 1935. He wants an additional $30,000 for street lighting in order that all alleyways may be lighted for the new year. $25,000 for installation of a traffic control lighting system for Ivy street and $2,450 to complete renovation of the new automobile and radio equipment totaling $6,000 are major items in the police department budget. The total police department budget would be $1,032,023.70 if all items were included.

Chief O. J. Parker, of the fire department, is seeking a 1936 budget of $807,577.61 as against $643,607.63 allocated for the department for 1935. A total of $30,850 is included for new equipment, composed of two new pumps, two new assistant chiefs' cars and $10,000 for new fire hose. Fire

Continued in Page 6, Column 2.

COUNTY PAY CUTS AROUSE PROTEST

Board Plans Lower Salary Allocations for Four Fulton Departments.

Bitter protests over reductions in salary allocations for Fulton county employees in 1936 broke out yesterday afternoon at the county commission.

The total decrease in the salary budget for the four departments headed by Commissioner George F. Longino, leader of the minority faction, asserted the reductions were unjust "political juggling" and were unjust and unfair.

Under the set-up tentatively adopted at the special meeting, the office of clerk of the superior court, which was reduced $10,320; office of the sheriff, $9,300; juvenile court, $1,830, and the tax collector's office, $2,220, asked to pass on the formal appropriation sheet.

Headed by the water department, which asked the right to increase outlay expenses from about 20 per cent of the water receipts to 50 per cent, and actual appropriations to that department from about $450,000 to $1,041,033.16, for fire construction and various other departments sought hikes for 1936.

Department heads were notified to submit recommendations for individual salaries to the county commissioners at 9:30 o'clock this morning, when the salary budget for 1936 will be formally adopted by the board.

The cuts will mean either reduction of wages paid employees in the various departments or else reduction in personnel. No other department was affected by the new budget, the commission allocating for 1936 the same amount received in 1935.

James L. Respass, county auditor,

Continued in Page 6, Column 6.

Supreme Court Gets 4 Deal Laws Today

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Four New Deal laws will be in the hands of the supreme court tomorrow night with decisions on their constitutionality expected early next year.

They are: AAA processing taxes; the Bankhead act for compulsory cotton production control; amendments to the AAA harvesting inclusions against taxes, and TVA.

Last term the court approved the administration's revaluation of gold in a 5-4 ruling but outlawed NRA codes and "hot oil" control under a section of NRA. The original Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage moratorium and railroad pension acts, which President Roosevelt signed with reservations, also were outlawed.

Continued in Page 6, Column 6.

OLD, OBSCURE LAW MAY AID GOVERNOR

Ancient Clause in Constitution
May Make Talmadge
State Dictator.

By W. M. PEPPER JR.,
Associated Press Staff Writer.

An obscure clause in Georgia's constitution may be used by Governor Talmadge to make absolute his financial dictatorship of the state in January.

Georgia's with a legal bent have discovered the clause, adopted as a part of the constitution in 1877, which they believe might give the Governor the power to manage the state without an appropriation bill.

The general assembly failed to pass an appropriations bill for the next year at its 1935 session and the lawmakers are not expected to convene a session again until 1937. Talmadge insists there will be no special session.

Important Clause.
The constitutional clause, generally regarded heretofore as mere surplusage necessary to be included each time the document is printed, follows:

"The tax and appropriations acts, passed at the session of the general assembly of 1877, and approved by the Governor of the state and not inconsistent with this constitution, are hereby continued in force until altered by law."

There are some, however, who point to the constitutional provision that "no money shall be drawn from the treasury except by appropriation made by law."

Others feel the Governor may snap his red suspenders and pull a magic legal clause—possibly the one of 1877—out of his archives and he did in 1933 to provide $3 automobile license tags.

The constitutional clause has never

Continued in Page 6, Column 6.

Sen. Schall Injured In Auto Accident

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Thomas D. Schall, blind senator from Minnesota, was struck by an automobile on a heavily traveled highway near this city tonight and injured critically.

Schall, a republican, is one of Capitol Hill's bitterest critics of President Roosevelt's administration.

The accident occurred at Cottage City, Md., a few miles south of this city. Schall, hurried to a Washington hospital, was reported to have suffered a fractured skull and a compound fracture of the left leg.

Police arrested a man they said was L. G. Humphries, of Hyattsville, driver of the car, charging him with reckless driving. He later was released on his personal bond.

Police said witnesses told them that Schall, riding to his home, Wyncrest, with friends, had stepped out of the car and was hit as he crossed the road to his house.

Almost two hours after the accident Schall was reported still unconscious.

Continued in Page 6, Column 1.

The Weather

Atlanta—Fair and milder. Cold wave Friday and Friday night. Saturday generally fair, not so cold in south portion.

Local Weather Report.

Highest temperature	56
Lowest temperature	34
Mean temperature	44
Normal temperature	44
Rainfall in last 12 hrs., ins.	.00
Deficiency since last of mo., ins.	1.91
Deficiency since Jan. 1, ins.	6.11
Total rainfall since Jan. 1, ins.	40.29

7 a.m. Noon 7 p.m.
Dry temperature 34 44 46
Wet bulb 31 41 43
Relative humidity 77 41 48

SUN AND MOON FOR TODAY.
Sun rises 8:30 a. m.; sets 4:32 p. m.
Moon rises 1:46 a. m.; sets 12:42 p. m.

REMEMBER

Articles lost today may be advertised in tomorrow morning's issue of The Constitution. Just call WALNUT 6565, a competent ad-taker will gladly help you... the cost is nominal... and you may "charge it."

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER. Temperature 7 p.m. High. Low.

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.
STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER	Temperature T. High.	Rain 12 hrs.
ATLANTA, clear	45	56	.00
Augusta, clear	54	60	.00
Birmingham, clear	39	48	.00
Boston, clear	36	40	.00
Buffalo, snowing	30	32	.02
Charlotte, clear	52	52	.00
Chicago, clear	43		.00
Chattanooga, clear	34		.00
Chicago, pt. city.	30	28	.02
Denver, clear	36	38	.00
Galveston, cloudy	56	56	.00
Harve, clear	22	34	.00
Houston, clear	56	56	.00
Jacksonville, clear	38	66	.00
Kansas City, clear	22	28	.00
Los Angeles, clear	60	60	.00
Memphis, clear	38	42	.00
Minneapolis, clear	43		.00
Mobile, clear	2	8	.76
Montreal, clear	52	60	.00
New Orleans, cloudy	62	66	.00
New York, clear	38	50	.00
Oklahoma City, cloudy	38	45	.00
Phonetic, raining	64		.00
Pittsburgh, snowing	28	30	.04
Raleigh, clear	48	56	.00
San Antonio, clear	62	62	.00
St. Louis, cloudy	24	26	.72
Savannah, clear	54	52	.00
Tampa, clear	38	66	.00
Thomahsville, clear	54	66	.00
Waco, clear	32	42	.00
Washington, cloudy	38	42	.00

PRE-CHRISTMAS SALE

BUY Christmas foods now—get the choice of the best, avoid the biggest crowds, and make substantial money savings! Shop at A&P today. . . . Stock up on the staples you're bound to need and spend the rest of your time with a clear mind, doing other things which have to be done during the festive season.

Swift's Silverleaf or Armour's Star

Pure Lard	2-LB. CARTON	29 ^c	4-LB. CARTON	57 ^c
Fresh Eggs	DOZ.	37 ^c
Salt Meat	FANCY FAT BACK	LB.	15 ^c
Sugar	DOMINO OR DIXIE CRYSTALS	5-LB. BAG	27 ^c	10-LB. BAG 52 ^c
Purity MARGARINE		2 LBS.	29 ^c
Wesson Oil		PINT	18 ^c

HOLIDAY SPECIALTIES

Glace Cherries	LB.	39 ^c
Glace Pineapple	LB.	39 ^c
Glace Lemon	LB.	29 ^c
Glace Orange	LB.	29 ^c
Glace Citron	LB.	29 ^c
Brick Figs	8-OZ. PKG.	10 ^c
Layer Figs	BULK	15 ^c
Rajah Spices	ASSTD. CAN	8 ^c
Raisins	SEEDLESS 2-LB. BAG	15 ^c
Sparkle Desserts	4 PKGS.	17 ^c
Fruit Cake	GRANDMOTHER'S 1 POUND	35 ^c
Fruit Cake	GRANDMOTHER'S 2 POUND	69 ^c

HOLIDAY SPECIALTIES

Dates DROMEDARY UNPITTED	PKG.	15 ^c
Dates MARVIN PITTED	PKG.	15 ^c
Coconut Bon Bons	LB.	15 ^c
Dixie Mix	PKG.	39 ^c
Currents	RAJAH BOX	15 ^c
Plain Olives	SULTANA 14-OZ. JAR	23 ^c
Layer Raisins	3 LBS.	25 ^c
White Raisins	LB.	10 ^c
Ovaltine	6-OZ. CAN	29 ^c
Ovaltine	14-OZ. CAN	52 ^c
Royal Desserts	2 PKGS.	13 ^c

WESTERN PILGRIM BRAND Turkeys

Pilgrim Brand Turkeys are selected for their quality. Only the finest birds merit the famous Pilgrim Brand Tag. Place your order for one of these Turkeys with your A&P Market today and you'll be assured of a successful Christmas dinner.

LB. 35^c

CHRISTMAS APPLES

Old-Fashioned Winesaps

SMALL	LARGE
DOZ. 10 ^c	DOZ. 19 ^c

Lettuce Potatoes

CALIFORNIA ICEBERG

CRISP HEAD

4^c

U. S. NO. 1 COBBLER

5 LBS. 10^c

Bananas	VERY FANCY	3 LBS.	15 ^c
Grapefruit	MEDIUM SIZE	3 FOR	13 ^c
Tall Celery	WELL BLEACHED STALK	7c
FLA. ORANGES

Ga. Yams	FORCED AIR CURED	5 LBS.	13 ^c
Fresh Cocoanuts	EACH	5c
Fresh Cranberries	LB.	22 ^c
MEDIUM SIZE DOZ. 17 ^c

NUTS

Brazil Nuts	LB.	15 ^c
Pecans	LARGE LB.	19 ^c
Pecans	SHELLED 7-OZ. BASKET	27 ^c
Walnuts	NO. 1 17 ^c NO. 2 19 ^c
Mixed Nuts	LB.	15 ^c
Almonds	LB.	33 ^c
Shelled Almonds	LB.	63 ^c

CANDY

Chocolate Cream Drops	LB.	10 ^c
Orange Slices	LB.	10 ^c
Gum Drops	LB.	10 ^c
Fancy Mixed	LB.	15 ^c
Regular Mixed	LB.	10 ^c

STICK CANDY

1-Lb. Cellophane Wrapped—Each	10 ^c
Pure Sugar Stick	15 ^c
Regular Stick	19 ^c

CHOCOLATE COVERED CORDIAL CHERRIES

1-Lb. Box	25 ^c
Assorted Chocolates	5 Lb. Box 95 ^c

Genuine Washington Fir CHRISTMAS TREES

3 to 4 Feet Each	25 ^c
5 to 6 Feet Each	49 ^c
7 to 8 Feet Each	65 ^c

GINGER ALE

And Pure Fruit Flavor Beverages—Yukon Club Brand

3 12-OZ. BOTS.	6 12-OZ. BOTS.	12 12-OZ. BOTS.
13 ^c	25 ^c	49 ^c
3 12-OZ. BOTS.	6 12-OZ. BOTS.	12 12-OZ. BOTS.
23 ^c	45 ^c	85 ^c

24 A BOTTLE DEPOSIT 30 A BOTTLE DEPOSIT

FLOUR SALE

IONA 12 Lbs., 49 ^c	SUNNYFIELD 12 Lbs., 53 ^c	POSTEL'S ELEGANT 12 Lbs., 69 ^c
24-LBS. 89 ^c	24-LBS. 99 ^c	24-LBS. $1.33

AT A & P MEAT MARKETS

Lamb Shoulder Roast

LB. 17^c

Pork Shoulder

ROAST PICNIC STYLE

LB. 19^c

Fresh Dressed Hens	3 1/2 LB. AVERAGE	LB.	25 ^c
Fresh Pork Loin Roast	END CUTS	LB.	25 ^c
Fresh Pork Butts		LB.	23 ^c
Beef or Veal	BONED AND ROLLED ROAST	LB.	25 ^c
Bulk Mince Meat	TOP QUALITY	LB.	19 ^c

Skinned Hams	GEORGIA PEPPERED—WHOLE ONLY	LB.	35 ^c
Hams	MORRELL'S PRIDE—HALF OR WHOLE	LB.	27 ^c
Bacon	SLICED, SUGAR-CURED, NO RIND	LB.	39 ^c
Bacon	SUGAR-CURED, RIND-ON	LB.	33 ^c
Beef Pot Roast		LB.	23 ^c

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA COMPANY

SOUTHERN DIVISION - - ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Motorists Robbed.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Dec. 19.—(P)—W. H. Harrison and Charles McClemings, of New Orleans, La., reported to officers today that they were held up and robbed of $82 last night by two unmasked white men while driving from here to Little Rock. The robbery occurred about 10 miles from here. They reported the bandit car bore an Indiana license plate.

GA. FEED & GRO. CO
QUEEN'S TASTE 287 PETERS, S. W.
FLOUR	48 LBS. $1.85
PURE HOG LARD	50 LBS. $6.50
DOMINO SUGAR	25 LBS. $1.35
C. S. Meal	100 LBS. $1.25
Chicken Feed	10 LBS. 60 ^c
GIVE GROCERIES FOR CHRISTMAS

FRESH FISH AT A&P Meat Markets

Prices for Friday

Fresh Spanish Mackerel	LB.	15 ^c
------------------------	-----	-----------------

Fresh Fish Roe	LB.	32 ^c
Florida Speckled Trout	POUND	17 ^c
Florida Mullet	POUND	10 ^c
Fresh Dressed Whiting	POUND	15 ^c
Skinned Fillet of Haddock	POUND	15 ^c
Fancy White Crab Meat	1/4-LB.	25 ^c
Cooked and Peeled Shrimp	1/4-LB.	25 ^c
Fancy Select Oysters	PINT	29 ^c
Stewing Oysters	PINT	25 ^c

SOUTHERN INCOMES ON FARMS DOUBLED

Value of Cotton Jumps Despite Curtailment of Production.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(P)—Southern farmers pocketed almost twice as much money this year as in 1932.

The Agriculture Department reported today the farm value of principal crops in the 10 leading cotton states was $1,578,493,000, nearly double the 1932 figure of $847,347,000, and about $17,375,000 ahead of last year.

Cotton farmers, in addition to their crop returns, will receive price adjustment payments this year which the farm administration estimated would total $50,000,000, plus $123,000,000 in rental and benefit checks under the cotton control program.

The 1935 farm value of cotton belt crops increased despite declines in four of the 10 states. The largest advances were made in Texas and Oklahoma, hard hit by the drought in 1934.

Georgia experienced the best growing season of all the states, with a combined per acre yield of important crops this year 20.6 per cent above the 10-year average. South Carolina was second with yields 29.1 per cent above the average, and Alabama third with 23.3 per cent.

The farm value of principal crops in the cotton country, 1935 against 1934 as given by the crop reporting board, follows:

State	1934	1935
North Carolina	$292,973,000	$466,348,000
South Carolina	108,538,000	198,623,000
Georgia	158,603,000	157,333,000
Tennessee	124,428,000	99,948,000
Alabama	142,290,000	211,016,000
Mississippi	143,669,000	137,983,000
Arkansas	108,136,000	107,238,000
Louisiana	87,519,000	82,560,000
Oklahoma	111,385,000	122,221,000
Texas	330,127,000	375,288,000

The 1935 farm value of cotton and cotton seed in the 10 principal producing states was given by the crop reporting board as follows: North Carolina lint $33,190,000—seed $8,372,000; South Carolina lint $41,906,000—seed $10,261,000; Georgia lint $55,095,000—seed $17,177,000; Tennessee lint $17,424,000—seed $4,956,000; Alabama lint $58,233,000—seed $13,847,000; Mississippi lint $71,379,000—seed $18,872,000; Arkansas lint $50,062,000—seed $13,464,000; Louisiana lint $30,580,000—seed $7,929,000; Oklahoma lint $28,516,000—seed $7,045,000; and Texas lint $108,835,000—seed $12,401,000.

Cotton farm value was computed on an average price of 11 1/10 cents a pound, and cotton seed at $31.80 a ton.

MCKISSICK IS NAMED S. CAROLINA U. HEAD
COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 19.—(UP)—James Rion McKissick, dean of South Carolina's college of journalism, today was elected president of the University of South Carolina.

Colonel McKissick, who takes office July 1, 1936, succeeds Dr. L. T. Baker, president of the university since 1931. McKissick was named by the board of trustees for a one-year term at his own request.

He has had a long and notable career as a journalist and educator. He holds degrees from South Carolina and Wisconsin universities and studied at the Harvard Law School.

He served as editor of the Greenville News following his admission to the bar and later as editor of the Greenville Piedmont before assuming the post as dean of the university journalism college.

Kamper's

Imported Spanish Malaga Grapes 40c lb.

A basket of these large clusters of delicious white grapes will make a grand gift!

Fresh Cocoanuts . . . 7c ea.
Spanish Chestnuts . . . 50c lb.
Large Stalks Celery . 7c ea.

Potatoes 6 lbs., 15c
Kila Dried Sweet Potatoes 6 lbs. 15c
Fancy Telephone Peas, 3 lbs. 25c

Kamper's Best PASTRY FLOUR 12 lbs., 59c
Postel's Elegant Flour, 12 lbs., 73c
White Flyer Flour, 12 lbs., 53c

Kamper's Special COFFEE 25c lb. 2 lbs. 49c
Freshly roasted! Ground when you buy it!

Drop by our Pyrex at Linden Store and enjoy a cup of this delicious coffee! Special week-end demonstration!

Pyrex Casseroles of Kamper's Finest FRUIT CAKE
Small $3.50
Large $5.00
Size

In Genuine Pyrex Casseroles! Christmas Wrappings!
Southern Fruit Cake such as this is prized by people who have moved away from the South! Beautiful Christmas Gift! Already packaged, Pine "Buns" Gift! Parcel Post prepaid east of Denver.

Kamper's Fruit Cakes 35c, 50c lb.
Hoenshel's Plum Pudding 50c lb. tin
Persian Dates 11-lb. pkg., 25c
Deglet Noor Golden Ripe Dates, lb. pkg., 28c

Sirloin or Club Steak, 36c Lb.
Round Steak 33c lb.

Forequarter Beef Roast Cook a large one today . . . and save time during the busy days ahead! . . . 22c lb.

Cornfield Sugar-cured Hams, 34c lb.
Swift's Premium or Ga. Peanut Hams, 36c lb.
Nutfield Smithfield Style Hams 39c lb.

Hilary McEntyre's Fancy TURKEYS, 41c lb.

EXCLUSIVELY in Atlanta at Kamper's! Hens 10 to 12 lbs. Young turkeys, 15 to 17 lbs. Limited number . . . order early!

Genuine Imported Cheeses
—in Aged Port Wine! Grand Gifts! . . . in Crockets!
95c to $1.50

Keep an assortment for Holiday Entertaining! Cheddar, English Cheddar, English Stilton, French Roquefort, Italian Gorgonzola.

Edam Cheese, Von Rossem, $1.60, $1.90
Baby Gouda Cheese, 50c ea.
Ye Olde Tavern Cheese (in Crockets), 35c, 60c, $1, $1.50
Kaukauna Club Dairy Cheese 35c, 60c, $1, $1.50
Blue Ribbon Quality Cured Cheese, 37c lb.
Philadelphia Cream Cheese 3 pkgs., 25c

Shelled Nuts
Pecan Pieces 50c lb.
Black Walnut Meats, 50c lb.
Small Almonds 60c lb.
English Walnut Pieces, 60c lb.
Large Almonds 80c lb.
Peanut Halves 80c lb.

Mixed Nuts (choice), 25c lb.
Mixed Nuts (fancy), 35c lb.
Mixed Nuts (standard), 17c lb.
3 lbs., 50c

Inaugural Dinner Dance Tonight To Honor New Jaycee Officers

Installation of newly-elected officers of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will take place tonight at an inaugural dinner and ball and at the East Lake Country Club.

A feature of the event will be the honoring of executives of the Atlanta daily newspapers and radio stations.

J. B. Crouch, newly-elected president, and a complete slate of executives will be formally installed. The elections were announced yesterday at a luncheon meeting in honor of George B. Yancey, who resigns as secretary, effective January 1.

Officers to be installed in addition to Crouch are: F. Duke Kelley, executive vice president; Herbert B. Hayes, William A. Horne Jr., and I. Allen Littlefield Jr., vice presidents; and Leon Carter, treasurer.

New Directors.

Members of the new board of directors are: R. Frank Anderson, Allen T. Barr, Vernon Brown, Forest L. Fowler, David Gwyn, John L. Parks, Frank Richards, Robert W. Schilling, R. C. Schoen, John S. Weems, Howard Wilson and George B. Yancey. The advisory board is: Everett G. Jackson, Clifford Hendrix and Duncan G. Peck.

Selection of a secretary has been deferred until a later date.

Edward M. Robertson will act as Santa Claus at a Christmas tree sitting.

W. Eugene Harrington, newly-elected president, will preside.

NEW CROP NO. 1

PECANS

Schleys 29c LB. Stuarts 23c LB.

MED. SIZE Pecans 2 LBS. 25c

WE SHIP ANYWHERE

ROBINSON'S NUTTERY

71 Broad, S. W. 228 P'tree St.

J. J. PETERSON

269 PETERS ST., S.W. MA. 0739

PURE LARD 8 LBS. FOR $1.19

PEANUTS 15c LB.

CHICKEN FEED 100 LBS. $2.10

OCTAGON Toilet Soap 6 FOR 25c

Super Suds 2 FOR 15c

OCTAGON 4 FOR 16c

GIANT SOAP OR POWDERS

FRUIT CAKE Materials

Citron Orange Lemon Cherries Pineapple Apricots

29c LB. 39c LB.

Raisins 2 LBS. 15c

ROBINSON'S NUTTERY

71 So. Broad 228 P'tree St.

PETERS ST. GRO. CO.

283 PETERS, S. W. MA. 1572

Flour 48 LBS. FOR $2.15

PURE Lard 8 LB. CTN. $1.15

FANCY CHOCOLATE CANDY 10c LB.

MIXED CANDY 3 LBS. FOR 25c

OCTAGON SOAP OR POWDERS 10 FOR 39c

PALMOLIVE SOAP 6 FOR 25c

Super Suds 2 FOR 15c

Free TOYS and DOLLS

FOR OCTAGON COUPONS

Do You Get Valuable Gifts FREE with the soap products you now use? If not—change to OCTAGON

1000 Valuable Gifts FREE with OCTAGON Coupons

OCTAGON PREMIUM STORE, 46 ALBURN AVE.

THERE'S MAGIC IN A BOWL OF RICE

LEARN 300 DELIGHTFUL WAYS TO SERVE THIS QUICK ENERGY FOOD!

Colorful new Rice Book tells how to use Rice as a flavor extender in dozens of tempting food combinations! Mail coupon for YOUR copy!

free

Home Economics Department, Southern Rice Industry, New Orleans, La. Please send me free "RICE-300" Book. I will send you 10¢. (Also please send "Rice as a Flavor Extender" if checked here.)

Name _____ Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

ed president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce; Wiley L. Moore, retiring president of that body; W. R. Ulrich, secretary, and Mrs. Wilber S. Brown, president of the woman's division of the chamber, will be among the honor guests.

The following have been invited to represent the Atlanta newspapers: Atlanta Constitution—N. S. Noble, managing editor; Mr. and Mrs. John K. Otley Jr., Ralph McGill, Miss Yolande Gwin and Miss Scott Meador. Atlanta Journal—John Paschall, associate and managing editor; Mr. and Mrs. George Biggers, Mrs. E. K. Van Winkle and Jake T. Carlton. Atlanta Georgian—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Charles Shoney and Stewart Gelders. Radio Station WSB will be represented by Mr. and Mrs. Lambdin Kay; WATL by S. A. Sisley and WGST by W. H. Summerville.

DEAL WORKS GOAL REACHED—HOPKINS

WPA Head, Replying to Hoover, Reports 2,678,629 Employed in '35.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Harry L. Hopkins said today the New Deal goal of employing 3,500,000 needy has been attained.

Jobs provided by his Works Progress Administration, he said, had reached 2,678,629 during the week beginning December 9, while an estimated 825,000 were employed by other federal agencies.

Asked to comment on former President Hoover's recent criticism of the works program, Hopkins said: "What Hoover said about us and our administration of relief is important only if it is considered in the light of what he did for the unemployed between 1929 and 1933." He added: "I can't be answering the political attacks of every politician that attacks us between now and the election."

Detained in 'Frisco

DR. TOYOHICO KAGAWA.

TOYOHICO KAGAWA DETAINED ON COAST

Japanese Lecturer Held by Immigration Officials for Health Study.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Immigration inspectors detained R. Toyohiko Kagawa, Japanese Christian pacifist and socialist, on his arrival here today to begin a widely advertised lecture tour. He lacked a necessary health certificate.

Dr. Kagawa, 47, is suffering from the effect of trachoma, an eye affliction, and other ailments contracted during years of work in Japanese slums.

P. B. Jones, chief inspector of orital immigration, ordered him taken to Angel Island detention station in the bay.

"Dr. Kagawa won't be held any longer than is absolutely necessary," Jones said. "The case is merely one calling for further examination and certification of his health."

Dr. C. C. Cunningham, of Kansas City, chairman of Dr. Kagawa's American itinerary, and the Rev. Stanley A. Hunter, of Berkeley, Cal., said they would communicate with Labor Secretary Frances Perkins about obtaining his release.

"I hope I shall be permitted to enter this country to lecture," Dr. Kagawa said, smiling. "I am concerned with enlisting the aid of Americans and particularly the American churches in the development of consumers' co-operatives."

He declared the inauguration of the Philippine commonwealth "is one of the best things that could have happened."

"It will prove of great good to the islands, this country and to Japan—and it will make for peace in the orient," he said.

BUILDING AWARDS TO REACH 5-YEAR PEAK

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Building construction awards during the current week will aggregate $86,817,000, the highest figure in almost five years, the Engineering News-Record announced today. Acceleration of public works projects was mainly responsible for the heavy increase.

This type of work accounted for $81,117,000 of the total and private awards for the balance of $5,700,000. Public awards were made up of $34,580,000 federal projects and $46,537, 000 of $28,000,000 by Tennessee Valley Authority forces.

Season all Soups with LEA & PERRINS SAUCE

THE ORIGINAL WORCESTERSHIRE

...the crowning glory of your merry Christmas FEAST!

ORDER

A 4 POINT BLUE RIBBON

TURKEY

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

YOU owe it to yourself to be happy inside as well as out on Christmas. Feasting and merry-making are crowning glories of a gay Yuletide. And what could be more festive than a firm fleshed tender 4-Point Blue Ribbon Turkey. Order yours now for a perfect Christmas dinner. They're priced with Christmas savings in mind.

COUNTRY CLUB BUTTER

POUND PRINTS 36c

Palmolive SOAP 3 BARS 15c

Small Package SUPER SUDS EA. 10c

Giant Size Octagon SOAP 3 BARS 14c

Octagon Washing POWDER 3 PKGS. 14c

Camay Toilet Soap 3 BARS 15c

Post Bran Flakes 2 PKGS. 23c

BROOKFIELD CARTON FRESH EGGS

LARGE FRESH SHIPPED DOZEN 29c

Minute TAPIOCA PKG. 15c

Baker's Premium CHOCOLATE 1/4 LB. 17c

Baker's Canned COCOANUT CAN 10c

Swansdown CAKE FLOUR PKG. 33c

Large Fancy Brazil Nuts LB. 12c

Thinsell ALMONDS LB. 23c

CHEESE

2 PKGS. 15c

Large English WALNUTS LB. 23c

Shelled Pecan Halves 1/2 OZ. 27c

Fancy Cluster RAISINS 18 OZ. PKG. 12c

Her Grace Fruit Cake 2 LBS. 93c

Seedless Sunmaid RAISINS 2 PKGS. 19c

Brown or Confectioner's SUGAR 3 PKGS. 25c

Sauer's Vanilla EXTRACT NO. 1 SIZE BOTTLE 17c

Hand-Made Bungalow ROLLS

DOZEN 5c

ATLANTA'S FAVORITE FRENCH BRAND COFFEE LB. 19c

STANDARD QUALITY

Tomatoes 4 NO. 2 CANS 25c

ASP. TIPS Picnic Size 2 CANS 29c

PRUNES 2 NO. 24 CANS 27c

NUCOA LB. 19c

Snowdrift POUND CARTON 16c

CRISCO 3 POUND PAIL 59c

GIFTS FOR APPETITES

Perfect Biscuit Self-Rising FLOUR 24-LB. BAG 87c

COUNTRY CLUB TOMATO JUICE Jumbo Cans 3 FOR 25c

SUGAR 5 LBS. 26c

FRUIT COCKTAIL 2 TALL CANS 25c

MILK 3 TALL CANS 19c

CAKE FLOUR Party Book Free! PKG. 29c

PECANS LB. 19c

HER GRACE VACUUM PACK FRUIT CAKE IN RUM 2 LB. CAN $1.25

PORK & BEANS 3 CANS 13c

STORES WILL REMAIN OPEN UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK UNTIL CHRISTMAS

MADE IN OUR OWN KITCHENS DELICIOUS BAKED

HAM LB. 79c

DELICIOUS DEVILED

CRABS 2 FOR 25c

STEAKS LB. 33c

STEAKS LB. 38c

ROAST LB. 25c

ROAST LB. 23c

BACON SLICED—RIND ON LB. 33c RIND OFF LB. 39c

SAUSAGE POUND BAGS—EACH 25c

SHORTENING LB. 12c

SALT MEAT LB. 15c

VEAL ROAST LB. 23c

BACON 2 LBS. AND 3 LBS. PIECES LB. 27c

PEACOCK MARKET

1033 PEACHTREE HEM. 1126

HENS YOUNG, TENDER, HOME DRESSED LB. 19c

BACON BLACK HAWK LB. 35c HAM BLACK HAWK LB. 43c

LEG O' LAMB LB. 19c ROUND STEAK LB. 27c

COMPOUND Lard LB. 12c ROLLING BACON LB. 14c CHUCK ROAST LB. 16c

NUT OLEO LB. 13c SWIFT JEWEL LB. 13c RIB ROAST LB. 25c

Snowdrift LB. 15c STEAK LB. 29c LAMB ROAST LB. 12c

7c SUGAR DOMINO 10 LBS. 51c

MAXWELL HOUSE Coffee LB. 25c

SUGAR CORN NO. 3 9c

Salad Dressing QT. 24c

Catsup 14 OZ. 10c

DEL MONTE LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S

FRESH NO. 2 1/2 13c PRUNES LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S

ROAST BEEF LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S

CAN 15c LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S

ROAST BEEF LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S

CAN 15c LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S LIBBY'S

WE DELIVER ANYWHERE IN CITY — MINIMUM ORDER $1.00

WARREN'S

The Finest and Choicest in Atlanta. Just Off the Brannon Farm.

TURKEYS All Sizes 30c

BUY NOW... before Turkeys go up. I guarantee they will be higher next week—if not I will give you a FREE TURKEY. —R. L. WARREN.

NOTICE—We announce the reopening of our MORNINGSIDE store at 1592 Piedmont Road. Nicer than ever—new management—new equipment.

Milk Fed—Extra Fancy Fresh Shipped Tennessee

FRYERS 25c Eggs 29c

Any Size Any Color Lb. Doz.

EXTRA FAT Ducks LB. 23c PEN-FATTENED Geese LB. 21c

Hens LB. AND UP 19c TRAPPED Rabbits EACH 30c

CHRISTMAS TREES

Fir Spruce Pine From California

SEE THEM BEFORE YOU BUY

These are the Prettiest and Finest in Atlanta

All Sizes 25c and up

3 to 12 Ft.

FOR SALE IN ALL WARREN STORES

Creamed Nuts

Mix 2-cups Dixie Crystals XXXX Confectioners Sugar, the unbeaten white of 1-egg, 1-teaspoon vanilla, 2-teaspoons cold water into a stiff paste. Shape into little balls and press between halves of walnuts or other nut meats. Dates may also be filled with this cream.

DIXIE CRYSTALS

"The Sweetest Sugar Ever Sold"

Xmas Trees

Fancy Western Firs

3-Ft. to 4-Ft. EACH 25c

5-Ft. to 6-Ft. EACH 49c

7-Ft. to 8-Ft. EACH 65c

FANCY LUSCIOUS FLORIDA

Oranges Thin MED. DOZ. 17c

Large Size DOZ. 21c

FANCY FLORIDA

Tangerines Sweet and Juicy DOZ. 10c

WHITE COBBLER Potatoes U. S. NO. 1 5 LBS. 10c

FANCY LATE CRANBERRIES POUND 19c

WASHINGTON WINESAP Apples EXTRA FANCY 2 DOZ. 25c

FANCY CALIFORNIA ICEBERG LETTUCE Hard Heads EACH 5c

FANCY FRESH GREEN BROCCOLI POUND 10c

DELICIOUS OR SPITZENBERG Apples EXTRA FANCY 6 FOR 10c

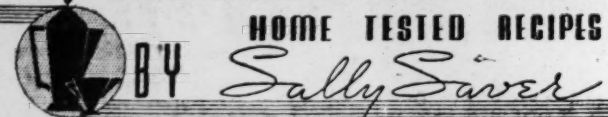

BURGESS KILN-DRIED CANDY YAMS 5 LBS. 15c

FANCY CALIFORNIA CELERY WELL BLEACHED STALK 7c

P I G G L Y W I G G L Y

THREE MEALS A DAY

HOME TESTED RECIPES

CHICKEN FOR DECEMBER 25.

Christmas Dinner For Six.
Oyster Cocktail
Roast Chicken
Frozen Cider
Corn Bread Stuffing
Mashed Sweet Potatoes

Buttered Turnips

Celery Pickles

Dutch Plum Pudding

Orange Sauce

Mixed Candied Fruits

Frozen Cider

Coffee

Quart cider, 1-4 cup orange juice,

1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 tablespoons sugar.

Mix ingredients and freeze until stiff.

Corn Bread Stuffing.

(For 5-Pound Chicken.)

Three tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons chopped onions, 1-2 cup diced celery, 2 cups corn bread, crumbled;

1 cup stale bread, crumbled; 1 egg,

1-2 cup cream, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon chopped parsley.

Melt butter in frying pan, add and brown onions. Add rest of ingredients and mix lightly with fork. Stuff chicken.

Dutch Plum Pudding.

One cup suet, chopped; 2-3 cup molasses, 1-2 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup milk, 2-1-2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda,

1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 cup chopped figs, 1-2 cup chopped raisins, 1-4 cup chopped citron, 1-2 cup chopped almonds.

Mix all ingredients. Half-fill buttered pudding molds, seal tightly and steam three hours.

Orange Sauce.

One cup sugar, 3 tablespoons flour,

1 cup orange juice, 1 cup water, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1-2 teaspoon grated lemon rind,

2 tablespoons butter.

Mix sugar with flour, add rest of ingredients. Cook slowly and stir constantly until sauce thickens. Serve warm or cold.

CHRISTMAS TURKEY.

Dinner for Eight.

Oyster Bisque

Salted Crackers

Celery

Chestnut Stuffing

Roast Turkey

Mashed Potatoes

Spiced Cranberry Jelly

Asparagus Imperial

Festive Salad Mold

Mayonnaise

Plum Pudding

Hard Sauce

Lemon Sauce

Spiced Cranberry Jelly.

Four cups berries, 2 cups water,

12 whole cloves, 1-4 cup bark cina-mon, broken, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 2 cups

sugar.

Boil 7 minutes, the berries, water and spices. Press through strainer, add salt and sugar to juice and boil

4 minutes. Pour into individual molds or shallow pan. Chill. Unmold and cut in bars.

Asparagus Imperial.

Four tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, 4 cups cooked asparagus, 1-2 teaspoon salt,

1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1-4 teaspoon celery salt, 1-4 cup chopped pimiento,

2-3 cup cracker crumbs, 1-2 cup grated

cheese.

Melt butter and add flour. When blended add milk and cook until creamy sauce forms. Stir constantly.

Add asparagus and seasonings. Pour into buttered, shallow baking dish and cover with crumbs mixed with cheese. Bake 25 minutes in moderate oven.

Festive Salad Mold.

One package mint flavored gelatin mixture, 1 cup boiling water, 1-2 cup pineapple juice, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup crushed pineapple, 1-2 cup diced marshmallows, 1-3 cup nuts, broken, cup chopped cabbage, green fruit coloring.

Pour water over gelatin and stir until dissolved. Cool and add rest of ingredients, adding sufficient coloring to give desired green tint. Pour into ring mold and chill until stiff.

Unmold on chopped cabbage or shredded lettuce. Fill center with mayonnaise.

Tomato Stock Soup

Roast Turkey

Pimiento Potatoes

Candied Sweet Potatoes

Cauliflower and Mushrooms

Hard Rolls

Perfection Salad

Open-Face Mince Pie.

Coffee

Tomato Stock Soup.

Three cups flavored soup stock (use canned consommé or bouillon cubes if you do not have stock), 2 cups canned tomatoes, 2 tablespoons lean, raw ham,

1 teaspoon sugar, 2 tablespoons sweet green pepper, chopped, 1-2 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon salt.

Cook ham and pepper in butter 5 minutes; brown lightly. Add stock, tomatoes and sugar; simmer 1-2 hour.

Strain and serve.

Roast Turkey.

Do not wait until the day it is to be eaten to prepare your turkey for the oven. It may be dressed, stuffed, trussed, then covered with wax paper and stored in your refrigerator for 48 hours before roasting.

When you order your turkey, buy on the basis of 3-4 to 1 pound for each person to be served. (The weight means undrawn weight, with the head and feet on as displayed in most markets.) Ask your butcher not to cut through the skin near the neck to remove the crop. He will draw it all from the lower incision, if you request it. Your turkey will be much improved in appearance as a result.

Remove the neck—cut down the back of the neck, loosen the skin from

it. With a sharp knife cut through the muscles at the base of the neck.

Secure it with a skewer. Do not use a sharp knife to cut through the backbone. After the bird is roasted, all string may be removed quickly by pulling out the skewers and toothpicks.

To determine how long turkey is to be roasted, allow 25 minutes to the pound and 25 minutes extra for placing the bird in a cold oven.

Cauliflower and Mushrooms.

Parboil the cauliflower. Drain.

Make a white sauce. Add mushrooms, canned or fresh ones that have been pan fried. Mix with the cauliflower, turned into a buttered casserole, then cover with buttered crumbs. Make the cream sauce. Do not use a large quantity—just enough to give the mixture a little moisture.

Perfection Salad.

One-half cup diluted vinegar, 2 cups boiling water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons gelatin, 1-2 tablespoons gelatin, 1-2 cup cold water, 1 cup cabbage, shredded finely; juice of 1 lemon, 2 cups celery, diced, 1-2 cup sweet green pepper.

Mix boiling water, vinegar, salt and sugar; heat to boiling. Soften gelatin in cold water; dissolve in boiling liquid. Add lemon juice, strain, chill, stirring occasionally. When slightly thickened add vegetables. Turn into moistened ring mold. Chill. Serve garnished with parsley, lettuce and stuffed olives.

Pimiento Potatoes.

Parboil diced potatoes. Drain. Make a medium white sauce, season well; add strips of pimiento. Mix with the potatoes. Cover with buttered crumbs.

Cranberry Relish.

Four cups cranberries, 2 oranges, 1 lemon, 2 cups sugar.

Wash and pick over cranberries.

Wash oranges and remove pulp in eighths. Run all through your food grinder. (Do not peel the oranges and lemon.) Stir in the sugar. Store in a covered container in your refrigerator.

Open-Face Mince Pie.

This pie may be made in advance.

It is delicious! Bake, cool, then store in a cool place. Put about 2 cups mince meat into an unbaked pie shell.

Pare, core, and cut into eighths 3 tart apples. Place each wedge edge of apple down on mince meat. Over-apples sprinkle 1-2 cup brown sugar mixed with 2 tablespoons flour and 1-4 teaspoon cinnamon. Dot with butter. Bake at 400 degrees for 45 minutes. Remove. Reheat before serving, or serve cold if preferred.

Following is recipe for a spiced fruit pudding (shown in illustration above):

One cup molasses, 1 cup milk, 1 cup raisins, 1 cup currants, 1-2 cup butter, 3 tablespoons baking powder, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ground allspice, 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon, 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon,

3 cups flour.

Cream butter, add molasses and egg and beat well. Sift flour, salt, baking powder and spices together. Add alternately flour and milk to the creamed mixture. Last stir in currants and raisins.

Boil two hours in a regular pudding mold or two coffee tins, allow room for pudding to expand.

Hard Sauce.

One-fourth cup butter, white of 1 egg unbeaten, 2 cups confectioner's

sugar.

Cream, butter gradually, add sugar, then egg white and stir until smooth.

Flavor to suit taste.

Soft Sauce.

One tablespoon butter, 1-2 cup granulated sugar, 1 cup boiling water, 1 tablespoon flour.

Put flour and sugar in a saucepan, add boiling water and cook about five minutes. Take off stove and add butter and flavoring. Flavoring may be juice and rind of one lemon, vanilla or brandy to suit taste.

Cranberry Refrigerator Dessert.

One and one-third cups (1 can) sweetened condensed milk, 1-4 cup lemon juice, 2-3 cup cranberry jelly,

24 vanilla wafers.

Blend together sweetened condensed milk and lemon juice. Add 2-3 cup cranberry jelly and mix with a silver fork. Line narrow, oblong pan with wax paper and a layer of vanilla wafers. Cover with jelly mixture. Add another layer of wafers, alternating in this way until mixture is used; finishing with layer of wafers. Let stand in refrigerator for 12 hours.

To serve, turn out on small platter and carefully remove wax paper. Cut in slices and serve plain or with whipped cream. Serves six.

ATTEMPTS TO STEAL

EVIDENCE ON LIGGETT

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 19.—(AP)—H.

H. Peterson, Minnesota attorney-general, disclosed tonight that an attempt was made last night to enter his office supposedly to steal records in the Walter Liggett assassination case.

He said the prowler did not, however, gain access to the files.

The attorney-general said the Hennepin county grand jury would be asked to indict Osborne (Kid Cann)

Blumenfeld as Liggett's slayer when the case is submitted tomorrow. Blu-menfeld has been pointed out by two witnesses—Mrs. Liggett and Wester-ndorff—as the machine gun killer of the Midwest American publisher

December 9.

Detectives went to Omaha, Neb.,

to question Billie Gilbert, 35-year-old blonde, who reportedly said, "My sweetie killed Liggett." She told

Omaha police she left Minneapolis two days ago. Detective Inspector A.

C. Anderson, of Omaha, said the woman, well known to police, neither denied nor admitted making the remark, and that she said she possessed no information on the Liggett slay-ing.

FOR YOUR TURKEY

Use this famous

Bell's Seasoning

to dress your turkey

for a delicious dinner for six people or for a large party

of 20 people

LESS FEDERAL RELIEF URGED BY RAMSPECK

Continued From First Page.

Congress for such retrenchments this term.

Another phase of relief Congressman Ramspeck will tackle on his return to Washington will be certain policies of the WPA in its transfer of individuals from FERA rolls to WPA jobs. This point he will thrash out with Harry Hopkins, national WPA administrator, as it affects merely WPA policies.

Ruling Called Unjust.

"I find the WPA has ruled that no person who was not on FERA rolls between May and November is eligible for jobs under the WPA. This ruling is unjust."

"Many persons left the FERA rolls during that period and accepted private employment. When they lost their jobs with private industry they tried to return to relief and found the gates slammed shut in their faces."

"As a result, a man or woman who tried to relieve the government of the burden of his support for a few months finds himself no longer eligible for federal relief. The man or woman who remained on the government rolls and made no move to help himself is the only one who benefits by the plan. I don't believe a man should be punished because he had the pride and the enterprise to help himself. I will try to get Mr. Hopkins to change that ruling."

Bonus Passage Seen.

Congress will pass the bonus bill this term, Mr. Ramspeck is confident. A new neutrality bill must be passed by February 1, when the present law expires. Provisions must be made for the unemployed before July 1. Supreme court decisions may make it necessary to revamp some of the recently enacted legislation.

"On the neutrality bill, I am in favor of the principle of not permitting the sale of war material to either combatant in a foreign war. I am not in favor of merely shutting off supplies to the aggressor. This present trouble in Ethiopia, I believe, would blow wide open in 24 hours. They seem no closer to a settlement than they were two months ago. It is a terrible test for the League of Nations. If the League backs down now, after throwing the gauntlet to Italy, it may as well quit."

Since Mr. Ramspeck's return from the last session of congress, he has made 55 speeches, practically all of them in Atlanta; he has received an average of 300 calls a week at his office; he has answered an average of 1,000 telephone calls a week and has answered an average of 75 letters a day.

"Congressmen don't have time now, days to go around kissing the babies," he said. "Besides, I have a bad cold right now."

CITY DEPARTMENTS SEEK FUND INCREASE

Continued From First Page.

alarm extension also would cost $7,500.

Miss Jessie Hopkins, librarian, seeks to increase the 1936 budget to $124,521.92, as compared with $102,108.08 for 1935. Most of the increase is for new equipment for the annex recently completed.

Stelner, Prison Ask Hikes.

Stelner, who asks $48,290 as compared to $42,000 for 1935. The city prison seeks $80,208.16 as against $72,777.56 for 1935.

The construction department seeks

Queen and Her Court at Brilliant Big Brother Ball

Here is a scene just after Miss Margaret Wakefield had been crowned queen of the third annual Big Brothers charity ball Wednesday night at the Shrine Mosque. Left to right are Miss Eleanor Roberts, Miss Irene Kelley, Miss Wakefield, Wiley L. Moore, who crowned her, and Miss Jeanette Butts. Miss Roberts was second in the popularity contest, while Miss Butts, and Miss Helen Boggan (not in the picture) were runners-up. Baskets of Christmas cheer for poor children will be provided by the Big Brothers this year. Staff photo by Turner Hiers.

$213,579.10 and $52,696.56 for administration. Street improvements are the largest item in the list of projected undertakings.

The sanitary department budget calls for $309,780.21 for 1936 as compared to $363,543.42 allocated to that department for 1935.

Enlargement of the city crematory for 1936 as compared to $34,516.69 for 1935. Grady hospital seeks $492,654 for 1936, but this does not include $45,000 which the county will pay in 1936.

The motor transportation department asks $193,440.88 for 1936 but got only $175,108.62 this year.

Virtually every other department sought some increase, although most of them were more modest. West said he would complete his tabulations within the next few days.

S. L. LAWRENCE DIES

Decatur Resident Was Former Banker, Cotton Broker.

Stinson Little Lawrence, of Decatur, died yesterday afternoon at the residence, 507 West Howard street, after a brief illness. Mr. Lawrence was reared at Sparta, Ga., where he was a prominent cotton broker and bank director. He retired in 1919 and moved to Decatur, where he had become well known. He was a member of the First Methodist Church of Decatur.

He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Miss Elizabeth Lawrence, of Oxford, O.; Mrs. J. B. Mann and Miss Christine Lawrence, both of Decatur; two sons, Dr. R. C. Lawrence and S. L. Lawrence Jr., of Decatur; two sisters, Miss Alice Lawrence, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Whitten Davis, of Savannah; two brothers, J. F. Lawrence, of Newkirk, Okla., and William M. Lawrence, of Hardy, Arkansas.

Arrangements will be announced by Harry G. Poole.

'Bright Lights' Lure Tragic for 'Possum

Attracted by the lights of a "bright" Christmas tree, part of a yuletide display on grounds of the establishment of H. M. Patterson & son, a small "possum" enjoyed itself last night until Patrolman W. H. Deane came along.

As a crowd watched, the officer climbed the tree and captured the animal. It was nesting near the figure of an angel, part of the display depicting the scene of the Nativity.

The patrolman placed the "possum" in a box and will use it for a dinner, he said.

CONSTITUTION'S DRIVE ENDS COACHING EVIL

Continued From First Page.

officers. These were presented to the board, which heard other criticism, and the order barring army officers from engaging in coaching at civilian institutions followed.

It was issued generally to the army corps areas yesterday.

Football coaches, generally, commended the step as a progressive one.

It is one of the most important sports stories since the close of the football season and brings to an immediate close a growing evil in army and football circles.

Hurt Army Morale.

It destroyed army morale in that officers not coaching football saw their more favored brother officers drawing double pay and getting political favors. It created unfair practice in depriving coaches, with no other profession, of their chances at positions as coaches.

The order further prohibits an officer being assigned to any institution which does not have a branch of his service as an R. O. T. C. unit. For instance, Major Ralph Sasse last year was assigned to Mississippi State University. He is a cavalry officer and Mississippi State has no cavalry unit.

Two to Fulfill Contracts.

He and Captain Biff Jones, whose row with the late Senator Huey Long brought army coaches into the limelight a little more than a year ago, are the last two army officers who will serve as coaches. They will be permitted to complete their present contracts.

Biff Jones was assigned to the University of Oklahoma, replacing Lewis Harbridge, who had been signed for the position. He received that assignment after being "fired" as L. S. U. football coach by Huey Long.

All such episodes, most desirable from the army standpoint, are at an end following the new order by the War Department.

The Constitution is pleased that its news and sports comment should have influenced this new order which is constructive, both for the army and for the coaching profession.

THE CONSTITUTION CREDITED WITH ENDING COACHING EVIL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—High officials of the war department acknowledged tonight a recent editorial in "The Constitution" based upon a previous article by Ralph McGill. Constitution sports editor, was "an important factor" leading to an order just promulgated with respect to the employment of army officers as coaches in college football.

Copies of The Constitution editorial and the McGill article, criticizing the practice of permitting army officers on active duty being employed as football coaches at high salaries, were forwarded to the department here by Major General George Van Horn Moseley, commander of the fourth corps area, with headquarters in Atlanta.

Members of the army general staff subsequently caused a report to be made of the practices complained of, resulting in a memorandum being sent out to all army corps commanders dealing with the subject.

Copies of the memorandum were not available here tonight but war department officials explained they are designed to prevent further employment of officers as coaches while retaining active commissions.

General Moseley, who recommended that the practice be stopped, is said to have been summoned to Washington recently for a conference preparatory to issuance of the memorandum.

"The Constitution editorial and McGill article were well expressive of criticism that has been heard of employment of officers as football coaches," said one war department official who asked that his name be withheld.

"While the general staff has had the subject under consideration for some time the paper's position was very opportune."

BLACKSHIRTS CLAIM ETHIOPIAN RETREAT

Continued From First Page.

enemy concentrations along the Takaze today, and fascist sources predicted the Ethiopian losses would number 1,000 in that sector before the warriors escape from an Italian ambush.

ETHIOPIANS CLAIM VICTORY ON TAKAZE

ADDIS ABABA, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Claims that Italian forces had fled the Takaze river front "in great disorder, leaving the battlefield strewn with dead," were dispatched today by Emperor Haile Selassie to Djibouti, a commander of the stream.

(The report was at sharp variance with Italian claims of victory both on the Takaze front and south of Makale.)

Ayale reported the conflict occurred near the holy city of Aksum, now in Italian hands, and declared: "I defeated the Italians in a major engagement."

The emperor, who is at Dessie, relayed Ayale's dispatch to the capital. A high official said the Negus, while standing on his order against Ethiopian offensives, had rescinded his command for a strategic retreat of the northern armies.

On the southern front, strong columns of warriors were reported moving south from Sahab Banah and Anele, toward Italian positions.

COUNTY SALARY CUTS BRING QUICK PROTEST

Continued From First Page.

said the total pay roll of Fulton county in 1935 was $1,824,578, while under the new schedule it will be $1,808,726 for 1936.

Commissioner Longino and Commissioner J. A. Raggsdale opposed the reductions as proposed and voted, in the tentative schedule, by the three majority members of the commission, Dr. Charles R. Adams, chairman; Edwin F. Johnson and Ed L. Almand.

Retrenchment Pledged.

"The majority bloc pledged itself to a program of retrenchment after two grand juries investigated them and now, when the time comes to retrench, they cut the budget by a mere $17,000," Longino said.

"I think the expenses of the county should be reduced, but this cut hits at the employees in the lower brackets and it affects the departments which have been hit hardest since the depression."

"It is just a political juggling and the reductions are merely political blows struck by the majority members of the county board," he said.

J. W. Simmons, clerk of the superior court, whose budget was heavily reduced, said he would recommend to the commissioners this morning that his department receive the same in 1936 as in 1935.

The amount cut from his allocation represents the total salaries of three deputy clerks he fired because of political differences, another who resigned, and a woman clerk who was transferred to another department.

The superior court clerk declared it was necessary to the good service of his office to the public to have the vacancies refilled and today it is expected he will demand of the commissioners that they authorize the replacements. Simmons previously requested the replacements but the commissioners at that time deferred action.

Likewise, the reduction of the sheriff's allocation represents for the most part the salaries for positions now vacant. Deputies asserted, however, that the office is running with a slim staff and extra help is needed in order to render proper service.

Means Future Expense.

Judge Garland M. Watkins, of the juvenile court, said his department is operating with a small staff and that the reduction to his court will materially affect the services the court renders in reclaiming and rehabilitating juvenile delinquents who otherwise would develop into confirmed criminals, resulting in tremendous cost to the state and society.

The cut to the office of tax collector represented the salary of one employee now dead. This position will not be refilled. Earl Stutts, tax collector, made no statement yesterday.

The municipal court, generally considered as paying the highest salaries of any county department on the whole, did not receive a cut in the tentative schedule.

Frequent Clashes.

The board meeting yesterday was featured by frequent clashes among the warring factions.

Longino charged that he, though chairman of the finance committee of the county commission, had not known of the plans of the "big three" to cut the four departments' allocations for salaries.

"I see no economy in this kind of reduction," he declared. "Real economy would be effected if the commission eliminated personnel in overstaffed departments and reduced the salaries of the higher-ups, those in the highest brackets."

"But I oppose cutting the little fellow as a political move. I oppose playing politics with salaries," he said.

Jere Wells, superintendent of county schools, appeared before the board to ask that $100,000 be allocated to the schools to restore the normal salaries of teachers who have been drastically cut since the depression.

Commissioner Johnson replied that if the money could be found and the procedure would be legal, he favored such a move. Other commissioners said they favored paying the teachers more when the funds could be obtained.

OLD LAW MAY MAKE TALMADGE DICTATOR

Continued From First Page.

been passed on by the courts, lawyers say, so its real meaning is open to debate.

No Time Limit.

What is to stop Talmadge, they ask, from contending the framers of the constitution wanted to guard against such a lapse of appropriations as that now facing the state? No time limit is set. The appropriation was to go on, year after year, "until altered by law."

On the other side are those who say the provision was merely temporary and not intended to apply beyond the 1877 act.

Even if it is one loophole through which the Governor may choose to jump in the emergency, and Talmadge, who has remained silent, may have placed a marker at the page of the constitution, too, because he has assured the schools they will get the same amount of money as they did in 1933, minus $2,000,000 diverted from highway funds.

Through it all, Talmadge has steadfastly refused to disclose his plan.

Borrowing Hint.

He hinted that the state might try to borrow its way along when he answered a query about the provision requiring an appropriation to draw money from the treasury by saying:

"Well, about letting the treasury keep the money?"

He would not discuss his statement further.

The only known instance in which Georgia operated without appropriations was following the Civil War during the early part of 1866.

Because of military rule the 1865 legislature passed no appropriation bill. Governor Jenkins kept the institutions running with money from the 1865 contingent fund augmented by borrowed funds.

Salaries of state officials were not paid until March 14, when the legislature passed an appropriations bill. Small's volume reporting proceedings at the constitutional convention said the provision on the tax an appropriations act of 1877 was offered by Mr. Lawton as an amendment to come in after Paragraph 3, Article 12. There being no objection, the amendment was inserted."

F. E. TUBBS PASSES AT ANNISTON, ALA.

F. E. Tubbs, resident of Anniston, Ala., and former Atlantan, died yesterday in Anniston. The body will be brought to Atlanta today for services.

He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Matt Griffin, of Atlanta; Mrs. B. H. Hubbard, of Anniston; and Mrs. C. L. Barton, of Camden, Ark.; three sons, Harold and F. E. Tubbs Jr., of Atlanta, and H.

To Pay Death Price Today

MARVIN HONEA FACES DEATH IN CHAIR TODAY

Continued From First Page.

else desired to see Honea this morning they would be permitted to enter the death cell.

Honea's attorneys made two appeals to the Governor this week but it was not until yesterday that the chief executive made up his mind not to interfere with the execution. The attorneys were reported last night to be planning an extraordinary motion for a new trial which would stay the execution automatically, but as far as could be learned no such motion had been presented. Under the law any superior court judge in the state may entertain such a motion.

The execution of Honea will take place a year to the day from the killing of Lord, a FERA worker who was shot and killed in the holdup of a Center Hill grocery. Lord, a patron of the store, was slow to obey Honea's command to hold up his hands along with the storekeeper and was fatally wounded by the bandit for his failure to carry out his command.

W. Tubbs, of Bull's Gap, Tenn.; one brother, Albert Tubbs, of Canada. Arrangements will be announced by Harry G. Poole.

OUTLOOK IS BRIGHTER FOR 'OPPORTUNITIES'

Continued From First Page.

their ill-clad little bodies feel the winter cold as sharply as any.

If you can't give enough to take care of an Opportunity in full, send whatever you can spare to Hugh Trotti, treasurer of the Ten Opportunities Fund, care of The Constitution. And he who knows what is within all our hearts, who sees each sparrow's fall and who pleads today for "these, my little ones," will know just how big a response you have made in proportion to your ability to give.

Contributions to the Ten Opportunities fund of yesterday included:

Previously acknowledged ... $871.00
A. Friend ... 45.00
A. B. O. ... 50.00
N. J. ... 45.00
C. O. Towles ... 10.00
Another Friend ... 500.00
Fifth District Reserve Officers Ass'n. of U. S. ... 9.38
One Who Is Interested ... 5.00

Total to date ... $1,335.38

As Typically Christmas As Holly ...

Toilet Kit of Leather

An eight-piece case of lovely real leather that some one will be proud to own.

$3.00

MAIL ORDERS will receive prompt attention and every consideration for Christmas delivery. Send $50 for parcel post and insurance.

W. Z. TURNER LUGGAGE CO.

219 PEACHTREE

GIFT SUGGESTIONS

Be Happy Go LUCKY $1.35 a Carton

Be Happy Go LUCKY $1.35 a Carton

Pipe and Tobacco Combination

2-Tins UNION LEADER
1-50c BRIAR PIPE
2-Pkgs. PIPE CLEANERS

All For 47c

Garrett's Virginia Dare WINES

ASSORTMENT

COMPLETE

OLD LAW MAY MAKE TALMADGE DICTATOR

Continued From First Page.

What is to stop Talmadge, they ask, from contending the framers of the constitution wanted to guard against such a lapse of appropriations as that now facing the state? No time limit is set. The appropriation was to go on, year after year, "until altered by law."

On the other side are those who say the provision was merely temporary and not intended to apply beyond the 1877 act.

Even if it is one loophole through which the Governor may choose to jump in the emergency, and Talmadge, who has remained silent, may have placed a marker at the page of the constitution, too, because he has assured the schools they will get the same amount of money as they did in 1933, minus $2,000,000 diverted from highway funds.

Through it all, Talmadge has steadfastly refused to disclose his plan.

Borrowing Hint.

He hinted that the state might try to borrow its way along when he answered a query about the provision requiring an appropriation to draw money from the treasury by saying:

"Well, about letting the treasury keep the money?"

He would not discuss his statement further.

The only known instance in which Georgia operated without appropriations was following the Civil War during the early part of 1866.

Because of military rule the 1865 legislature passed no appropriation bill. Governor Jenkins kept the institutions running with money from the 1865 contingent fund augmented by borrowed funds.

Salaries of state officials were not paid until March 14, when the legislature passed an appropriations bill. Small's volume reporting proceedings at the constitutional convention said the provision on the tax an appropriations act of 1877 was offered by Mr. Lawton as an amendment to come in after Paragraph 3, Article 12. There being no objection, the amendment was inserted."

JOAN BLONDELL'S PHOTO OFFERED IN NEXT SUNDAY'S CONSTITUTION

A photograph of Joan Blondell has been in great demand. In conjunction with the release of her next Warner Brothers picture, "Miss Pacific Fleet," there has been a special pose of her and it is doubted if you have ever seen such a genuinely realistic portrait. The picture is 8x10 inches in beautiful linen-like finish. Do you want it?

You may have, not only the photograph of Miss Blondell, but photographs of many others to be offered in the Screen and Radio Magazine of the Sunday Constitution—two each Sunday.

Last Sunday, Dec. 15th, there appeared the pictures of Ralph Bellamy and Rochelle Hudson, together with a coupon telling how these stars' pictures could be secured. Next Sunday, Dec. 22nd, pictures of Joan Blondell and the late Lon Chaney will appear, together with a coupon stating how these pictures can be secured.

Be sure that you get Ralph Bellamy and Rochelle Hudson of last Sunday, and Joan Blondell and the late Lon Chaney for next Sunday, Dec. 22nd.

Be sure that you get Ralph Bellamy and Rochelle Hudson of last Sunday, and Joan Blondell and the late Lon Chaney for next Sunday, Dec. 22nd.

GIFTS FOR EVERYONE AT THE PEANUT STORE!

SPECIALS UNTIL XMAS

PLANTERS HOT ROASTED PEANUTS

20c 2 2 LBS. FOR 33c 3 LBS. FOR 49c

Roasted Before Your Eyes—Buy Hot Peanuts

EXTRA SPECIAL! No. 2 ALL KINDS OF UNSELECTED NUTS

MIXED NUTS 55c LB.

FANCY GIFT BOXES! 50c-75c-$1.00-$1.50 AND UP SEE THEM Prepared

ALL POUND PURCHASES IN HOLLY BOXES FRESH NUTS!

Salted or Unsalted

Whole Cashews .59c lb.
Broken Cashews .39c lb.
Medium Pecans .69c lb.
Mammoth Pecans .89c lb.
No. 1 Mixed Nuts .89c lb.
English Walnuts .59c lb.
Black Walnuts .59c lb.
Large Filberts .79c lb.
Unblanched

Brazils .49c lb.
Blanched Brazils .69c lb.
Blanched Almonds .99c lb.
Pignolias .79c lb.
Green Pistachios $1.50 lb.

Chocolate Nuts

Choc. Peanuts .19c lb.
Choc. Raisins .19c lb.
Choc. Almonds .49c lb.
Choc. Brazils .69c lb.
Choc. Filberts .59c lb.
Choc. Pecans .49c lb.
Choc. Nut Squares .29c lb.
Choc. Walnuts .69c lb.
Choc. Mixed Nuts .49c lb.
Choc. Dates .35c lb.
Nut-Filled Dates .39c lb.
Choc. Figs .59c lb.
Sugared Peanuts .25c lb.

NATIONAL PEANUT CORPORATION

27 S. Broad

BETWEEN VIADUCT AND ALABAMA ST.

"Look for the Strung Peanut Display ... Walls and Ceilings Made of Peanuts ... ONLY ONE STORE IN ATLANTA"

HOW NEWLY-MARRIED MRS. WRIGHT'S CAKE WON THE PRIZE FOR TENDER TEXTURE

ITS REMARKABLE CREAMING PROPERTIES —SECRET OF TEXTURE AND TENDERNESS

WOMEN everywhere are quitting old-type shortenings for Good Luck. Because of its remarkable, quick creaming properties. Even when taken cold from the refrigerator it creams up beautifully—never brittle, always smooth—takes up sugar almost instantly. Hence, Good Luck makes cakes with that smooth, velvety-crum texture you want—"air holes" and "air tunnels" are virtually eliminated.

Good Luck is a scientific pure food creation. It is pure vegetable, churned in wholesome milk—not to be confused with ordinary, cheap margarine. It comes to you mild and sweet and fresh—dated for freshness

SILVER BUYING EYED; MART SLUMP FEARED

Morgenthau Holds Chaos In World Metal Trade Might Cause Commodities Drop

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Conflicting treasury silver purchases virtually to the output of Latin American mines. Secretary Morgenthau today indicated a sharp watch lest the ensuing chaos in the world silver market adversely affect domestic commodity prices.

"In the treasury taking into consideration the effect of the recent slump in silver prices on the stock market here?" he was asked at a press conference.

"Take a look at commodity prices in the last 10 days and answer your own question," he replied, smiling. "The facts are there. I am watching and interpreting them. Now I draw your attention to them."

Examination revealed that in the 10 days since silver prices plunged downward due to the withdrawal of the treasury from principal world silver markets, commodity prices have fluctuated within a narrow range, showing for the whole period only a minute drop.

The treasury has bought all the silver produced in Mexico this year, the cabinet member said, in illustration. Large quantities have been acquired too from other Central and South American countries, all in direct transactions with their government.

The secretary's statement, however, failed to allay the prevailing confusion in the New York and London silver markets where prices fell again, for lack of buyers, while on the stock exchange the shares of companies with interests in Mexico rose $1 to $3.

For the year, thus far, Morgenthau said that Mexico's production amounted to some 22,000,000 ounces of the metal, all bought at prevailing New York prices. In addition, the treasury has bought all domestic production—about 40,000,000 ounces.

The Mexican silver, he said, was paid for by check on the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, recalling that in one instance there was an outright swap of gold for Mexican silver.

PATROLMAN VINING FREED UNDER BOND

Alleged Slayer Granted Liberty With Consent of Solicitor Boykin.

Patrolman J. H. Vining, under indictment for the murder of Robert Donnell Hunt, was allowed to make bond of $5,000 yesterday after Solicitor-General John A. Boykin consented to bail for the city policeman.

Vining surrendered into the custody of the sheriff yesterday and a habeas corpus petition was immediately filed by Sam D. Hewlett, his attorney, but it was not heard when Judge Hugh M. Dorsey signed the bond order after Boykin consented.

In the habeas corpus petition, Vining set forth the same details he told at the coroner's inquest, claiming Hunt was shot as he sought to escape arrest. Vining said he and his partner, Patrolman W. M. Richards, answered a radio call on Venable street that a car was being stolen. He asserted they saw a man jump from a car and run. Vining pursued. The policeman said Hunt struck him on the chin and he fired "into the ground" to stop him when he began running again. The shot hit the youth in the back and he died later at Grady hospital.

Chief T. O. Sturdivant declared Vining will not be suspended and will continue working. He will "back the policeman to the limit," he said.

WAR VETERANS AIDING CHRISTMAS WRAPPERS

Atlantans who are not handy at wrapping Christmas bundles will find relief handy in the corridors of the Postoffice building.

Charles Thorpe and Hobart Byrd, two veterans of the World War, have set up stands to assist postoffice patrons in getting their packages ready for mailing.

The veterans are not allowed to charge for their work, but they provide the paper and the string and the workmanship, and accept voluntary contributions from their patrons.

Freed of Charges

WILLIAM LANGER.

LANGER ACQUITTED IN NORTH DAKOTA

Former Governor, Two Ex-State Officials Freed of Conspiracy Charges.

BISMARCK, N. D., Dec. 19.—(AP)—A federal court jury today acquitted former Governor William Langer and two other former North Dakota officials of conspiracy charges.

Freed with Langer were R. A. Kinzer, former relief secretary, and Frank Vogel, former state highway commissioner. They were charged with conspiracy to obstruct federal relief legislation by soliciting political contributions from workers paid with federal relief and highway funds.

A fourth defendant, Oscar Erickson, publisher of the Leader, for support of which the contributions allegedly were sought, was freed two days ago on a directed verdict.

The jury received the case late yesterday afternoon.

The trio found innocent today were on trial for the third time. They were convicted at the first trial, in June, 1934, but won a new trial upon an appeal. A second trial, last month, ended in a jury disagreement.

Langer was removed from office as Governor following his conviction in June. Subsequently renominated as republican candidate for office, he withdrew in favor of his wife, Lydia, who was defeated by Thomas Moodie, democrat. Moodie subsequently was disqualified for failure to fulfill a constitutional requirement and was succeeded by the lieutenant governor, Walter Welford, a republican.

Armstrong is now Knox county trustee.

Last March he sold the business in which he had been engaged for 30 years. At that time there were $38,400 in outstanding obligations to the company.

"I probably could sell the accounts for 25 or 30 cents on the dollar, but then collectors would hound my friends from now on," Armstrong said.

MRS. KEHELEY DIES

Atlanta Church, Social Leader Passes in Florida.

Mrs. L. P. Keheley, Atlanta church and social leader, died yesterday at her winter home in Bradenton, Fla. She lived here with her brother, William Hodges, at 1022 St. Charles avenue, N. E.

Mrs. Keheley was a charter member of the Druid Hills Baptist church and was superintendent of the primary department of the Sunday school. Her husband was also a charter member of the Druid Hills church and one of its first officials.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Lula Ray, of Newbern, Ala., and three brothers, Edgar Hodges, of Rockmart, Ga.; Percy W. Hodges, of Sylacauga, Ala.; and William Hodges, of Atlanta.

The body will be brought to Atlanta this morning and funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Druid Hills Baptist church with Dr. Louis D. Newton officiating.

Burial will be in West View cemetery.

13 Trucks Burned.

BUNNELL, Fla., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Thirteen motor trucks, used by the T. B. Gillespie Company, of Palatka, in construction of the final stretch of State Highway No. 28, the Bunnell Lake City short route, were destroyed by fire here today.

Graves To Give Survey of Lynching In Writing for 'The South Today'

"It can be stated on the best of evidence that thousands of very good readers and writers in the south believe in lynching as a stern necessity under certain circumstances," advises John Temple Graves II, in his survey of lynching which will appear in Sunday's Constitution. Without the prestige which the comparatively educated support of these people give the institution, Dr. Graves thinks, the actual lynchings might be much more careful.

These and other conclusions on lynching, one of the south's greatest problems, are reached by Graves in his inspiring contribution to "The South Today," regular Sunday feature in The Constitution. They are the result of years of contact with the problem which Dr. Graves has conducted, under his own name, a column on the front page of a large southern newspaper. In this capacity he has had his share of letters from every type of newspaper reader, and because they have come to him as individuals, they have been more intimate and enlightening than letters addressed formally to a newspaper's editorial page.

Out of this wealth of correspondence, from doctor, lawyers, businessmen, housewives, teachers and people in every walk of life, Dr. Graves has constructed a clinical survey of the lynch mind, which is highly enlightening and tremendously interesting and readable.

"The Lynch Mind: A Snapshot," by John Temple Graves II, will be the title of the second article of "The South Today," and will be found in The Constitution next Sunday.

Dr. Ralph Wager, dean of education at Emory University, also speaking, urged voters "to view the whole American scene," before aligning themselves with any one group. Qualified voters were urged to vote by J. P. McKinley, attorney. He said that young business women should qualify to vote.

VERMILLION SELECTED BY CONTAINER BUREAU

Perishable division of the Freight Container Bureau of the Association of American Railroads, of New York city, announced yesterday the appointment of R. W. Vermillion, of Jacksonville, as its southeastern representative. States which will be under Mr. Vermillion's supervision will include Georgia, Tennessee, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi. Tentative headquarters will be at Jacksonville. For several years Mr. Vermillion has supervised the transportation of fresh fruits and vegetables from the southeast for a railway.

RAMSPECK ADDRESSES MODERN AMERICA CLUB

Congressman Robert Ramspeck said that the United States Chamber of Commerce desires the federal government again to take "the role of umpire while it makes the rules" in a recent address before the Modern America Club. Citing some evils of propaganda, he said "it is hard for people to think clearly and to prevent selfish interests from controlling opinions."

Dr. Ralph Wager, dean of education at Emory University, also speaking, urged voters "to view the whole American scene," before aligning themselves with any one group.

Men's Xmas Gifts.

Shirts, Pajamas, Neckwear, Socks, Belts, Mufflers, Hdkfs. In Xmas Boxes—Buy 'Em From Your Old Friend

Allen M. Pierce

GEO. PIERCE'S, 2 Forsyth St.

themselves with any one group. Qualified voters were urged to vote by J. P. McKinley, attorney. He said that young business women should qualify to vote.

VERMILLION SELECTED BY CONTAINER BUREAU

Perishable division of the Freight Container Bureau of the Association of American Railroads, of New York city, announced yesterday the appointment of R. W. Vermillion, of Jacksonville, as its southeastern representative. States which will be under Mr. Vermillion's supervision will include Georgia, Tennessee, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi. Tentative headquarters will be at Jacksonville. For several years Mr. Vermillion has supervised the transportation of fresh fruits and vegetables from the southeast for a railway.

Travel Train

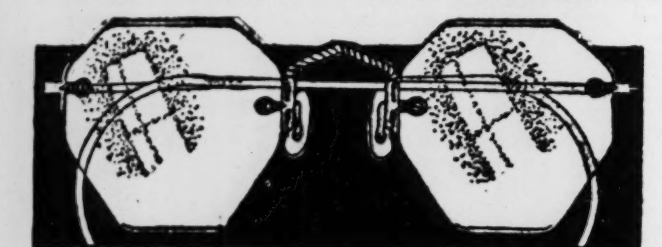

During the
CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS
LOW RATES—EVERYWHERE

Be Safe and Sure of a Happy Christmas—Use

Central of Georgia Railway

Comfortable Trains—Convenient and Dependable Schedules.
Ticket Office, 95 Forsyth St., N. W. Phone WA. 8181

"DIXON" RIMLESS GLASSES

Call at once for this special offer. For this week only you can obtain these exquisite latest style "Dixon" Drop Octagon rimless glasses, complete with Toric Stock Lenses, fitted in modern, attractive 12-Carat White Gold filled mountings. All lenses specially edge ground by expert artisans to meet your exact needs. Positively guaranteed to give complete satisfaction, or your money back.

JUST TRY THEM 10 DAYS! Just try these glasses 10 days. Prove at our risk how perfectly they enable you to see FAR or NEAR, read the smallest print or thread the finest needle. Convince yourself by actual test how these fine, stylish glasses will improve your appearance as well as your vision. Take advantage of this unusual offer of a really fine pair of glasses at a bargain price. There is no obligation to purchase. Money back if not satisfied.

National Optical Stores Company

30 PEACHTREE ST., N. W.

Stores in Many Principal Cities of U. S. and Canada

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Thousands of Satisfied Customers

Clothier Cleans Slate, Forgits $38,000 in Debts

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 19.—(AP)—As a special Christmas gift, Charles G. Armstrong, former Knoxville clothing store owner, is telling 7,000 persons to forget about the $38,000 they owe on accounts.

"I'm wiping the slate clean," he said today. "From now on when I meet old acquaintances and patrons on the street I want to be able to say, 'Old boy, you don't owe me a cent.'"

Armstrong is now Knox county trustee.

Last March he sold the business in which he had been engaged for 30 years. At that time there were $38,400 in outstanding obligations to the company.

"I probably could sell the accounts for 25 or 30 cents on the dollar, but then collectors would hound my friends from now on," Armstrong said.

HIGH'S Spectacular Christmas Values

Shop at HIGH'S—every department brimming with sparkling, tantalizing Christmas merchandise—at LOW prices that will make them gifts to you! Shop with a "Letter of Credit"—easy, practical—and you have 5 MONTHS TO PAY.

• BOOKS CLOSED: Charge Purchases Made Now Payable in February

4 Pcs. Knitted Woolen Tots' Leggin Sets

Snuggly sweater, leggings, helmet and mittens—for wee 1 to 3-year-olds! Pink, blue, white and navy—Set

$2.98

HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

"Humming Bird" Chiffon Hose

More wisps of sheer beauty—she'll adore! 51-gauge, ringless in fashion-right colors. Pr.

$1.35

HOSIERY—HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

'Kerchiefs—Neckwear

WOMEN'S LINEN 'KERCHIEFS, hand-made. Ea. 25c
MEN'S LINEN 'KERCHIEFS, initialed. Ea. 50c
MEN'S PATCHWORK 'KERCHIEFS, hand-made. Ea. 17c
WOMEN'S LINEN 'KERCHIEFS, hand-made. Ea. 17c
$1.98 SAMPLE NECKWEAR, lace, gold, silver, 99c
NOVELTY SILK SCARFS, huge assortment. Ea. $1.00
COSTUME FLOWERS, all kinds. $1 values. 59c
BOUCLE KNOT SCARFS, $1 values. Ea. 79c
SILK BLOUSES, with long sleeves. Ea. $1.98

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Decorated Crystal Cocktail Sets

Reg. $1.98! A gift for the man-about-town! Shaker and six glasses—with sail-boat motif.

$1.35

GLASSWARE—HIGH'S FOURTH FLOOR

Genuine Seal Leather Bags

Soft and pliable—a handbag the most particular woman will adore! Black, navy, brown—lined and fitted.

$2.98

HANDBAGS—HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Scarfs—Bridge Sets, Etc.

LACE SCARFS, VANITY SETS, lovely patterns. Ea. 39c
EMBROIDERED SCARFS, and vanity sets. Ea. 59c
EMBROIDERED BRIDGE SETS, colorful designs. $1.98
APPLIQUED BRIDGE SETS, cloth, 4 napkins. 89c
HEMSTITCHED DAMASK CLOTHS, 54x58 inches. 59c
LINEN HUCK FACE TOWELS, soft quality. Ea. 49c
"KENWOOD" ALL-WOOL BLANKETS, solid colors. $8.95
RAYON TAFFETA SPREADS, bouclair colors. 5.98
SILK-COVERED COMFORTS, wool filled. Ea. $10.95

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

7-Jeweled "Elgin" Wrist Watches

A gift that men or women will appreciate! Gold or leather bands and bracelets! As high as $32.50! As LOW as

$15.95

WATCHES—HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Give HER Real Kid Gloves

Imported quality—slip-ons and cuffed styles in colors she wants! All sizes.

$1.98

GLOVES—HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Men's Shirts—Ties, Etc.

MEN'S "MARLBORO" SHIRTS, new patterns. Ea. $1.65
MEN'S "NON-WILT" COLLAR SHIRTS, all sizes. 99c
HICKOK BELT AND BUCKLE SETS, initialed. Set. $1.00
"INTERWOVEN" SOCKS, new patterns. Pr. 35c
MEN'S SILK CREPE ROBES, washable. Ea. $5.45
MEN'S SILK TIES, hand-made, resilient. 59c-1.00
MEN'S SILK OR WOOL SCARFS, solids, patterns. $1.00
MEN'S CAPEKIN GLOVES, fleece lined. $1.19
"SWANK" TIE AND COLLAR PIN SETS, boxed. $1.00

MEN'S STORE—HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

"MR. SANTA, PLEASE DON'T FORGET OUR

RCA VICTOR

from
HIGH'S"

They have heard R. C. A. Victor... have seen that the Magic Brain, Magic Eye and Metal Tubes mean MODERN radio that gives best world-wide reception. Model C-7-6 is priced at—

$94.50

Other RCA-Victors and phonograph combinations 23.95 and up.

Complete Installed

LIBERAL TRADE-IN ALLOWANCES

EASY TERMS

RADIOS—FOURTH FLOOR

HIGH'S

'GIFT OF GOD' BABY RESTORED TO MOTHER

Anna Ware Gets Infant as Court Refuses Mrs. Muench a Rehearing.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Anna Ware's infant son was restored to her today by the St. Louis court of appeals, bringing to an end the bizarre "gift of God" baby case.

Denying Mrs. Nellie Tipton Muench's motion for a rehearing of the court's decision, the court ruled that the baby turned over to the Pennsylvania orphanage was the child of Anna Ware, who had been kept under court order, and had it delivered to its mother.

The court's decision, which ended a dispute without parallel in modern legal history, was announced by a St. Louis physician, announced birth of a son on August 18. A day previous, Miss Ware, unwed domestic, gave birth to a son, which she permitted to be taken from her for adoption.

Seeking to regain her child, she filed the suit in which she alleged Mrs. Muench's child was her son. Her contention was upheld by the court.

A special commissioner, who heard lengthy testimony, declared in a report, which the court approved, that Mrs. Muench never bore a son. He asserted she announced the birth to gain sympathy from the public. She later tried and acquitted her of a charge of complicity in a kidnapping case.

These new officers and directors were elected last night at the annual meeting of the Atlanta Real Estate Board. Seated, left to right, are W. J. Hogan Jr., who was re-elected a vice president, and Paul C. Maddox, new president. Standing, left to right, are Alvin B. Cates, chosen a director; Sharpe D. Wall, elected secretary, and Frank Malone, who was chosen treasurer. Staff photo by Turner Hiers.

2 HOUSES BURNED; FAMILY ESCAPES
Vacant House Destroyed on Molly Street; Fire Spreads to Next Dwelling.

A family was forced to flee in night clothing early this morning when fire destroyed a vacant house at 720 Molly street, S. E., and spread to the adjoining house of Dink Alford, 727 Molly street.

The vacant house, a one-story frame structure, burned to the ground. Fanned by high winds, the fire spread rapidly to the Alford home, forcing its occupants to the street. The fire caused considerable excitement in the neighborhood.

The weather office at Candler airport said the wind was unusually high for this city, blowing between 24 and 30 miles an hour until a late hour this morning. The average wind velocity at Atlanta is 9 to 10 miles an hour.

The wind caused no damage to telephone poles and wires, or property of the power company here.

BERRY CALLS MEETING OF COUNCIL JAN. 6.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—After a conference today, with President Roosevelt, George L. Berry directed his industrial council to assemble here January 6 to try to work out a plan for stimulating recovery.

The President's co-ordinator for industrial co-operation told reporters upon leaving the White House that the council would be in the city for a meeting of the representatives of labor and industry chosen at his turbulent conference last week.

Berry added that industry would be more fully represented than was indicated at the close of the conference. He said a number of groups which declined to select representatives before consulting their associates since had decided to do so.

Autos, steel, cotton textile and lumber, he said, still were outside the fold but "if they change their minds, they're welcome."

COLD, CLEAR WEATHER SCHEDULED FOR TODAY
Colder weather today, under the same bright skies that prevailed yesterday, is the promise to Atlanta from George W. Mending, chief of the local weather bureau.

Extreme cold was heading toward Atlanta yesterday from the northwest, but when it strikes today it will be moderated and the mercury is expected to range between 28 and 46 degrees. Yesterday, the lowest was 34 and the highest 50.

Open Evenings Until Christmas

Jimmy Christmas

Seeking appropriate gift articles for husky youngsters, one naturally goes to Headquarters for Boys' Apparel, where everything he craves can be seen on one floor—attractively priced.

Boys Need Warm Sweaters
And do we have them! . . . the newest styles and colors for little boys and big ones. Brushed wool—that soft, warm, zipper-front sweater with shirred yoke is the acceptable style. All colors. Sizes 28 to 38. $2.98 and $4.95.

Cowboy, Indian, Policeman, Fireman
Boys' Play Suits, $1.95 to $5.95
Boys 4 to 14 years of age will get more real kick out of a bright-colored play suit than most anything else.

Here you will find the best selection—Cowboy outfits, Aviator suits, Indian Chief, Policeman, and Fireman uniforms. $1.95 to $5.95.

Hirsch Brothers
"Our Best Reference Is Public Preference"

79 Peachtree Street

Named to Head Real Estate Board in 1936

These new officers and directors were elected last night at the annual meeting of the Atlanta Real Estate Board. Seated, left to right, are W. J. Hogan Jr., who was re-elected a vice president, and Paul C. Maddox, new president. Standing, left to right, are Alvin B. Cates, chosen a director; Sharpe D. Wall, elected secretary, and Frank Malone, who was chosen treasurer. Staff photo by Turner Hiers.

BIG TREE UPROOTED BY 30 M. P. H. WIND
Thirteenth Street, Near Columbia Avenue, Blocked by Large Poplar.

Northwest winds which reached a velocity of 30 miles an hour at 11 o'clock last night uprooted a large poplar tree in front of 11 Thirteenth street, N. E., near Columbia avenue.

The tree, about 30 feet high, fell across the street, blocking automobile traffic. Police were called and reported automobiles around the block.

The noise of the crashing tree caused considerable excitement in the neighborhood.

The weather office at Candler airport said the wind was unusually high for this city, blowing between 24 and 30 miles an hour until a late hour this morning. The average wind velocity at Atlanta is 9 to 10 miles an hour.

The wind caused no damage to telephone poles and wires, or property of the power company here.

MORTUARY
GROVER C. CARSON, of 206 Boulevard, N. E., who died Wednesday at a private hospital, will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the First Baptist church of Atlanta.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Everett, who died Tuesday, will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Calhoun cemetery with Awtry & Lowndes in charge.

Funeral services for Walter R. Barksdale, of 255 Hill street, S. E., who died yesterday in a private hospital at the age of 77, will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Calhoun cemetery with Awtry & Lowndes in charge.

Funeral services for Harvey A. Hanes, of 1030 Avenue in Columbus, Ga., will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Antioch Baptist church with the Rev. W. M. Williams officiating.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, the Misses Martha and Patricia Hanes, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hanes, two sisters, Mrs. G. L. Rice and Mrs. W. D. Hanes.

Funeral services for Jack Lamb, 35 Atlanta salesman, died yesterday at his home, 771 Boulevard, N. E., will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Calhoun cemetery with Awtry & Lowndes in charge.

He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. L. Lamb, and a son, Mr. J. Lamb, who is in the service.

Funeral services for Mrs. C. B. Bagley, who died yesterday at her home, 1215 Peachtree street, N. E., will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Calhoun cemetery with Awtry & Lowndes in charge.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, and a daughter, Mrs. J. B. Bagley, and a son, Mr. J. B. Bagley, who is in the service.

Funeral services for Mrs. C. B. Bagley, who died yesterday at her home, 1215 Peachtree street, N. E., will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Calhoun cemetery with Awtry & Lowndes in charge.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, and a daughter, Mrs. J. B. Bagley, and a son, Mr. J. B. Bagley, who is in the service.

Funeral services for Mrs. C. B. Bagley, who died yesterday at her home, 1215 Peachtree street, N. E., will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Calhoun cemetery with Awtry & Lowndes in charge.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, and a daughter, Mrs. J. B. Bagley, and a son, Mr. J. B. Bagley, who is in the service.

Funeral services for Mrs. C. B. Bagley, who died yesterday at her home, 1215 Peachtree street, N. E., will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Calhoun cemetery with Awtry & Lowndes in charge.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, and a daughter, Mrs. J. B. Bagley, and a son, Mr. J. B. Bagley, who is in the service.

Funeral services for Mrs. C. B. Bagley, who died yesterday at her home, 1215 Peachtree street, N. E., will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Calhoun cemetery with Awtry & Lowndes in charge.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, and a daughter, Mrs. J. B. Bagley, and a son, Mr. J. B. Bagley, who is in the service.

Avenues Of Fashion with Esquire

"GIVE A MAN A HORSE HE CAN RIDE"

Perhaps James Thompson thought he could solve the entire Christmas gift problem when he penned the following lines: "Give a man a pipe he can smoke. Give a man a book he can read. And his home is bright with a calm delight. Though the room be poor indeed."

In the preceding verse he suggests a horse or a boat, which might be somewhat beyond the usual gift budget. His final suggestion is a girl you can love—but this seems to us to be a pretty big order even for a magnificent Christmas gift. We don't mind the pipe and book suggestion and we've added several others which we hope will prove helpful. In line with the horse and the boat, however, we might say that if he has a hobby of any kind, that's the perfect lead on what to give.

TICKER TIPS

Some men inherit watches, some men buy watches and some men have watches thrust upon them. For the

FOR BIG SHAVERS

Unless he's the possessor of a beard, you'll always please with tonsorial equipment. A shaving brush of finest badger hair is a thing of beauty and a joy each morning. The excellence and luxury of many of the splendid soaps and lotions elevate them to the gift class. Or you can get him an electric razor that eliminates the need of any of the aforementioned.

FOR SIGNS AND SIGHTS

A portrait photograph from him to her, or vice versa, is enhanced when it arrives with a handsome frame of leather or metal. And there's no man who won't appreciate a pair of high-powered binoculars. The good ones constitute a major purchase, but are worth it.

FOR WRITING AND TIMING

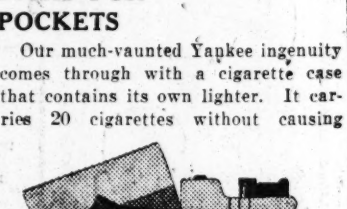

Clock makers have done an excellent job of designing. Not only is there a wide variety of clocks from which to choose, but every type of decoration has been given consideration—whether for home or for office. We might say the same for modern pens and pencils. Mechanical pencils really work these days, and fountain pens are no longer a spare and a deception. A brace, such as we've shown, should adorn every manly chest—vest pocket.

PICKS FOR POCKETS
Our much-vaunted Yankee ingenuity comes through with a cigarette case that contains its own lighter. It carries 20 cigarettes without causing your pocket to bulge. Those other pocket conveniences—fine leather wallets and billfolds—are constructed with all the efficiency of a filing cabinet. 'Pisikin, pinsal, or crocodile are the fashionable preferences.

PIED PIPES
Pipe smoking and pipe collecting are analogous. Have no fear, then—if he's a piper, give another pipe. Or much in fashion. Gold knot cuff links are new and a key chain is also a good choice. A gold safety pin for the collar is a small but useful gift.

IMPORTANT NOTE: In case you have any doubts about what to wear and when to wear it, we should be happy to send you a "CHART OF CORRECT DRESS—APPROVED BY ESQUIRE." Just send us a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

ESQUIRE will answer all questions on men's fashions. Write MEN'S FASHION DEPARTMENT, THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, and enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for reply.

(Copyright, 1935, for The Constitution.)

MRS. C. B. BAGLEY DIES AT HOME IN TENNESSEE
Mrs. C. B. Bagley, well-known resident of Fayetteville, Tenn., died at her home there last night at about 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Bagley was the mother of Mrs. John Wright and Mrs. D. B. Thornton, of Atlanta, and also is survived by three other daughters, Mrs. R. E. Feeney, Miss Lillian Peyton, and Mrs. R. L. Caldwell, all of Fayetteville; three sons, Tom Bagley, of Nashville; Charles Bagley, of Chattanooga; and Major Warren Bagley, of Washington, D. C.

Several grandchildren and great-grandchildren also survive. Mrs. Bagley's husband died about two weeks ago.

MAYOR P. H. WEAVER ELECTED AT JACKSON
JACKSON, Ga., Dec. 19.—Mayor P. H. Weaver, with 215 votes, was re-elected in the city primary here today over two opponents, J. L. Lyons received 175 votes and S. H. Eisenman 25 votes.

J. W. O'Neal defeated J. H. Turner for alderman in the first ward by a vote of 254 to 152; E. H. Pace won over A. S. Mills in the second ward, the vote being 259 to 143. Other aldermen, J. B. Settle and H. M. Moore and members of the board of education and the executive committee were unopposed.

SEVERE EARTH SHOCK FELT IN NEW MEXICO
BELEN, N. M., Dec. 19.—(AP)—A strong earth tremor, the latest in almost a week of such disturbances, awakened residents here today. Railroad men reported freight cars rocked on the tracks. A crack an inch wide and several feet long showed in the walls of a brick drugstore.

boys in the latter class, or those others who could use one; more up to the minute, a wrist watch that is weather-proof or another curved to fit the wrist are earnestly recommended.

HOST DELIGHTS
One of the added benefits of Repeat is that we can call 'em cocktail shakers right out, instead of beverage shakers.

STOP SIGNS AND SIGNALS
Stop signs and signals are erected mainly for their ornamental value. Many never pay any attention to them until after an accident.

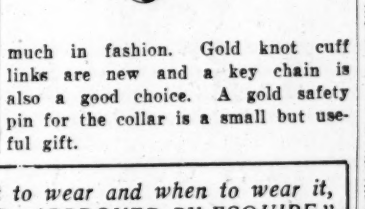

A hand signal to indicate stopping, or a right or left turn, should throw other drivers into confusion.

"Fast driving is supposed to be modern. Any price, even life itself, is not too high for it."

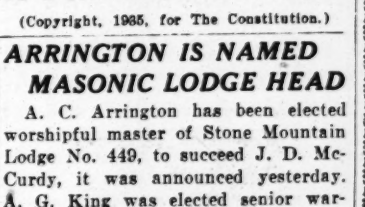

"Engines of destruction, that's what automobiles are called. By always being in a hurry drivers can do much to hasten this designation down to posterity."

To Carry Point.
And that, dear readers and drivers, is the sure method of proving by practice, to attain death or painful injuries. Of course it is a bloody, undignified and horrible way to die, but you have carried your point. The other driver, probably suffering the same fatal or maiming injuries as yourself, did not "beat you out" in traffic or on the fast, smooth highway.

GOLD STANDARD
Few men have all the essential jewelry they may need for day or evening use. A pearl scarf pin or one with a small animal figure is Modern designers have added beauty to their utility. And we can recommend these glasses for those who go in for snooty after-dinner brandy sniffing.

ARRINGTON IS NAMED MASONIC LODGE HEAD
A. C. Arrington has been elected worshipful master of Stone Mountain Lodge No. 449, to succeed J. D. McCurdy, it was announced yesterday.

A. G. King was elected senior warden, and T. E. Rawlins, junior warden.

Other officers elected were T. S. Wells, secretary; W. P. Humphrey, treasurer; L. A. Lanford, senior deacon; Sam Wade, junior deacon; J. R. Suddith, senior steward; W. B. Parris, junior steward; W. B. Wilson, tyler, and the Rev. Paul Sayer, acting chaplain. J. E. Thrift, acting as grand master, and other members of the Oakland City Lodge, installed the officers. McCurdy, retiring, worshipful master, was presented a watch.

"We learn something new every day," said the physician. He added both his patients were going well.

3% Interest
PAID ON SAVINGS AND TIME DEPOSITS
Insured Under Act U. S. Congress 1935 up to $5,000.00

Real Estate Loans
Georgia Savings Bank & Trust Co.
Atlanta's Oldest Savings Bank Established 1899

Autoists' 'Kareless Killers Klub' Offers Rules for Death Driving

'How Not To Stay Alive' Seems To Be Objective of Crazy Organization Which Appears To Have Many Members.

Many motorists in Georgia and surrounding states appear to have organized within the past few years a highly unpopular but extremely active society. The organization has no name, but it might well be dubbed the "Kill—Who Cares?" society, or the "Kareless Killers Klub." We may as well write, idiotically about the club; that is the way the members drive.

The society has its own code for careless driving. The members—those that are still alive and who are lucky enough not to have suffered injuries in automobile accidents which prevent them from driving—are experts on insanity at the steering wheel. And they have, through continued practice, constituted some ingenious rules of careless driving which they call the "Authorized Instructions On How Not to Stay Alive."

Here they are:
Insane Driving Rules.
"The driver about to pass a car should wait until there's a curve, hill or narrow road, or approaching traffic close ahead."

"A good way to attract attention: use the horn instead of the brakes."

"Keeping to the right of the road gives the other fellow a chance to pass, so by using the middle of the road, garage, and hospitals will be sure to get more business."

"Emergencies in traffic are likely to happen any time, but it's more exciting to be taken unawares."

"Time waits for no man behind the wheel of a car ahead, step on the gas to prove your importance."

"Intersections are where many accidents happen. Go plowing into these danger zones anywhere from 35 to 60 miles an hour."

"Mothers and fathers in crossing streets should be careful not to set good examples for their children. A red light to many is like a red flag to a bull—a signal to charge."

"Evenings are bad for traffic because drivers can't see very far ahead. That is the best time of day to see how fast the car will go."

"Trains run on tracks. Some drivers find it out only when they are on what to give."

"Out on the country roads many stretches are to be found where a driver can 'let her out.' If something should happen, the chances are the driver won't ever know about it."

"Brakes are put on cars for a purpose. But any convenient tree, telephone post, ditch, or almost anything else will do just as well."

"Each and every pedestrian will enjoy more hair-raising experiences if he crosses in the middle of the block, rather than from behind parked cars or otherwise puts his life on the auction block."

"Stop signs and signals are erected mainly for their ornamental value. Many never pay any attention to them until after an accident."

"A hand signal to indicate stopping, or a right or left turn, should throw other drivers into confusion."

"Fast driving is supposed to be modern. Any price, even life itself, is not too high for it."

"Engines of destruction, that's what automobiles are called. By always being in a hurry drivers can do much to hasten this designation down to posterity."

To Carry Point.
And that, dear readers and drivers, is the sure method of proving by practice, to attain death or painful injuries. Of course it is a bloody, undignified and horrible way to die, but you have carried your point. The other driver, probably suffering the same fatal or maiming injuries as yourself, did not "beat you out" in traffic or on the fast, smooth highway.

EXMATE SAYS HE SAW DANCER'S DEATH LEAP
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19.—(AP) Thomas L. Matkins, 50, former husband of Olga Stock, was released from police custody today after admitting he saw the one-time Ziegfeld beauty leap to her death from his 12th-story hotel window, climaxing a quarrel over money.

Matkins, who previously had claimed he did not witness the tragedy yesterday, was taken in custody for questioning last night.

"I heard a swish behind me," Inspector Charles Dullea quoted the man. "I saw her poised at the window. Before I could do anything, she went out—in a dive, just like she used to do when she was quite a swimmer."

The couple was divorced in Salt Lake City 17 years ago. Miss Stock, 38, was the wife of Everett E. Saxe, liquor salesman, who said he refused to join the drinking party that preceded her death.

DOWN

Delivers This Beautiful

RCA Victor

for Christmas

Balance EASY TERMS

MAGIC BRAIN MAGIC EYE METAL TUBES

MODEL C8-15

New Magic Brain, Metal Tubes, 540-18,000 kcs.—domestic programs and foreign programs; police, aviation and amateur phone. Special 12" Electro-Dynamic Speaker, and new Color band Dial. 8 tubes.

112.50

COMPLETE INSTALLED

J. E. Waldrop

Cable Radio and Refrigeration Dept.
84 Broad St., N. W. WA. 1041

Railroads in Brazil Stop Abruptly When Terrain Becomes Too Rugged

Rails Rust, Cross-ties Rot, Money for Construction Disappears, Rev. Russell Told; Fine Diamonds Mined Near Patrocinio, But Capital Is Lacking.

This is the 54th of a series of articles on South American travel by the Rev. Henry Edward Russell, of McDonough, Ga.—Editor's Note.

PATROCINIO, Minas, Brazil, Nov. 2.—Again we have come to the end of a railroad. The traveler soon learns that the railroads of Brazil do not run across the country but at some place in the interior the train seems to become frightened by the rugged country and hastens to scurry back to the populous coast. An effort was made to lay a road through here to the state of Goyaz, and even now sporadic revivals of this effort are evident but the cross-ties stacked high along the way are rotting and the steel rails are rusting away. Natives tell us that money was provided for the completion of the road but it fell into the hands of those who took it for personal purposes.

Rev. Russell.

Diamond Country.

Patrocinio is known as a center of the diamond in the rough trade. Many of the finest Brazilian diamonds are found in this general vicinity. Some time ago a native of the region sold a diamond to a buyer for 280 contos (a conto is worth about $100), and after the buyer had given the owner $14,800 for the stone he handed him 30 contos extra ($3,000) and said, "Here, take this and go get yourself some beer." A few days later, the narrator added, the radio in Rio de Janeiro announced that this stone sold for 1,200 contos or approximately $120,000.

Another story given us at the same time was of a buyer who paid 450 contos for a stone and now he is rejecting three times this price for the same stone. It is stated here that a corporation from Amsterdam controls the Brazilian diamond market.

People here believe that the Brazilian diamond field could be made a rival for the Kimberley mines of South Africa if there was sufficient capital for its development. It was startling to hear the statement made that if all the diamonds mined here were released on the world market today they would be "as cheap as glass." Whether this is true we cannot say, but it is evident that many labor with frenzy to secure the crystal carbon that has been fused in nature's furnace at some remote time.

An American from New York turned up out here not so long ago with an instrument that he claimed would detect radium. Since diamonds are found here he reasoned that radium must be here also and he had come to make his fortune. The only American in this town or for miles around is a missionary, Rev. Dr. E. E. Lane, who, by the way, has a sister living in Decatur, Ga., Mrs. H. L. Smith. This man from far-away New York on learning of a fellow-countryman in the environs hastened to his home. Arriving in a state of alarm, he was in a hurry to tell Dr. Lane that someone was giving him injections of poison and that these injections had festered and caused great sores. A brief examination revealed that they were not injections of poison at all but were caused by a small insect prevalent in this nation known as the bicho de pe.

Flea-like Pest.

This flea-like creature bores his way into the hand or foot and forms a sac with the result that inflammation begins and a sore results. The insect is a most invisible but is easily detected by an itching burning sensation as soon as he enters the flesh. Anyone who stays long here will be afflicted and a needle or knife and a bottle of iodine becomes regular equipment. Native children suffer horribly from this pest as adults are not so thoughtful as to relieve them. We have heard a story, with versions that vary, of a Frenchman who had one of these insects in his hand and attempted to take it back to Paris for scientific study as it developed in his flesh but death at sea, caused by the infection, destroyed his life, the experiment and apparently the desire of all others to leave the bicho de pe in the flesh after it is detected.

MRS. MARY PITTS DIES AT HOSPITAL

Widely Known Church Worker Dies on Eve of 82d Birthday.

Mrs. Mary E. Pitts, wife of J. E. Pitts and member of Monroe county's oldest family, died yesterday at a private hospital at the age of 81. She resided at 400 Greenwood avenue.

Mrs. Pitts, an active church worker all her life, would have been 82 years old today. She had been married 52 years. She was a member of the Druid Hills Methodist church and the Susanna Wesley Bible class of the church.

Although she had been in failing health for a number of months, Mrs. Pitts had been seriously ill for only a few weeks. She had been a resident of Atlanta for 18 years. She was a member of the Maddux and Pennington families who settled in Monroe county near Forsyth. Her maiden name was Miss Mary E. Maddux.

Surviving are her husband, a son, J. R. Pitts, two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Bowden and Mrs. W. E. Jones, and two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Mammie Maddux, of Macon, and Mrs. Ada Cone.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Druid Hills Methodist church with Dr. John Brandon Peters and Dr. Lester Rumble officiating. Burial will be in West View cemetery with Blanchard Brothers in charge.

SUSPECT IS FREED FOR FEW MINUTES

Brown Rearrested Just After Winning Liberty on Habeas Corpus.

Joseph Brown, somewhat of a nationally known figure, especially in police circles, had a fleeting moment of freedom yesterday due to the courtesy of Judge Hugh M. Dorsey, in Fulton superior court, but it availed him nothing.

Ten days ago Brown was brought to Atlanta by Jackson (Ga.) police for safekeeping. It seems Brown had become involved in a little matter of picking pockets in the Butts county city.

R. J. Dantone, lawyer, yesterday filed habeas corpus proceedings in Fulton superior court because no charge had been laid against Brown here. Judge Dorsey examined the warrant which was sent to Atlanta by Butts county officers but found it defective and therefore he ordered Brown freed.

But as he started out of the courtroom T. C. Thornton, Jackson chief of police, arrived with a perfectly good warrant, charging Brown with the pocket of J. C. Chambers of $20. He tried to arrest Brown but was informed he had no jurisdiction. Assistant Solicitor John Hudson shouted for a deputy sheriff and Brown was haled back into court, where Judge Dorsey ordered him turned over to Jackson authorities.

A checkup on Brown's fingerprints revealed that he had been arrested 72 times in many places throughout the United States. Butts county officers added two to the total.

SHERIFF SEYMOUR RESIGNS ELBERT POST

Carlton Mobley, secretary to the Governor, said yesterday that S. B. Seymour has resigned as sheriff of Elbert county. Seymour, who has served several terms as sheriff, gave no reason for the action in a letter tendering his resignation to the Governor, Mobley said.

Carroll W. Jones has been appointed by Ordinary Clark Edwards to serve as sheriff until a special election is called to fill the unexpired term.

COURT DECISIONS

COURT OF APPEALS OF GEORGIA.

JUDGMENTS AFFIRMED.

Green vs. State, from Ribs superior court. Judge W. E. Thompson presiding. Thomas A. Jacobs Jr., for plaintiff in error. Charles H. Garrett, solicitor-general, contra.

Harris vs. State, from Wilkes superior court. Judge Pettysman, Hugh E. Combs, for plaintiff in error. J. Cecil Davis, solicitor-general, contra.

Halley vs. State, from Richmond city court. Judge Chambers, Fleming A. Fleming, for plaintiff in error. W. Inman Carr, solicitor, Hammond, Kennedy & Kennedy, contra.

Warwick vs. State, from Dublin city court. Judge Stephens, W. A. Dangler, for plaintiff in error. Lester F. Watson, solicitor, contra.

JUDGMENTS REVERSED.

Gilman vs. State, from Ribs superior court. Judge M. D. Jones presiding. Fragin & Fragin, for plaintiff in error. Charles H. Garrett, solicitor-general, contra.

Christmas Cheer

Russell McPhail

PRESENTS

CHRISTMAS CANDIES --for Children and Grown-Ups--

ASSORTED HOME-MADE CANDIES

This package contains home-made and chocolate pieces, honey nougat, almond caramels, fudges, butter brittles and butter creams. In one and two-pound sizes.

60¢ lb.

SPECIAL XMAS OFFER LARGE 3-POUND BOX of Russell McPhail CHOCOLATES FOR ONLY

$1.50

CHILDREN'S CANDIES

A series of six Mother Goose packages containing pure wholesome candies for the children, lollypops, pure stick candies, molasses kisses and chocolate pieces.

25¢ pkg.

STOCKING FILLERS

Bundles of pure stick candy, chocolate bars and eleven different varieties of chocolate packages to select from.

5¢ pkg.

NOVELTIES

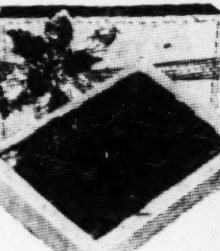

Hundreds of imported novelties to select from:

Santas from 10c to 35c
Turkeys 10c
Xmas Trees 25c
Novelty Sets 15c to 35c

OREOLE PECAN PRALINES

Made of pure Vermont maple sugar and fresh shelled pecans. Pure and wholesome.

Box of 12 60c Each 5c

CHOCOLATE MINIATURES

Our most popular Gift Package. Contains eighty tiny pieces; the miniature of our French Creams, Fruits and Nuts.

In 1 and 2-lb. Sizes $1.50 lb.

GIFT CANDIES

All Gift Packages are attractively wrapped in colorful Xmas paper and tied with beautiful ribbons.

5 ASSORTMENTS

Fruits and Nuts Assortment—1.00 lb.
Nuts and Nut Clusters Assortment—1.00 lb.
Milk Chocolate, Fruits and Nuts—1.00 lb.
Chocolate Bonbons and Confections 1.00 lb.
Brazil Nuts Assortment—1.00 lb.

1/2 to 5-Lb. Packages

FRENCH CREAMS FRUITS & NUTS

The package upon which our reputation was built. Luscious French Creams made of pure, fresh cream, table butter, fresh fruits and nuts and fine chocolate.

$1.50 lb.

1 to 5-Pound Sizes

MICKEY MOUSE TOY CART

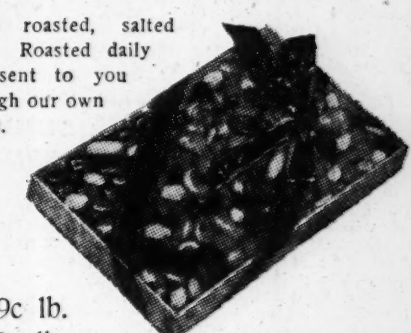

Just the gift for the children. Contains a big Santa's bag of pure wholesome candies—lollypops, stick candies, assorted kisses.

75c

NUT DEPARTMENT

Fresh roasted, salted nuts. Roasted daily and sent to you through our own stores.

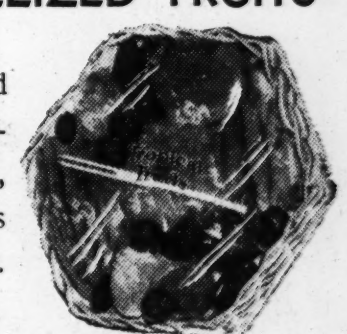

Mixed Nuts ... 79c lb.
Cashews ... 49c lb.
Almonds ... 98c lb.
Pecans ... 89c lb.

Attractively Wrapped for Xmas

CRYSTALLIZED FRUITS

Imported crystallized fruits. Packages containing cherries, pineapple, kumquats and other selections.

From 50c to $3.50 Package

LOG CABIN PECAN ROLL

Made with a fruit and nut nougat center wrapped in caramel and rolled in fresh shelled whole pecans.

Packed in Half and One-Pound

60¢ lb.

Russell McPhail

CANDY STORE

128 PEACHTREE STREET, IN RHODES-HAVERY BUILDING OPPOSITE CANDLER BUILDING

MAIL ORDERS FILLED SAME DAY ORDERS RECEIVED

ADD 10c LB. For POSTAGE

CITY LIKELY TO CEDE GOLF COURSE ACREAGE

Mayor Vetoes Council Proposal To Pay $41,000 for Purchase of Tract.

Surrender of the John A. White golf course on December 31 was predicted yesterday at the city hall following veto by Mayor Key, of a proposal to pay Dr. O. E. Collum, owner of 80 acres of the 107-acre tract, $41,000.

For the past several years the city has held the property under lease arrangement, but the lease expires December 31, and failure of the city and Dr. Collum to reach an agreement for purchase of the property outright by the municipality will bring a demand that the city pay the $41,000 for the tract.

Mayor Key is known to favor such a plan and it was indicated at the last meeting of the city finance committee it would not vote to pay the $41,000 demanded by Collum.

Several members of city council, including Aubrey Milam, chairman of the finance committee, favor surrender of the tract at the expiration of the lease.

The city owns 21 acres outright and it is planned to operate it as a playground. Dr. Collum has announced he will operate the 80 acres he owns as a golf course if the lease is not resumed or if the city fails to purchase the property.

Key and council leaders are determined the city shall not trade in accordance with Collum's demands. It was believed Key would have approved the purchase for the $41,000, as authorized by council, if Dr. Collum had not issued a statement asserting he would not accept the offer.

Atlanta and Fulton county have expended more than $125,000 on the park since it was acquired and four of the nine holes on the golf course are located on the 21-acre city-owned tract. Collum has said he would construct a nine-hole course all of which will be on the 80 acres he owns.

UNIVERSITY COUNCIL CALLED TO MEETING

Dr. S. V. Sanford, chancellor of the University System, yesterday issued a call for the semi-annual meeting of the system's council to be held at Valdosta January 24 and 25.

The council is composed of the deans of the various units and the chairmen of various faculty committees.

Dr. Sanford said the following subjects would be discussed: Summer school employment, retirement plan for faculty members, adult education, uniform school calendar, physical examination for newly enrolled students, community surveys, improvement in quality of teaching, problems of personnel work and guidance and discussion of survey courses now in use.

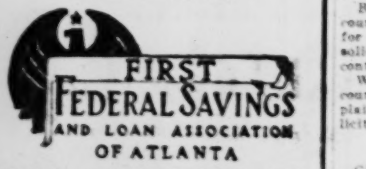

Santa Claus TOY SHOP

Open Evenings Until 10 P. M. Next Door to Lums & Grand

SAVE

Never Paid Less Than 4%

On Your Investment Insured by Act of Congress Up to $5,000.00

23 Auburn Ave., N. E. WA. 9551 George W. West, Pres. Martin Mobley, Sec.

LEO HALL GETS DEATH IN MASS MURDER CASE

Peggy Paulos, Co-defendant, Acquitted, While Slayer Is Sentenced to Die.

PORT ORCHARD, Wash., Dec. 19.—(P)—Death for husky Leo Hall, 33, ex-pugilist and one-time ministerial student, was recommended today by a jury that convicted him of the murder of the Frank Fielder, one of six persons in March, 1934.

Acquitted was blonde Peggy Paulos, co-defendant, whose signed statement caused Hall's arrest two months ago. Her testimony formed the basis of the state's case.

Hall, openly defiant during preliminary stages of his prosecution, smiled quietly as he heard the verdict. His lawyers said a new trial would be sought.

Mrs. Paulos and Hall were charged specifically with the murder of Eugene Cheney—one of six persons beaten, hacked and shot to death at party in the Frank Fielder home at Erland's Point, Wash., the night of March 28, 1934.

The state contended robbery was the motive.

Mrs. Paulos testified Hall forced her to accompany him to Erland's Point on a robbery venture, and that she helped him bind the six persons in the Fielder home. She said she fled, however, when fighting started.

At the time of her first statement the woman was quoted as saying she saw Hall carry Mrs. Frank Fielder, one of the victims, into a bedroom. When he reappeared, she said, his clothing was covered with blood. She said she ran from the house a short time later.

Later, on a Bremerton street, she met Hall and told him he had killed them all, she was quoted.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Fielder, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cheney, Magnus Jordan and Fred Bolcom.

Mrs. Paulos was charged with Hall because of her confession as an accomplice. The law provides that a killing committed during the commission of another crime is first-degree murder, and that accomplices in the first crime can be convicted of murder, though they killed no one.

Prosecutors urged the jury of eight men and four women to return a maximum verdict against Hall, but made no attempt to bring a death penalty to Mrs. Paulos.

Judge H. G. Sutton did not set a time for pronouncing the mandatory death sentence.

Two of the six former presidents of the Junior Chamber of Commerce who spoke yesterday at a farewell dinner given George Yancey, secretary of the organization for eight and a half years, are seen talking with Yancey. They are Everett Jackson, left, retiring president; Fitzhugh Knox, standing, and Mr. Yancey, right, who will resign to accept a position with a petroleum company.

FAREWELL DINNER GIVEN FOR YANCEY

Past Presidents Laud Secretary of Jaycees, Who Retires on January 1.

Six past presidents of the Jaycees made brief talks honoring George Yancey, secretary of the Junior Chamber of Commerce for eight and a half years, at a farewell dinner given him yesterday. Yancey will leave the junior chamber to accept a position with a petroleum company on January 1.

More than 3,000 members have joined the organization during Yancey's secretaryship. He has attended 10 national conventions, though the organization is only 15 years old. Jaycees regard him as having been a leader in many of their civic undertakings. He said yesterday he thought action taken by the junior chamber to protect the administration building at the municipal airport was its most important work during his years as secretary.

Past presidents who spoke yesterday were Fitzhugh Knox, Everett Jackson, Baxter Maddox, Duncan Peck, Frank Shaw and Clifford Hendrix. John F. Hammond and Wiley Moore Jr. also spoke. Dave Kelley introduced the speakers, and Harry Stark led the Jaycees in songs. The organization presented Yancey with a gift in appreciation of his work as secretary.

KEY APPROVES FUNDS FOR SCHOOL PROJECTS

Mayor Key yesterday approved council resolutions making the $275,000 school bond fund available for immediate start on school projects and another setting up $50,000 as the city's share of a $200,000 general repair program.

Key's action followed a conference with Ernest J. Brewer, president of the Board of Education, and Thomas C. Clift, school business manager.

A special meeting of the board, members of the Atlanta Bond Commission and WPA executives will meet for 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at the city hall. The conference was called to select projects on which work can begin immediately and prosecuted to completion by June 30.

OFFICER IVEY, WIFE FREED BY RECORDER

Charges of intoxication and disorderly conduct against Patrolman S. L. Ivey, and charges of disorderly conduct against his wife, were dismissed yesterday afternoon by Recorder John L. Cone.

At the brief arraignment, Recorder Cone found "insufficient evidence for conviction" and added "you've been punished enough already."

Patrolman Ivey was suspended for 20 days, shortly after his arrest recently, by the police committee of city council. The charges against the couple were the result of an alleged drunken brawl in their Chestnut street home.

MORE SPEAKERS HEARD ON MERGER, TAX PLAN

The city-county merger and the 15-mill tax limit questions will be considered by the Fulton grand jury again today.

Thomas A. More, grand jury foreman, said yesterday that additional speakers will be heard from this morning at the regular session of the jury.

A number of prominent citizens appeared before the body Wednesday at a special meeting, discussing the two issues pro and con. The grand jury is expected to make a definite stand on both matters in the final presentations which will be returned December 31.

Ex-Presidents Bid Godspeed To Secretary

Two of the six former presidents of the Junior Chamber of Commerce who spoke yesterday at a farewell dinner given George Yancey, secretary of the organization for eight and a half years, are seen talking with Yancey. They are Everett Jackson, left, retiring president; Fitzhugh Knox, standing, and Mr. Yancey, right, who will resign to accept a position with a petroleum company.

FAREWELL DINNER GIVEN FOR YANCEY

Past Presidents Laud Secretary of Jaycees, Who Retires on January 1.

Six past presidents of the Jaycees made brief talks honoring George Yancey, secretary of the Junior Chamber of Commerce for eight and a half years, at a farewell dinner given him yesterday. Yancey will leave the junior chamber to accept a position with a petroleum company on January 1.

More than 3,000 members have joined the organization during Yancey's secretaryship. He has attended 10 national conventions, though the organization is only 15 years old. Jaycees regard him as having been a leader in many of their civic undertakings. He said yesterday he thought action taken by the junior chamber to protect the administration building at the municipal airport was its most important work during his years as secretary.

Past presidents who spoke yesterday were Fitzhugh Knox, Everett Jackson, Baxter Maddox, Duncan Peck, Frank Shaw and Clifford Hendrix. John F. Hammond and Wiley Moore Jr. also spoke. Dave Kelley introduced the speakers, and Harry Stark led the Jaycees in songs. The organization presented Yancey with a gift in appreciation of his work as secretary.

KEY APPROVES FUNDS FOR SCHOOL PROJECTS

Mayor Key yesterday approved council resolutions making the $275,000 school bond fund available for immediate start on school projects and another setting up $50,000 as the city's share of a $200,000 general repair program.

Key's action followed a conference with Ernest J. Brewer, president of the Board of Education, and Thomas C. Clift, school business manager.

A special meeting of the board, members of the Atlanta Bond Commission and WPA executives will meet for 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at the city hall. The conference was called to select projects on which work can begin immediately and prosecuted to completion by June 30.

OFFICER IVEY, WIFE FREED BY RECORDER

Charges of intoxication and disorderly conduct against Patrolman S. L. Ivey, and charges of disorderly conduct against his wife, were dismissed yesterday afternoon by Recorder John L. Cone.

At the brief arraignment, Recorder Cone found "insufficient evidence for conviction" and added "you've been punished enough already."

Patrolman Ivey was suspended for 20 days, shortly after his arrest recently, by the police committee of city council. The charges against the couple were the result of an alleged drunken brawl in their Chestnut street home.

MORE SPEAKERS HEARD ON MERGER, TAX PLAN

The city-county merger and the 15-mill tax limit questions will be considered by the Fulton grand jury again today.

Thomas A. More, grand jury foreman, said yesterday that additional speakers will be heard from this morning at the regular session of the jury.

A number of prominent citizens appeared before the body Wednesday at a special meeting, discussing the two issues pro and con. The grand jury is expected to make a definite stand on both matters in the final presentations which will be returned December 31.

ARMY ORDERS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Army orders: Major Dana W. Morey, finance department, to Selfridge field.

Major Charles H. Lovell, medical corps, to Fort Belvoir, Ill.

Captain William F. Marshall Jr., quartermaster corps, retired.

Each of the following officers of infantry relieved from duty as student at infantry school, Fort Benning, effective upon completion of present tank course of instruction on January 31, 1936, and then assigned to organization and station indicated in this list.

Captain Bruce W. Bidwell, to 11th infantry, Fort Benjamin Harrison; Harry Culline to 26th infantry, Plattsburg barracks; Earl W. Munter, to 26th infantry, Fort Snelling.

First Lieutenant Ralph J. Butcher to 66th infantry, Fort Devens; Charles F. Howard and Charles D. McNeer to 66th infantry, Fort George G. Meade; First Lieutenant John S. Gham Jr., to 66th infantry, Fort Devens.

Each of the following named officers of infantry relieved from duty as student at infantry school, Fort Benning, January 31, 1936, and then assigned to second division, Fort Sam Houston: Captain Clarence R. Smith and First Lieutenant Joseph E. Baker, to 26th infantry; First Lieutenant Edgar E. Kager, to 26th infantry, relieved from duty as student at infantry school and from duty at Fort Benning and assigned to Vancouver barracks.

DAVIS EXPRESSES HOPE FOR NAVAL AGREEMENT

U. S. Delegate Says Pact Is Necessary for Balance of World's Problems.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—(P)—Norman H. Davis, chief American delegate to the international naval conference, asserted tonight he was "most hopeful that a fair and constructive agreement" would be reached by the sea powers early in the new year.

He spoke at a Pilgrimage dinner in honor of the five naval delegations. His remarks came at a time when the conference appeared headed for a deadlock on Japanese demands for equality with Great Britain and the United States.

An agreement is necessary, Davis asserted, for world reconstruction and "for restoration of a more stable balance of the international political, social and economic system."

Readily admitting the numerous obstacles to such an agreement, he said he was convinced the spirit of co-operative good eventually would result in a new limitation pact and a "most successful conference, one which will not be marked by victory for one nation or by injury to another."

Tomorrow the conference will wind up until after the holidays, with the British foreign secretary explaining their proposals for a new treaty on the principle that each nation set a limit on new construction based on needs instead of rights.

The Japanese are likely to crack down even harder on these proposals, it was stated in Japanese quarters, making clear they must have equality. French circles displayed impatience, a spokesman asserting: "We want to deal in realities, and while the British proposals are realistic, we have not yet got beyond vague generalities about them."

The Italian delegates will take their report home Saturday, and let Premier Mussolini decide their future moves.

MAN SLAYS SELF

W. M. Toney Uses Shotgun To Commit Suicide.

W. M. Toney, 37, believed by police to have been despondent over the loss of his job as a truck driver, was found yesterday morning in the living room of his home, 728 Ashby street, fatally wounded. He was taken to Grady hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Police found a shotgun with one discharged shell in the bathroom. The charge of a 12-gauge shotgun passed directly over the victim's heart, puncturing a lung.

Mrs. Toney told police her husband had lost his job Tuesday as a beer truck driver. She was taken to Grady hospital and treated for hysteria.

The body was removed to the mortuary of A. S. Turner, from where funeral plans will be announced.

DEMAND INCREASING FOR FHA MORTGAGES

Efforts of banking firms in the north to buy Federal Housing Administration insured mortgages in the Atlanta region, comprising states from Georgia to Louisiana, have been fruitless, it was announced yesterday by John W. Millsaps, FHA regional director.

Southern banks holding these mortgages are not selling, Mr. Millsaps said. In fact, he said, they want more.

F. E. Marshall, special assistant to the administrator of the FHA, is in Atlanta this week examining conditions in this region. Mr. Marshall said yesterday that he finds the demand for FHA insured mortgages exceeding the supply in all districts. In many places, he said, they are selling at a premium.

JANUARY 6 IS SET FOR BERRY CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(P)—George L. Berry, President Roosevelt's industrial co-ordinator, today fixed January 6 for the first meeting of his labor-industry council.

Berry announced the date after a talk with Mr. Roosevelt at the White House. The coming midweek holidays, he said, had prevented an earlier meeting of the council he intends to set up to plan how labor and industry could co-operate to speed recovery.

Christmas will mean something to approximately 20,000 Georgia WPA workers. Tuesday will be payday and approximately $300,000 in wages will be distributed.

Various projects have various paydays; but under a ruling from Washington, state officials will pay off on Christmas Eve.

Friday-Saturday

Watch

Open Evenings Days Free Engraving Timms Cut Prices

Elgin, Waltham and Other Standard Makes

1/4 to 1/2 OFF

Ladies' Watches Save up to 1/2

$35.00 Elgin $14.75
$22.50 Elgin $16.75
$27.50 Elgin $18.75
$30.00 Elgin $19.75
$35.00 Waltham .. $23.50
$40.00 Elgin $26.50
$42.50 Waltham .. $29.75
$45.00 Waltham .. $33.50
$55.00 Waltham .. $36.50
$65.00 Waltham .. $43.50

Imported Watches

$17.50 Value $ 9.85
$22.50 Value $12.50
$25.00 Value $16.75
$30.00 Value $19.75
$37.50 Value $24.75

DIAMONDS One group of 16 diamond rings, solid gold mountings, latest styles. Values up to $70.00.

SAVE on Diamonds

$100.00 Value $ 66.50
$115.00 Value $ 86.50
$125.00 Value $ 93.50
$135.00 Value $ 98.50
$185.00 Value $137.50
$225.00 Value $172.50
$250.00 Value $198.50

Every piece of Plated Hollowware in the store is on sale at just

1/2 OFF

SUPER SPECIALS

Silver-plated Baby Spoons 33c
Child's Fork and Spoon Sets 37c
Silver-plated Steak Sets 85c
Evans Cigar Lighters 95c
$1.75 Ladies' Birthstone Rings .. 98c
$1.75 Salts and Peppers 98c

89c

$27.50 TAMBOUR CHIME CLOCK

$19.75

TIMMS 42 Broad S. W.

It's a PIPE to Please a Man!

Every man likes a good pipe. And of them all, he'll like MILANO best! Milano has "SMOKE CONDITIONING." It does the same thing to smoke that air-conditioning does to air... makes it sweeter, drier, purer. Give him a Milano and watch how quickly it becomes his favorite smoke. Ask for it at any good tobacco counter. WM. DEMUTH & CO., INC., Makers of Fine Pipes since 1862.

48 SMART SHAPES TO CHOOSE FROM!

NOW 1

NEEDS NO BREAKING IN!

Milano is DeReau Processed. Sweet and mellow from the first puff.

J. B. WITHERS CIGAR CO., INC., Distributor

WD

ARMY ORDERS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Army orders: Major Dana W. Morey, finance department, to Selfridge field.

Major Charles H. Lovell, medical corps, to Fort Belvoir, Ill.

Captain William F. Marshall Jr., quartermaster corps, retired.

Each of the following officers of infantry relieved from duty as student at infantry school, Fort Benning, effective upon completion of present tank course of instruction on January 31, 1936, and then assigned to organization and station indicated in this list.

Captain Bruce W. Bidwell, to 11th infantry, Fort Benjamin Harrison; Harry Culline to 26th infantry, Plattsburg barracks; Earl W. Munter, to 26th infantry, Fort Snelling.

First Lieutenant Ralph J. Butcher to 66th infantry, Fort Devens; Charles F. Howard and Charles D. McNeer to 66th infantry, Fort George G. Meade; First Lieutenant John S. Gham Jr., to 66th infantry, Fort Devens.

Each of the following named officers of infantry relieved from duty as student at infantry school, Fort Benning, January 31, 1936, and then assigned to second division, Fort Sam Houston: Captain Clarence R. Smith and First Lieutenant Joseph E. Baker, to 26th infantry; First Lieutenant Edgar E. Kager, to 26th infantry, relieved from duty as student at infantry school and from duty at Fort Benning and assigned to Vancouver barracks.

HANES Shirts and Knit Shorts for Winter

Here's the kind of underwear you always need and want. The shirts are made exactly like HANES Summer Shirts, but with extra weight and warmth. The slacks-knit shorts are full cut so they can't cramp the crotch.

50¢ to 59¢

HANES

THE ANTI-THERMOMETER UNDERWEAR FOR MEN AND BOYS

COURT REVIEW ASKED ON OLD PAVING BATTLE

Utilities in Decatur Case Claim Georgia Tribunal Refused Instructions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Asserting the Georgia supreme court refused to follow instructions of the United States supreme court, utilities operating at Decatur, Ga., asked the federal tribunal today to review again their protest against paying for paving between street car tracks.

Attorneys for the utility companies complained that the state court judgment on September 30 merely affirmed its previous ruling, while the highest federal court on April 29 ordered a reversal.

The utilities, Georgia Railway & Electric Co., Georgia Railway & Power Co., and Georgia Power Company, hold a franchise for both electric power and the street car system in Decatur.

The city paved a street including car tracks in 1915 and the utilities have resisted paying $13,444 plus interest since.

When the Georgia courts upheld this assessment the utilities petitioned the United States supreme court asserting they were denied "equal protection" and "due process" guaranteed by the federal constitution. It is a six-to-three opinion last April the highest federal court "reversed" the Georgia supreme court and ordered "further proceedings not inconsistent" with the opinion.

A new petition asserted the recent Georgia court action was "inconsistent" with the supreme court opinion and that Georgia laws of 1919 and 1924, providing for special paving assessments, were unconstitutional.

Attorneys for Decatur in a simultaneous brief defended the recent Georgia court ruling. They argued that the federal opinion merely ordered interpretation of Georgia law, that this had been done and the taxes and laws found solid.

GEORGIA COURT FOLLOWED U. S. MINORITY OPINION

Walter Colquitt, Atlanta attorney representing the Georgia Power Company in its fight against payment of street paving between car tracks in Decatur, said last night that the Georgia supreme court followed the minority rather than the majority opinion of the United States supreme court in its second judgment on the case.

The utility companies contend that they have received no benefit from the paving. The state court, in the original litigation, interpreted Georgia laws as requiring benefit for assessment, said the attorney, but did not allow the companies to prove lack of benefit. The Georgia court, in its second interpretation of the laws, ruled that evidence of benefit is not required for assessment. Colquitt said, pointing out that this ruling does not follow the majority opinion of the federal supreme court.

16 GIVEN RED HATS AT ST. PETER'S FETE

Pius Creates 20 New Cardinals With Only Four Absent.

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Pope Pius gave 16 of his 20 new cardinals their papal rings in a final secret consistory today after conferring their red hats upon them in an elaborate ceremony in St. Peter's cathedral.

The four other papal nuncios—at Vienna, Madrid, Warsaw and Paris—who were likewise elevated to the cardinalate Monday, received their insignia at their own capitals.

The holy father, wearing a bishop's mitre, came to St. Peter's on his papal throne, carried by 12 men clad in scarlet.

Choirs of "viva il papa" went up from the tens of thousands inside and outside the church, as the pope was taken to the end of the nave to seat himself on the cathedra.

The new cardinals entered the church in order of religious seniority. After each bowed three times and kissed the pontiff's foot and hand, Pius embraced each one.

Embraces were also exchanged by each of the new and old cardinals present.

Then, conferring the red hat on each new cardinal kneeling before him, the pope said, in part:

"To the glory of Almighty God and embellishment of the holy apostolic see, receive the red hat, insignia of the singular dignity of the cardinalate."

TRIAL IS SET FOR JAN. 7 IN CUBAN KIDNAP CASE

HAVANA, Dec. 19.—(AP)—An urgency court today set January 7 for the trial of persons accused of the kidnaping of the millionaire, Nicolas Castano, December 9. Six persons were named in the order, three of whom were excluded because they were killed. One was believed still a fugitive.

Domínguez Corona, former mayor of San Antonio de Las Vegas, where Castano was held in a cave, was accused of giving the orders ordered by Castano's cave guards; of communicating with "Joven Cuba" leaders in Miami and Mexico about the case and of being a leader of the "Auténtico" group here.

Francisco González Cruz, arrested a few days ago when police raided a house where they found an illegal radio station and arms, was accused in the Castano case by police who said his fingerprints were like others found on Castano's automobile after the kidnaping.

No information was given out about Ramiro Cruz, also included in the list of accused. It was indicated he had not yet been arrested.

TAMPA FLOGGING QUIZ ORDERED BY HOPKINS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Harry L. Hopkins disclosed today he had ordered a special investigation into the death of a Tampa, Fla., man who allegedly was flogged to death.

"The flogging was not done by anybody connected with the Works Progress Administration and had nothing to do with our organization," was Hopkins' report.

checks
666 COLDS and 666 FEVER first day
LIQUID TABLETS HEADACHES
SALVE NOSE DROPS in 30 minutes

Blue Star Kills The Itch Germs

To get rid of itch, rash, tetter, foot itch, ringworm or eczema, cover with soothing Blue Star Ointment which contains tested medicines that kill the itching. Money back on first jar, if it fails to relieve.

Leading Characters in Christmas Pageant

Among those who will have roles in the Christmas pageant to be presented at North Fulton High school this morning are, left to right, front row, Anita Peavy as an angel and Floradale Crawford as Mary. Back row, Dorothy Dean, angel; Henry Stephenson, Joseph, and Clementina Ransom, angel. Staff photo by Turner Hiers.

PAGEANT TO SHOW CHRISTMAS STORY

Special Program To Be Given This Morning at North Fulton High.

A Christmas pageant, with Biblical scenes which tell of the birth of Christ and with sacred choral music, will be presented at the North Fulton High school at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

Miss Elizabeth Simpson, assisted by the faculty, arranged the program. The pageant will depict the heavenly hosts, proclaiming their message of "Peace on earth, good will toward men"; the shepherds, marveling at the wonders they behold; the manger of Bethlehem, sheltering the holy family and the wise men of the east, who followed the star to Jesus' place of birth. At intervals there will be Christmas carols.

Climax of the pageant will come when 48 students, as gift bearers, appear bringing trays piled high with gifts, which they lay at the cradle of the King.

In addition to gift bearers and members of the angel choir, those taking part include Dan Burge, Floradale Crawford, Henry Stephenson, George Doyle, Carl Holbrook, Gene Quillian, Dillard Worthington, Jack Chambers, Harden Jones, Bob Hall, Dick Milner and Bill Crowley. Mildred Duncan will be soloist for the choir and Clifford Stodhill will accompany at the piano.

WILLKIE ASKS CHANGE IN UTILITY STATUTE

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Sweeping modification of the public utility act of 1934 was presented today by Wendell L. Willkie, president of Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, as a means for reviving the lagging durable goods industries by opening the flood gates of utility construction.

Willkie, head of a public utility holding company, spoke before the New York Bond Club.

Prior to the introduction of the present act, Willkie said, he submitted a plan to the government whereby, if permitted to work under a "reasonable regulatory law and freed from government attack and unfair competition," the utilities would undertake to spend for capital construction a minimum in 1935 and 1936 of twice their anticipated requirements.

Such a plan, he said, would have created in the first year a minimum of $2,500,000,000 in business and would have put into use a substantial part of the excess funds in banks of the nation.

Enactment at the January session of congress, he said, of a new law to replace the present regulatory act now contested in the courts would no more than any single move to restore confidence of American business and promote economic recovery.

'LOST' MUSIC CONCERT OFFERED BY COLLEGE

WELLESLEY, Mass., Dec. 19.—(AP)—The Wellesley College orchestra gave a musical performance which has not been played or heard for centuries and may not be played again.

Malcolm Holmes, director of the orchestra, searched libraries and museums here and abroad. He discovered lost music of the 15th, 16th and 17th centuries.

Key signatures, dynamics and expression marks, even bar lines, were usually omitted by the ancient composers. Rest marks were a miscellany, and instead of the staffs and black and white notes, now the universal method of showing the value of notes, these composers gave their notes different shapes as pleased their fancy. Diamond, square or rectangle notes were used to distinguish whole, half or quarter notes.

EX-GOVERNOR ACCEPTS PUBLIC SERVICE POST

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, of Louisville, late today accepted a position as chairman of the Kentucky Public Service Commission offered him by Governor Albert B. Chandler.

Governor Chandler expressed himself as "highly pleased" over Beckham's acceptance and indicated he could make the formal appointment of the new chairman in the morning, along with the temporary appointment of two acting commissioners. All three positions pay $5,000 a year.

Negro Not Perturbed By 60-Year Sentence

Time means little to Coy Brown, negro, who has plenty of it hanging heavy on his hands.

The negro, charged with burglary and possession of burglary tools, admitted he escaped from Georgia while under a 10-year sentence, went to Florida and was sentenced to 20 years at Raiford, from where he also escaped. Back to Atlanta he came and was caught after he knocked the combination off the safe of the Willis-Pause Company.

He entered a plea to both charges here and Judge James C. Davis sentenced him to 20 years for burglary and 10 years for possessing burglary tools. Which makes a total of 60 years for the negro.

But the time did not worry him. When the judge pronounced his sentence, he said "Twenty years? It's just as good as one year to me. I won't be there long."

BRITISH COAL MINERS THREATEN TO STRIKE

Workers To Quit in January Unless Granted Wage Hike.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Great Britain's coal miners threatened today to launch a general strike late in January, tying up production of coal throughout the country, unless mine owners grant them an increase in wages.

This new crisis confronted Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin's government only a few hours after representations from the ill-fated Anglo-French proposal for Italo-Ethiopian peace resulted in Sir Samuel Hoare's resignation as foreign secretary.

Delegates to the Mine Workers' Federation voted to start their strike late in January as a last effort in their long-continued fight to force a general pay increase of 2 shillings (about 50 cents) a day.

The mine delegates, representing all pits in the country and meeting in London, voted 478,000 to 25,000 in favor of a recommendation by the federation executives that strike notices would be issued January 13 or January 20, depending on whether the workers concerned were paid on a weekly or fortnightly basis.

All notices will expire at midnight January 27, at which time the strike-stopping all coal mining throughout the country would become effective unless a settlement had been reached.

Tribute Is Paid Chest Volunteers As Trophies Are Awarded Winners

Spontaneous tribute to men and women who did outstanding jobs in the recent Community Chest campaign was paid last night at a dinner at the Athletic Club.

Arranged by a group of workers as their gesture of appreciation for the fine spirit of the campaign, the dinner was in honor of the six winners of the Feldman trophies for exceptional service in each division of the Chest forces.

A surprise feature of the dinner was the presentation of a handsome silver platter to Julian V. Boehm, general campaign chairman, on which the following tribute was inscribed: "To Atlanta's ambassador of goodwill, given him by his co-workers for his splendid service to humanity in the Community Chest campaign of 1935." The presentation was made by Phil C. McDuffie, of the leaders of the campaign, who accorded the general chairman high praise for his activities in behalf of the Chest.

Several other speakers praised not only Boehm, but the division leaders who were responsible for the gains which the campaign made over the total raised the previous year.

The medal winners were Miss Virginia Courts, E. A. Thornwell, Larry Altmyer, W. Harris, George Everett and L. W. Pelot.

In his address of presentation, Robert F. Maddox, president of the Chest, said the earnestness of the workers and the enthusiasm of the campaign reached a high mark this year, and indicated a definite turning point in Chest history. He outlined plans for increased activity of the Chest for a better understanding of the work of meeting human needs from day to day throughout the year.

McDuffie was chairman of the committee which planned the dinner. "So many fine things happened during the campaign that many of the workers wanted to find some way of showing their appreciation," he said.

"They decided upon this dinner as a means of making stronger many friendships formed during the campaign and to show their appreciation of the leadership of Mr. Boehm. The trophies, handsome silver medals inscribed "For meritorious service to humanity," were donated by A. L. Feldman as a recognition of outstanding individual performance.

The campaign which ended officially several days ago, saw the establishment of several records for the last five years. Two divisions, the Neighborhood, headed by Mrs. Norman Sharp, and the Central, directed by Hurd J. Crain, went over their quotas.

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

Buy Your Mother or Father a Set of Teeth 1 for Xmas at.....

DAY AND NIGHT DENTISTS / 2

Price

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DR. WELLS 30 1/2 Broad St., Cor. Ala. (OVER LOFTS) JEWELERS

DEAR REFUSES DUEL CHALLENGE OF LECHÉ

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 19.—(UP)—Congressman Cleveland Dear today rejected Appellate Judge Richard W. Leche's challenge to a duel.

They are rival candidates for Governor in the January election.

Leche, a trap-shooting champion and candidate of the Huey Long machine, hurled the challenge from a speakers' platform at Winsboro Tuesday. Dear parting from the pistols-for-two-and-coffee-for-one method once employed in the south, the challenger designated the weapons—44-caliber pistols. He said Dear's anti-Long faction was inciting riots, and in order to confine bloodshed to the principal candidates involved, he offered his services, at the congressman's pleasure.

Dear signified the new era in southern valor by "refusing to permit his (Leche's) desperation to draw me off balance."

Georgia Power Stores

Open Evenings Until 9 P. M.

December 20, 21 and 23

Give Electrical Gifts--- They Keep On Giving!

SUNBEAM MIXMASTER
A. As useful as half-a-dozen servants in the kitchen, and much more economical. It beats, extracts juices, mixes, and heavy batter won't slow it down. Ivory base—green bowls.
$1.95 Down—$2 a Month
24.50

HANGING WALL LAMP
B. Every home has a thousand-and-one places where this lamp may be hung advantageously. A tiny wall hook holds this ample light, without damage to woodwork or plaster.
Cash or 30-Day Charge
1.49

MANNING-BOWMAN TOASTER
C. Turns out golden brown toast in a jiffy. Flip doors and the slices toast on the other side. Smart black and chrome, with ebony knobs and feet. Makes breakfast-getting a pleasure.
95c Down—$1 a Month
3.40

TELECHRON ALARM CLOCK
D. It speeds the way to a new day with a soft insistence that even the hard-to-wake-uppers can't ignore. In black and ivory, suitable for any room. A high quality gift at a low price.
95c Down—$1 a Month
5.70

AVALON PERCOLATOR
E. Even a man can make perfect coffee with a percolator like this—the stem and coffee basket are marked to eliminate guesswork.
95c Down—$1 a Month
7.70

CHROMIUM WAFFLE IRON
F. Pour batter when the indicator indicates "hot." Turns out golden brown, delicious waffles that make it worthwhile getting up for breakfast.
95c Down—$1 a Month
5.70

TOASTER AND TRAY
G. First-aid toward gracious, easy entertaining. The illustration doesn't do justice to the smartness of this buffet set. Come in and see it!
$1.95 Down—$2 a Month
18.20

I. E. S. TABLE LAMP
H. Sight aiding light for eyes—yet decoratively soft light that adds charm to any room. A gift that increases in value as time goes on.
95c Down—$1 a Month
3.95

COFFEE URN SET
I. For entertaining in a grand manner—after-dinner coffee in the "parlor"—and that sort of thing! A handsome, distinctive gift.
$1.95 Down—$2 a Month
16.20

GEORGIA POWER CO.

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and President
CLARK HOWELL JR.
Vice President and General Manager
H. R. TROTTER
Business Manager

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.
Telephone WALSH 6945.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By Carrier or Mail
Daily and 1 Mo. $3.00 3 Mo. $7.50
Sunday 1 Mo. $1.00 3 Mo. $2.50
Daily only 1 Mo. $1.00 3 Mo. $2.50
Single Copies - Daily 5c Sunday 10c

KELLY-SMITH COMPANY National representative, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on a New York City by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had by calling the News Stand, 100 Broadway, or by mail. A copy of the Constitution is delivered to your home each day when you register at a New York Hotel.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to outstanding local accounts. It is not responsible for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates. It is not responsible for subscription payments not received at office of publication.

Member of The Associated Press. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

ATLANTA, GA., DEC. 20, 1935.

HOARE THE SCAPEGOAT

The resignation of Sir Samuel Hoare as foreign minister in the Baldwin cabinet, following the collapse of the Anglo-French plan for African peace, comes as a climax to one of the most serious blunders in the history of British diplomacy.

Whether or not the chief blame should rest on Sir Samuel's shoulders, or whether his resignation comes as the easiest way out for the British government, he occupies the position of the scapegoat in a situation that has made worse, instead of better, the troubled international affairs of Europe.

The ill-fated plan concocted by Hoare and Premier Laval, of France, has resulted not only in a serious loss of prestige for British diplomacy, but has aroused such intense feeling among the British people that the fate of the Baldwin cabinet has been in the balance.

Had the plan met with the quick approval of Mussolini and Hitler, it is probable that Hoare would have been hailed as a master statesman, but its failure was certain to result in the repercussions that have rocked every capital in Europe. It is this certainty that made adoption of the plan too dangerous to have been a wise step.

The first impression has been that Mussolini will be the gainer by the fiasco, in view of the lessened influence of Great Britain, the chief opponent of the Italian conquest of Ethiopia, in the League of Nations consideration of sanctions against Italy. It must be borne in mind, however, that the furore over the proposed ceding to Italy of a large strip of Ethiopian territory in exchange for the granting to the African country of a port city is based on the practically unanimous opposition to what is bitterly termed "capitulation" to Mussolini.

Hoare's resignation, which at least inferentially places full blame on him, has also served to save the Laval cabinet in France. The wily French statesman grew lukewarm in his support of the plan he had helped devise as soon as the disfavor with which it was received became apparent, and the reconsideration by Edouard Herriot, minister of state, of his resignation, which would undoubtedly have brought Laval's downfall, is undoubtedly attributable to the action of Sir Samuel Hoare.

America can well be thankful that it is not involved in a mess which, apparently, grows worse as time goes by.

VERDICT OF THE ECONOMISTS

It is not surprising that in a poll taken of the leading economists of the country on the question of how large a debt the United States can safely carry, the larger number should verify the opinion of the bankers who told President Roosevelt a debt of from $55,000,000 to $70,000,000 would not endanger the public welfare, with a smaller number feeling the size of the safe debt would depend upon conditions, and a negligible group holding that a debt beyond $40,000,000 would impair the standard of living because of higher taxes.

It was not to be expected, in view of the fact that the size of the national debt is now a topic of political controversy, that the economists of the country, or any other group, would be united in their expressions.

But the result of the poll clearly indicates that, with politics removed, the thoroughly posted economists of the country would agree that such a debt of much larger proportions than that now existing would constitute no real threat to the safety of the government nor the well-being of the people.

That it would not be is fully demonstrated by the $44,000,000, 000 debt now carried by Great Britain with no materially adverse effect upon the government or the people. Certainly if the British can carry a debt of this size, the United States could easily assume one as large as the top figure placed by the bankers who advised with President Roosevelt.

There is, of course, no prospect of the creation of such a debt, and the President in his Atlanta address assured the country that the peak of expenditures has already been reached, but the opinion of the majority of the country's outstanding economists, and the common sense of every citizen, confounds the frantic walls of the anti-New Dealers that the cost of the recovery program is ruining the country.

To hold that so great and rich a nation as the United States is unable to carry a debt 25 per cent less than that of Great Britain, is to belittle the wealth of the country and the spirit of the people.

THE DEATH OF A DICTATOR
The death of President Vincente Gomez, for a quarter of a century iron-fisted dictator of Venezuela, brings to a close a public career rarely contradictory in its good and bad influences upon the welfare of the people of his country.

With the discovery of oil in Venezuela in 1914, the nation started on an era that brought it to the forefront of the nations of the world in the creation of rich revenue from natural resources. For many years the oil production of Venezuela was second only to that of the United States, and now it is only exceeded in this country and Russia.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

demonstrated by the $44,000,000, 000 debt now carried by Great Britain with no materially adverse effect upon the government or the people. Certainly if the British can carry a debt of this size, the United States could easily assume one as large as the top figure placed by the bankers who advised with President Roosevelt.

There is, of course, no prospect of the creation of such a debt, and the President in his Atlanta address assured the country that the peak of expenditures has already been reached, but the opinion of the majority of the country's outstanding economists, and the common sense of every citizen, confounds the frantic walls of the anti-New Dealers that the cost of the recovery program is ruining the country.

To hold that so great and rich a nation as the United States is unable to carry a debt 25 per cent less than that of Great Britain, is to belittle the wealth of the country and the spirit of the people.

THE DEATH OF A DICTATOR
The death of President Vincente Gomez, for a quarter of a century iron-fisted dictator of Venezuela, brings to a close a public career rarely contradictory in its good and bad influences upon the welfare of the people of his country.

With the discovery of oil in Venezuela in 1914, the nation started on an era that brought it to the forefront of the nations of the world in the creation of rich revenue from natural resources. For many years the oil production of Venezuela was second only to that of the United States, and now it is only exceeded in this country and Russia.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

With the vast revenues from oil exports, President Gomez brought a higher degree of modern development to the country than is true of any other Latin-American nation. Although a half larger than Texas in area, and with a population of less than 4,000,000, its largest city having only 135,000 residents, Venezuela has fine schools and public buildings, 3,728 miles of paved highways, 644 miles of railroads, and between nine and ten thousand vessels clear from its fine ports each year. The new free port built in the Bay of Turisno by President Gomez, is the safest and finest harbor on the Caribbean. Despite the many millions spent in development, Venezuela has no national debt.

President Gomez used the same rich oil revenues to build an invincible and, in many respects, ruthless, dictatorship. Thousands of Venezuelans, among them most of the outstanding leaders of the country, not only in politics, but in business and finance, have for years been refugees in Europe and the United States.

World's Window

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

Can Badoglio Save the Situation?

Reports that Italy had virtually concluded the conquest of the huge Ethiopian province of Ograden were a little premature, to say the least. As has been foretold in this column from the very beginning of the war, the Ethiopian military forces, such as they are, would not come definitely into action till the end of November or beginning December. This has happened. Every foot of ground is now disputed and a great deal has been taken back by the Ethiopians. This has produced great rejoicing in Addis Ababa. The capture of Addis Ababa caused great rejoicing in Rome. Of course, there is no question yet of saying with whom the final decision, the final victory, will lie in this war. The Italian expeditionary force in Ethiopia may be out of breath for the moment but it is far from defeated and nearly 100,000 men reinforcements are on the way, according to what we hear.

The great point is this: Will Italy be able to bear the formidable cost? Italy has a war cost of over $10,000,000,000. That's a terrific sum for a country whose finances are not in any flourishing state. When, then, don't forget the sanctions, are beginning to make themselves felt heavily now. Britain seems determined to apply them to the full and make it downright impossible for Italy to continue her war. The Ethiopians, London thwarts every move Italy makes, but has so far refrained from taking actual warlike measures. But the means to employ these measures are on hand. England's naval preparations and military precautions are nothing less than astounding. The British East, we might say, is one vast armed camp. One thinks of what would happen if one of those tens of thousands of loaded guns went off one of these days.

That General De Bono has been recalled—certainly not because Deuce was satisfied with his conduct of the war—and Marshal Pietro Badoglio has assumed the post of commander-in-chief, there is no doubt a profound change in the tactics employed against the Ethiopians. As far as I can make out, General De Bono's error was that he launched his troops into Ethiopian territory in a row-like formation, penetrating the territory only at one spot, even though that spot was 30 miles wide. He left the Sudan and Kenya border, by any means negligence on his part, but to the contrary, it was caution. General De Bono must have had orders surely not to carry the war too close to the Sudan and Kenya border, but it is British territory. It gave the Ethiopian quick-moving hordes of warriors an opportunity to slip up along General De Bono's side and even establish themselves in his rear.

Marshal Badoglio will follow a different procedure, and although his advance will not be so rapid as De Bono's, it will be on a much broader front. What Badoglio takes in the next few months will be taken for good. I expect a new Italian advance toward the end of December. This will come for weeks.

Then it will be halted on account of the little rainy season which falls with what is with us midwinter. But the rain does not doubt that the battles will be fought in February, March and April. Before the big rainy season sets in towards May, the fate of Ethiopia will be decided, and perhaps the fate of the regime in Italy. For if by that time there is no victory, there will be trouble.

(Copyright, 1935, for The Constitution.)

Today Is the Day
BY CLARK KINNAIRD.

Friday, December 20: Ember Day. One hundredth anniversary of Texas' declaration of independence from Mexico. Most last quarter. Zodiac sign, Sagittarius. Fourth from last Christmas shopping day.

Abnormally high temperatures throughout the state are a sure sign it will either retrograde or remain stationary. Small temperature changes do not indicate a further development of the storm.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS.
Irene Dunne, born 1907, cinema actress. . . Marion Talley, born 1906, actress. . . George Duke, born 1902, son of George V. . . Ted Florio, born 1900, dance orchestra leader. . . Harvey Firestone, born 1868, industrialist. . .

TODAY'S YESTERDAYS.
December 20, 1192—A king was kidnapped! Richard I, "the lion-hearted," was seized and held for ransom in Austria as he was returning from the Crusades. The ransom was 200,000 marks. England imposed the first taxes on movable property to raise it, and never finished paying it.

WORLD WAR DAY BY DAY.
Twenty Years Ago Today. The main body of British and French forces at Gallipoli peninsula began boarding ships. But their expedition was not over yet. Getting the troops out of Gallipoli and away from the Turkish-German defenders of the Dardanelles was a more difficult task than taking them in. General Sir C. C. Munro, British commander of the British territorial officer when the war began, was not entrusted with the most dangerous task ever undertaken by British arms. "The Isgie blunder" at the Dardanelles, as the London papers frankly called it, had already cost 112,921 men. One false move by Munro and there wouldn't be a man left to tell the story.

Every man, every animal, every truck and all but six guns, intentionally left behind to fire until the last minute and then destroyed. Now, twenty years later, the bones of the evacuation were one of the greatest feats of the war. The few stores remaining were set on fire. The breakwaters which had been built of old warship hulks were smashed by shell fire.

It is to be hoped that those who have been following these brief daily notes, in which necessarily much is important and more that is interesting and significant, must be contented, will turn to complete accounts of the Gallipoli expedition, one of the most illuminating incidents in all the history of war.

IT'S TRUE.
Mrs. Floyd Davis, of High Island, Texas, wrote a note with her name in placed in it in bottle and sent it from a ship 400 miles southeast of Galveston. Ten months later the bottle drifted to a beach almost directly in front of Mrs. Davis' home. The tarantula is not a poisonous spider.

In this age of science and "brain-trusts" less than one-half of one per cent of the government's expenditures are for scientific work or research. Some eyes naturally "attract" cinders: three-fourths of all cases of cinders-in-the-eyes happen to one-fourth of the people exposed to them.

If you strike one of the main pillars of the suspension bridge across Menai street in Wales, the sound will be turned to you by each of the crossbeams that support the roadway, one after the other, and finally by the opposite pier, 576 feet away.

Townsend plan arithmetic recalls the case of Al Johnson's $50,000 dog—the one for which he traded in a couple of $25,000 cats.

Copyright, 1935, for The Constitution.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS FAIR ENOUGH

BY PAUL MALLON.

PORK WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The largest half of President Roosevelt's PWA policy story was not told. All the President said was that he would not again ask congress for a lump sum. He would seek specific appropriations for specific projects next year, about half a billion dollars' worth in all.

None of the government mimeograph machines was turned on to herald what this meant in the way of restoring Washington normality. The licks publicity machine in particular was lamentably silent.

If it had spoken, it would have groaned that the licks PWA system is dead and done for, the theory of congressional authority over public works is re-established, the old "pork barrel" may now again be opened on the floor of the house and senate, after an absence of three years.

Note.—For the benefit of readers born since 1912, it may be advisable to point out that the pork barrel system is the one for all and for one idea. That is, a congressman gains support for his own pet federal expenditure pork in his own particular district by supporting similar pet projects desired by his brother congressmen for their districts.

THREATS The announcement also neglected to explain why the executive-allocation system of expenditures was being abandoned. Any congressman can tell you. The dozens who have returned so far have been swearing under their breaths that Mr. Roosevelt would never again get a lump sum appropriation through congress. You may recall he had difficulty last year. This year he would certainly have been defeated on the lump sum idea. Even his own crowd of liberal democratic congressmen would not have supported him on that.

GRACE The reversal of PWA policy was proffered so gracefully that some of the congressmen began to look Mr. Roosevelt's gift horse in the mouth. They found several teeth missing.

The fact is that Messrs. Roosevelt and Ickes, in the last two years, have started nearly every large federal public works project they considered to be worth while. They have reached virtually the bottom of the edible pork barrel. It will not break their hearts to let the congressmen chew on the rinds that are left.

Also, their recommendations this year will largely be for second-year appropriations to carry on the particular projects which they have already singled out to be started (Passamaquoddy, Florida canal, etc.).

COURTESY It may be incredible, but the main reason why Laval is still premier of France today is because Christmas is coming.

At least, the best-informed diplomats here will cross their hearts, or whatever they use for hearts, on their Parisian tip that Laval got a 304-to-252 vote of confidence from the chamber of deputies the other day because there is an old French custom against spoiling the holidays by overthrowing a government. It was not Santa Claus, but someone else in authority in Paris, who told the vote that the custom would be respected. That is why Laval was willing to put the question.

The French have no such custom about the New Year. Official inside betting here strongly indicates that the radicals will celebrate that occasion prematurely by severing M. Laval's official head unless he drops the Ethiopian peace plan in the meantime.

PINCH Private diplomatic reports from Italy indicate that the sanctions strapped on the Italian boot by the League of Nations last October are beginning to pinch. The dozens who have returned so far have been swearing under their breaths that Mr. Roosevelt would never again get a lump sum appropriation through congress. You may recall he had difficulty last year. This year he would certainly have been defeated on the lump sum idea. Even his own crowd of liberal democratic congressmen would not have supported him on that.

Mussolini has a strict censorship against publication of anything along that line, but trustworthy authorities say he is having difficulty getting certain food and other supplies, aside from actual war materials. Also, he is paying bootleg prices for what he is able to get. League sanctions prohibited exports of key products, such as scrap iron, rubber, horses and other transport animals, to Italy, and purchase of anything from Italy.

NOTES A heavy of republican presidential candidates was being introduced at a gathering the other night attended by many of them. Names of all those commonly mentioned in the public prints were called, except one. They forgot Senator Dickinson, of Iowa, who failed to arise and point out the oversight.

The problem of two new appointments to the Securities and Exchange Commission is causing considerable inner perturbation. Commissioner Matthews will resign about the last of January. No one has been appointed to ex-Chairman Kennedy's place. The two appointments could change entirely the complexion of the major New Deal regulatory body.

When a horse-track bookmaker for brokers was put on the stand at the SEC hearings the other day, he answered the first question regarding stock market transactions by saying: "That is not my racket. Ask me about horses." The commissioners were not interested.

First and second presidential choices of Ohio delegates to the next republican national convention already are supposed to have been made by the powers that be. The first choice is to be Congressman Bolton, and the second another well-known favorite son.

One formerly high presidential adviser has become pessimistic about Mr. Roosevelt's chances of re-election. He thinks a ballot today would be as bad or worse than the Literary Digest indicates. He is the only one around Mr. Roosevelt who holds such a view.

(Copyright, 1935, for The Constitution.)

SILHOUETTES

BY RALPH T. JONES.

I'd have you know, sir, I trod the boards,
I played with Drew, Mansfield;
I've known high drama, clash of swords—
"Avant, ye soundreids, yield!"

I've en portrayed the gloomy Dane,
Not badly, critics wrote;
I've known my hour of stage door fame,
Scored many a scented note.

And now I play this hackneyed role—
Ere death calls final pause—
This whiskered, paunchy, jovial soul,
This Toyland Santa Claus.

Disillusioned,
After Thirty-eight Years.

One of the most famous editorialists ever written for a newspaper was written in 1887 by the old New York Times. It was entitled "Is There a Santa Claus?" and was inspired by a letter, written by an eight-year-old girl named Virginia O'Hanlon, to that paper.

Frank Church, the editorial writer, answered the childish question in the affirmative. "Thank God," he wrote, "he lives, and in the world's end, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood."

That was written 38 years ago, but the little girl, Virginia O'Hanlon, now Mrs. Edward Douglas, assistant principal of a public school on the lower East Side of New York, is doubtful about the existence of that same Santa Claus.

A Mother's Views Today.
Mrs. Douglas, asked this week for her present-day views about the Christmas saint of childhood, expressed a serious doubt.

"I still keep my faith in the ultimate kindness of human nature," she said, "but how can I, or anyone, believe in the Santa I knew as a child when today there is so much misery and suffering in the world? The perky children from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood."

"Little children, such as I was, trust in Santa Claus as a miraculous munificence through which all things are made possible. There will be a time, there will be loved ones about, and cherished toys that have been dreamt about for months."

"Those whom Santa visits think of Christmas as a beautiful, sacred occasion which it should be—but today too seldom is."

"But for every child tucked into bed Christmas night with his new toy, there are hundreds, no thousands, who huddle in ragged bed clothing sobbing in the night at a faith at best cruel."

"Grownups do not make a mockery of Santa Claus wittingly. They only hope, and that is human. The psychologists now tell us that a child is mentally deficient today if he does not doubt the existence of Santa Claus, there will be loved ones about, and cherished toys that have been dreamt about for months."

Copyright, 1935, for The Constitution.

The Ditch Digger Is a Conscious Capitalist

If He Owns His Shovel

BY ROBERT QUILLLEN.

Have you ever visited the humble apartment of a young bride who left a home of luxury to "start poor?" She makes a little ceremony of displaying her treasures. They are few and cheap, yet they are riches to her. And to see so much innocent pride of possession with so little to justify it seems unbearable pathetic until you reflect that the wealthiest diamond-bedecked dowager in the land would envy such a capacity for joy.

Why is the bride so happy in the possession of

FUNERAL NOTICES

ROBERTS—Funeral services for Mr. James R. Roberts will take place at 2:30 p. m. (Friday) afternoon, from the chapel of Atwell & Lowndes, Rev. W. H. LaPrade will officiate. Interment, Greenwood cemetery.

LAMB—Mr. Jack Lamb passed away Thursday afternoon at his residence, 771 Boulevard, N. E. He is survived by his wife, daughter, Miss Wainwright Lamb. Funeral arrangements announced later by Sam Greenberg & Co.

BARNSDALE—The friends of Mr. Walter R. Barnsdale, Mrs. R. B. Combs and family are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Walter R. Barnsdale tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock from the chapel of Sam Greenberg & Co., Rev. E. L. Altman officiating. Interment, Jonesboro (Ga.) cemetery.

TONEY—Mr. W. M. Toney, of 725 Ashby street, S. W., died suddenly Thursday morning in his 37th year. He is survived by his widow; three sons, W. M. Toney, Jr., Charles Toney and Gerald Toney; one daughter, Miss Elsie Toney; father, Mr. J. W. Toney; brother, Mr. J. W. Toney, Jr.; sister, Mrs. George Kreuger. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. A. S. Turner, funeral director.

CARSON—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Carson, Mrs. Annie Carson, Mrs. J. H. Padgett, Mrs. A. H. Hartsfield, Mrs. Birdie Dent, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brandles, Mr. and Mrs. G. Carson, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Norton, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carson, Griffin, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carson, Waukegan, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Carson, Brooks, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Grover C. Carson (Friday) morning, December 20, 1935, at 11 o'clock from the County Line church (Brooks, Ga.). Brother Brindel will officiate. Interment, churchyard. The funeral cortege will leave from Peachtree road, 860 Peachtree street, N. E., at 9 o'clock. Brandon-Bond-Condor.

HANES—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Hanes and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hanes, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hanes, Mr. and Mrs. K. Hanes, Mr. Ernest Hanes, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hanes, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hanes, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hanes are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Harvey A. Hanes (Friday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the County Line church (Brooks, Ga.). Brother Brindel will officiate. Interment, churchyard. The funeral cortege will leave from Peachtree road, 860 Peachtree street, N. E., at 9 o'clock. Brandon-Bond-Condor.

KEHELEY—Died, Mrs. L. P. Kehley, of Bradenton, Fla., formerly of Atlanta, December 19, 1935. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. L. A. Kehley, Newnan, Ga.; brothers, Mr. Edgar Hodges, Rockmart, Ga.; Mr. Percy Hodges, Sylacauga, Ala.; and Mr. William Hodges. Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, December 21, at 2 o'clock at the Druid Hills Baptist church. Dr. Louis D. Newton will officiate. Interment, West View cemetery. The following gentlemen will serve as pallbearers and please meet at the church at 1:45 o'clock: Mr. William Kehley, Mr. W. G. England, Mr. J. B. Mann, Mr. George Keith, Mr. Robert Garner and Mr. Sam Aiken. H. M. Patterson & Son.

MITTS—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hanes, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pitts, and Mrs. Jennie Maddux are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. J. H. Pitts (Friday) afternoon, December 20, 1935, at 2 o'clock from the Druid Hills Methodist church. Rev. Lester Rumble and Rev. J. B. Peters will officiate. The following gentlemen will serve as pallbearers and please meet at the church at 1:30 p. m.: Mr. J. L. Moore, Mr. W. G. Moore, Mr. E. B. Clements, Mr. W. A. McClure, Mr. H. V. Parrish, and Mr. C. S. Trammell. Interment will be in West View cemetery. Blanchard Bros. Funeral Home with Tom Forrest in charge.

McTYRE—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McTyre, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Garret, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McTyre, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McTyre, of Douglasville, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hill, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Bertha Williams, of Powder Springs, Ga.; Mr. H. M. McTyre and Mrs. J. W. Hicks, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. H. C. McLarty, Mr. Ed McLarty, of Marietta, Ga.; and the grandchildren and five great-grandchildren are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. M. McTyre, aged 77 years this (Friday) morning at 11 o'clock from the Mount Zion Baptist church, Rev. S. E. Cassidy will officiate. Interment, Powder Springs cemetery. The following gentlemen will serve as pallbearers and meet at the residence of Mr. W. M. McTyre at Powder Springs, Ga., at 10:30 o'clock: Messrs. H. G. McTyre, W. P. McTyre, W. M. Garret, M. G. Hill, James Hill and C. W. Garret. T. N. Nunnally, Powder Springs, Ga.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Brandon-Bond-Condor
Peachtree Chapel
AMBULANCE (Licenses 1001)
Acknowledgement Cards
Engraved Promptly—Samples Sent
J. P. STEVENS ENGRAVING CO.
Waiant 6870 103 Peachtree St.

(COLORED.)
WEST—The funeral of Mr. Ike West will be announced later. Mar-dough Bros.

BIGGS—Mr. Will Biggs passed away December 19. Funeral to be announced later. Hanley Co.

LAWRENCE—Mr. George Lawrence passed away at his residence December 19. Funeral to be announced later. Cox Bros.

SHEFFIELD—The funeral of Mr. Willie Sheffield, of Thomaston, Ga., was held yesterday from Mount Olive Baptist church, Molena, Ga. Hanley Co. Thomaston.

ROSS—Funeral services for Mr. Archie Ross (sign painter) will be held today at 10 o'clock from the chapel, Rev. Louis Foster will officiate. Interment, South View cemetery. David T. Howard & Co.

JACKSON—Friends and relatives of Mrs. Capt. Jackson, of Marietta, Ga., are invited to attend her funeral today at 2 p. m. from Turner Chapel A. M. E. church. Interment, Mount Zion cemetery. Hanley Co. Marietta.

GILLIAM—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Lucy Wardlaw Gilliam will be held today at 2 o'clock from Providence Baptist church (S. Atlanta). Rev. P. N. Geer will officiate. Interment, South View cemetery. David T. Howard & Co.

BALDWIN IS BACKED IN PEACE PLAN VOTE

Continued From First Page.

a mistake happen again and that it was a lesson to him.

Baldwin said the peace plan was "absolutely and completely dead" and the British government would not attempt to resurrect it.

He was cheered when he made what was interpreted as a warning to France:

"If by adherence to the League of Nations," he said, "we find ourselves standing alone to do the bidding of the world, the country will say this is the last time we will allow the government to commit itself to a collective security."

"Because, for all we know, the next day the field may be nearer home than the Mediterranean."

Lack of Liaison.
Baldwin said there was no liaison between the London government and Sir Samuel when Hoare was in Paris Sunday a week ago drawing up the plan with Laval, and "I hope other governments will profit from this lesson of lack of liaison."

When he asserted the cabinet felt it necessary to stand by Hoare, opposition members angrily shouted: "Stand by your country!"

Unabashed, Hoare defended his action firmly, told commonsense he could not recant, and "my conscience is clear."

When he left the hall, Hoare, whose illness figured in much of the debate, for a moment away as if the effort was too much for him. Members half rose with outstretched hands, but Sir Samuel steadied himself, buried his face in his hands and passed on into the lobby.

One conservative privately summed up his opinion of the debate as: "Hoare said, 'I have done right, therefore I resign.'"

"Baldwin said, 'I have done wrong, therefore I remain.'"

Threat of War.
Hoare said a threatened "irresistible drift toward a European war" influenced him to accept terms which both he and Laval partly disliked.

While Baldwin labeled Hoare with the nominal blame, he made plain he felt the real blame lay at the door of secret, "gadabout" diplomacy which has grown up in Europe since the World War.

Baldwin's denunciation of the modern diplomacy of traveling diplomats left some uncertainty as to the future of Anthony Eden, who is now in the League affairs, who in the last year or so has visited most European capitals.

Opposition Leader Snell told the house: "I believe never in so short a time has the government fallen into such dishonor and not for 150 years has the reputation of our nation been so injured."

"Why is Hoare thrown to the wolves when the man ultimately responsible still sits on the treasury bench?" asked one opposition member.

Baldwin Admits Fault.
Baldwin admitted his contact with Hoare at Paris was faulty, saying: "There was an absence of liaison during that Sunday and we were not aware until we heard it was accomplished that the agreement was reached."

"I received a letter from Hoare Monday morning urging the cabinet to endorse what he had done. Almost immediately, and before we had time to study the document, a leakage took place. I can see, looking back, I ought to have fetched Sir Samuel back from Switzerland as a cost."

"It was an error of judgment," he explained he was loath to summon Hoare from Switzerland because of the latter's illness and great need of rest.

"Such a position shall not be possible again," he promised and, reaffirming

LODGE NOTICES
A call communication of Inman Lodge No. 827, F. & A. M., will be held in the lodge room at Inman, Georgia this (Friday) evening at 8:30 o'clock. A joint public communication of officers with the Order of Eastern Star will be held. Hon. Raymond Daniel, past grand master of Masons in Georgia will be the principal speaker. Refreshments will be served. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of JAMES C. MORRIS, Sec.

The regular communication of W. D. Locke Lodge No. 82, F. & A. M., will be held in its temple at West End this (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. Business meeting only. Come out and get acquainted with our new officers. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of E. G. POPE, W. M.

The regular communication of Palestine Lodge No. 485, F. & A. M., will be held in its temple this (Friday) evening, December 20, 1935, at 7:30 o'clock. This evening the lodge will be open to all members of the order. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of J. L. HARRINGTON, W. M.

The 21st annual communication of Lakewood Lodge No. 443, F. & A. M., will be held this (Friday) evening, December 20, 1935, at 7:30 o'clock. Reports of finance and social committee, reading, and the election of officers for the ensuing year. All members are invited. Visiting brethren are cordially invited. By order of E. D. O'KELLEY, W. M.

The 24th annual communication of E. A. Minor Lodge No. 903, F. & A. M., will be held in its hall, corner Flat Shoals and Glenwood avenues, this (Friday) evening, December 20, at 8:30 o'clock. By special dispensation, reports of committee, initiation, and installation for the ensuing year. Supper served at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to attend. Visiting brethren, cordially invited. By order of BEN MATTHEWS, W. M. R. D. SHERILL, Acting Sec.

The annual communication of Center Hill Lodge No. 886, F. & A. M., will be held this (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. Business meeting only. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected. All members are urged to attend. Visiting brethren cordially invited to meet with us. By order of E. BUCKNER, W. M.

The officers and members of Mohawk Tribe No. 8, Imp. O. R. M., are invited to attend a special open meeting at the Wigwag, 160 Central avenue, S. W., this (Friday) evening, December 20, 1935, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of hearing an address by the Great Incomer, Arthur Redwood, Vice President of the United States, C. E. MONFORT, Sachem.

To the chiefs and members of Powhatan Tribe No. 8, Imp. O. R. M., you are invited to be present at the Red Men's Wigwag, 160 Central avenue, S. W., this (Friday) evening, December 20, 1935, at 7:30 o'clock, where he will deliver a message of great interest to all Red Men. All Red Men are urged to attend. R. H. McILLAN, C. of L.

ATTENTION, RED MEN.
To all Red Men of the State of Georgia: The Great Incomer of the United States will be at the Red Men's Wigwag, 160 Central avenue, S. W., this (Friday) evening, December 20, at 7:30 o'clock, where he will deliver a message of great interest to all Red Men. All Red Men are urged to attend. R. H. McILLAN, C. of L.

FRENCH BUDGET CLEARED; LAVAL FACES DEFEAT

PARIS, Dec. 19.—(AP)—France's 1936 budget was approved by the chamber of deputies tonight, clearing the way for possible overthrow of the Laval government.

The budget for 1936 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

It was France's first paper-balanced budget in years and now faces certain approval, totaling 40,431,074,137 francs.

The budget for 1935 provided for expenditure of 47,517,011,976 francs. Parliamentary circles said when the budget is safely voted, assuring the frame of safety against devaluation.

G-MEN START SEARCH FOR MILNE KIDNAPERS

Continued From First Page.

park and all five set out in a sedan for Philadelphia.

They rode along for several miles, Milne was quoted by the agents, then suddenly turned into a dirt road near Summit, N. J.

Then, the agents said, Milne was told he was kidnapped.

The agents said Milne told them one of the men informed him: "You're not going to see any doctor. You're going to stay with us. And keep your mouth shut, too, if you know what's good for you."

"I was scared," Milne told the agents. "I was so scared I didn't know what to do. I didn't know what they might do."

Agents said the young man related the abductors put a blindfold on him and he surmised that they drove to a point about 10 miles below New Hope, then turned westward to Wrightstown.

25 Needle Marks.
The agents said Milne told them the blindfold was removed before they walked into the farmhouse.

Sunday, Milne was quoted by the agents, they stuck the first needle into his arm.

Hospital physicians said Milne's right arm had about 25 marks made by a hypodermic needle.

The same day, the abductors attempted to force Milne to write a note to his grandfather in Philadelphia, but he refused. After that, the agents said, the young man was not able to recall what happened until yesterday.

At that time there were only two men in the house, judging from the sound of their movements. Milne's eyes and mouth were bound with adhesive tape.

"Come on, you're going home," Milne said one told him, at the same time slapping his face.

Milne recalled riding again in an automobile and being pushed from it. The agents assembled about Milne's bedside a short time after a hat and a coat, described as similar to Milne's, were found behind a schoolhouse not far from the spot where a motorist picked up the kidnap victim last night, four days after he disappeared from his New York apartment.

Investigators, viewing the apparel as possibly a "hot" clue, summoned reinforcements from federal headquarters in Philadelphia.

Although physicians said Milne would be unable to leave the hospital for at least 24 hours, physicians consented to the questioning after a state trooper advised the government men that the coat and hat were found.

The clothing was described as expensive. Initials apparently were cut from the hat. A pair of scissors was found in a coat pocket. The also was a gray mocha glove similar to those worn by Milne the afternoon he vanished.

The overcoat bore the name "Joseph W. Smith, Fifth avenue, New York," on the manufacturer's label.

Elder Milne's Home Guard. At Scotland, home of Milne's grandfather, a retired manufacturer, "G-men" were on guard.

Frederic Milne, a brother of the youth, left the hospital late today in the company of a federal man. They said they were going to the Milne home.

Department of Justice agents questioned four men who helped S. R. Gerhart, Philadelphia salesman, remove the young man to the hospital.

HEADLINE AIR RACE RAGING IN EUROPE
LONDON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—A headlong race for the air supremacy of Europe is taxing the output of the entire aircraft industry of the leading powers, says the new edition of Jane's All the World's Aircraft.

The British air ministry was represented as leading the race, in which many countries of the Old World already have equipped themselves with fighting planes with a speed of 300 miles an hour and a range of some 900 miles.

C. G. Grey, veteran editor of the Standard Aircraft publication, scoffed at Winston Churchill's recent warning of a threat to Britain in the "alarm" process of Germany's rearmament. But he expressed the opinion that Germany is building planes as fast as Great Britain and estimated she is capable of putting out 100 planes a day.

Grey asserted a four-power air pact between Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany must be the inevitable outcome of the present air rivalry, which, if it is not checked, may jeopardize European peace.

Such a pact probably will prescribe a system of ratios for the four powers. Grey predicted it might consist of an announcement of airplane building plans over a period of years among the lines of the British proposal at the present naval conference.

The seriousness with which Great Britain regards the situation, Grey pointed out, has been evidenced by the air ministry's "revolutionary step in ordering 300-miles-per-hour planes which should be completed by the end of 1936—straight off the drawing board"—and without preliminary tests. Under normal procedure the same planes would not be part of the regular royal air force equipment until 1942.

The council of state will meet Saturday and 11 Duce's reply may be made then.

LEAGUE DISCARDS PLAN TO CONTINUE SANCTIONS
GENEVA, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The League of Nations, discarding the old Franco-Italian peace plan with "thanks," announced tonight: "Sanctions as usual!"

A League council decision put the Franco-Italian peace proposal definitely in a corner and the League's sanctions committee of 18, meeting briefly, approved the continuance of existing sanctions.

"The League has killed the Franco-Italian peace proposal and must now take the responsibility for what happens," a spokesman for Italy warned.

WARRING NATIONS EXCLUDED

The committee of 13 is composed of all members of the council except the parties to the conflict.

As for the Franco-Italian proposals to give Italy control of sovereignty over the half of Ethiopia, the council "thanked" the delegates of the two nations but declined "to express an opinion in regard to them at present."

The sanctions committee will keep in touch with the council committee of 13 with the idea of arranging a discussion of whether the time is ripe for the oil embargo.

Great Britain's Anthony Eden, departing for London, made it clear he was not in a mood to make any new attempts at conciliation meantime should not interfere in any way with the operation of existing sanctions.

As the delegates left Geneva, the opinion generally was expressed that the collapse of the two-power peace proposal was due largely to irresistible pressure of world public opinion.

Confidence Restored.
Likewise there was a feeling that, while peace between Italy and Ethiopia is more distant than ever before, there is a definite recovery of confidence in the League, which for a time had completely abandoned its role.

On the other hand, opponents of sanctions pointed out that the clear result of the whole episode begun Sunday was that Italy, under the leadership of Benito Mussolini, had been able to postpone the operation of sanctions—its not their abandonment.

This, at least, was a clear gain for Duce, they said.

Premier Laval returned to Paris a bitterly disappointed but unbitten man.

"Our effort to bring peace must be constant," he told the Associated Press.

The League, meanwhile, received reports that current sanctions, especially the "buy nothing" boycott, are beginning to embarrass Mussolini.

Although the League council will be done about the oil sanction until after the first of the year, British delegates suggested that experts examine it and press and he was warned against incurring further "reprobation."

A new tone of solemnity toward Premier Mussolini appeared in the League of Nations, which held the balance of power in the chamber.

Control of the party, following Herriot's resignation as leader, was said to be in the hands of the radical-socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

It is no secret that Herriot would prefer a firmer foreign policy, said Andre Corne, a member of the radical socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

Control of the party, following Herriot's resignation as leader, was said to be in the hands of the radical-socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

It is no secret that Herriot would prefer a firmer foreign policy, said Andre Corne, a member of the radical socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

Control of the party, following Herriot's resignation as leader, was said to be in the hands of the radical-socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

It is no secret that Herriot would prefer a firmer foreign policy, said Andre Corne, a member of the radical socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

Control of the party, following Herriot's resignation as leader, was said to be in the hands of the radical-socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

It is no secret that Herriot would prefer a firmer foreign policy, said Andre Corne, a member of the radical socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

Control of the party, following Herriot's resignation as leader, was said to be in the hands of the radical-socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

It is no secret that Herriot would prefer a firmer foreign policy, said Andre Corne, a member of the radical socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

Control of the party, following Herriot's resignation as leader, was said to be in the hands of the radical-socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

It is no secret that Herriot would prefer a firmer foreign policy, said Andre Corne, a member of the radical socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

Control of the party, following Herriot's resignation as leader, was said to be in the hands of the radical-socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

It is no secret that Herriot would prefer a firmer foreign policy, said Andre Corne, a member of the radical socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

Control of the party, following Herriot's resignation as leader, was said to be in the hands of the radical-socialist party, which holds the balance of power in the chamber.

It is no secret that Herriot would prefer a firmer foreign policy, said

RARE LEGAL MANEUVER BLOCKS ALLEN TRIAL

Hearing Is Stayed by Court Order Until Witnesses Are Found.

By GEORGE D. W. BURT.
Associated Press Staff Writer.

JEFFERSON, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—A rare legal maneuver today blocked the trial of Dr. M. B. Allen, Hoschton physician charged with slaying his wife, and the case started toward the state supreme court for a ruling.

Unable to locate two witnesses, the state petition superior court Judge W. W. Stark yesterday and he issued an order prohibiting the hearing until the witnesses are found.

Defense attorneys said the action was "unique" and prepared immediately to file a bill of exceptions taking the injunction to the Georgia supreme court.

They predicted that the February grand jury would investigate Dr. Allen's case before the higher court issued an opinion.

Solicitor-General Clifford Pratt said he will attempt to show the grand jury that Dr. Allen shot his wife "deliberately" with a pistol after a quarrel.

E. C. Stark, one of the defense attorneys, said he has a number of witnesses to prove the shooting accidental.

When the prosecution failed to locate two witnesses, one of whom was a nurse who attended Mrs. Allen just after she was wounded, Judge Stark issued an order in response to petition by the state.

Sheriff R. M. Culbertson was forbidden to take Dr. Allen "before any judicial officer for having a criminal hearing" until the two witnesses are found. The witnesses were named as Mrs. Wilburn Healan and Mrs. Ted Camp, both of Hoschton.

The petition alleged that Mrs. Camp, who "lives in a house owned by the defendant or his father," disappeared after saying she would "tell the truth if they hanged her the next day."

Mrs. Healan, the petition said, "filled up her car . . . with gasoline at the filling station owned and operated according to petitioner's information."

GEORGIA LEADS NATION IN CROP VALUE GAIN

Increase of 29.6 Per Cent
Shown in 1935 Over 10-Year Average.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(P)—Georgia was reported by the Agricultural Department today to have experienced a better crop year in 1935 than any other state.

The combined yield per acre of principal crops, the report said, was 29.6 per cent above the state's 10-year (1921-1930) average yield.

South Carolina's yield was placed at 29.1 per cent over its average, and Alabama had the third best percentage production, the crops being 26.3 per cent above average.

For the entire country, the yield was 1.7 per cent up.

The crop board placed the farm value of Georgia's principal crops at $157,353,000. South Carolina crops were $108,025,000 and Alabama was $131,016,000.

FIVE PERSONS HURT IN VILLA RICA CRASH

VILLA RICA, Ga., Dec. 19.—An automobile-wagon wreck five miles south of here on the Villa Rica-Carrollton highway injured five persons painfully late Wednesday when a car driven by J. W. Boland, of Carrollton, and a wagon belonging to Reuben Jones, of Villa Rica, crashed.

Both vehicles were headed toward Carrollton, the wagon being loaded with furniture.

The injured include Mrs. J. W. Boland, of Carrollton, who was in the car with her husband. She received severe cuts and bruises; Lester Nalley, who was on the wagon, received a broken hip and cuts and bruises when thrown to the concrete highway.

Carl Bohlen, Homer Long and Claude Bolton, all of Villa Rica, received cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Boland was taken to a Carrollton hospital while the other injured were brought to a hospital here. Mr. Nalley remained in the hospital, but the others were allowed to return home after treatment.

The car and wagon were both badly damaged.

TURKEYS PROFITABLE ON HENRY COUNTY FARM

McDONOUGH, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Elkins, of Henry county, are finding turkeys more profitable than cotton.

For two years now they have been raising turkeys on their farm, as a "side-line" enterprise, and the returns have far exceeded those from cotton, once a stand-by as a cash producer. In 1935, a flock of 68 turkeys was hatched. A fox caught several, but 50 were sold on the market.

The birds brought 25 cents a pound, on foot, at the farm, or for 30 cents on the market. Markets were found at Jackson, McDonough and Griffin. The Elkins had more buyers than they had turkeys.

CHALLENGE TO DEBATE DECLINED BY HOWELL

Chairman Turns Down Suggestion Made by Dr.
C. N. Howard.

By the Associated Press.

A challenge to debate his recent statement that there had been a "complete breakdown" in the Georgia legislative branch of government was waved aside yesterday by Chairman Hugh Howell of the state legislative committee as "beside the point."

The challenge was issued yesterday by Dr. Charles N. Howard, of Cusseta, a representative of the general assembly from Chattahoochee county.

"There is no controversy between my long-time friend, Dr. Howard, and myself about the legislature not passing an appropriations bill," said Howell.

In making the statement that the legislature had broken down, the executive committee chairman emphasized the assembly's "failure to pass an appropriations bill."

Dr. Howard said the legislature had "not broken down" that it had passed the reform measures of the Governor and was proclaimed by Talmadge as an excellent legislature.

Howell said he had no intention of debating the question as to whether the legislature had broken down, as charged.

Indicating he believed a debate would bring in the question of "who was to blame" for failure to pass an appropriations bill, Howell said:

"I have never said and do not intend to say who is to blame. That is wholly beside the point."

"What difference does it make to me whether the legislature failed to pass an appropriations bill, or to those who want to keep the courthouses open and the prisons running?"

"What they all want is to be cared for."

Answering his own questions, Howell said the people of Georgia "are not worried," for, he said:

"On January 1, despite the fact that the legislature failed to pass an appropriations bill, the capital won't be cold or dark; the 5,000 prisoners will not be unloosed; the courts will continue to operate; the blind, the deaf, the dumb, the insane and the tubercular will get their breakfast, because Eugene Talmadge is Governor and the people know it, and every inch of the state will continue to function as usual."

"GROSS ERROR" IS LAID TO HOWELL BY SOLOH

MOULTREE, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—A statement that Hugh Howell, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, was in "gross error" in his statement that the legislature failed to pass an appropriations bill in 1936 without an appropriations bill was made here today by Representative Milton A. Shivers, of Colquitt county.

Howell, in an address read recently to the Macon Rotary Club, said there had been a "breakdown" in legislative machinery in Georgia, and that the Governor, charged with keeping the state government in operation, thus had a right to see that the state's prisoners were detained, that patients in eleemosynary institutions were cared for, and that other functions of government were maintained.

Shivers quoted a provision of the constitution that "No money shall be drawn from the treasury except by appropriation made by law."

The representative said: "If the Governor really and truly wants to conserve the peace throughout the state, if Mr. Howell has an honest zeal for the protection of the constitution and the people of Georgia, then let an extraordinary session of the legislature be called to pass an appropriation law, and Georgia's troubles will be over."

The 1935 legislature failed to pass an appropriations bill for 1936 and 1937. The governor's critics charged he blocked the bill so he could take complete charge of state finances. His friends blame the legislature.

FIRE FORCES CREW TO ABANDON BARGE

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(P)—The 226-foot barge Marie De Ronde, once used as a fireboat, was towed away from a fire on Long Island Sound today after a fight of almost three hours against fire.

Cost guards on Long Island's Atlantic shore, seeing smoke pouring skyward, sent a big amphibian airplane and 16 surface craft racing to the scene in four that it might be a passenger ship afloat.

Skipper M. J. Hubbard and his crew, however, had been taken off by the tug Walcott, which was towing the 2,375-ton barge and its 3,000-ton cargo of coal from Philadelphia to Boston.

Exonerated in Slaying.

DYERSBURG, Tenn., Dec. 19.—(P)—Albert Jackson, prominent Dyer county stock dealer and farmer, was exonerated today of a murder charge which followed the death in November of Bob Pace, Newbern farmer and livestock man. Mr. Jackson had been at liberty under bond.

Segregation Requested.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—Segregation of young first offenders from older and hardened criminals at the county chain gang was recommended by the chain gang committee of the county grand jury. The commission expressed its approval of the idea, but said it lacked money at this time to put the program into effect.

STATE DEATHS

MISS MARY TOWNLEY.

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga., Dec. 19.—Miss Mary Townley, 67, died suddenly Wednesday night at her residence here. She was a member of the Baptist church.

Surviving are four sisters, Mrs. B. W. Durham, Mrs. Maud Walker, of East Point; Mrs. Sennie Driver, Tallapoosa; and Mrs. A. E. Hater, Lawrenceville; two brothers, R. B. Townley, Charlotte, and E. L. Townley, New Orleans.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist church, Rev. E. B. Collins and Rev. H. L. Edmondson officiating. Burial will be in Shadowlawn cemetery.

T. ALBERT WILLIS.

ELBERTON, Ga., Dec. 19.—The funeral of T. Albert Willis was held yesterday after a short illness. He was 58 years old and the only surviving son of the late E. M. Willis. He had been connected with a local grocery firm for many years.

He was unmarried and is survived by five sisters.

JOSEPH A. COX.

DRY BRANCH, Ga., Dec. 19.—Joseph A. Cox, 68, retired fruit grower and nurseryman, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Miller, after an illness of four days. He had been here for the past six months, coming from Atlanta.

Surviving are his wife, four sons, J. T. D. C. W. R. and J. A. Cox; four daughters, Mrs. Inez Hater, Mrs. Paul Cook, Misses Wills Dean and Jane Cox; two sisters, Mrs. Lou Davis and Mrs. Alice Cooper; four brothers, W. D. A. J. L. and J. T. Cox.

Funeral services and interment were held Wednesday at Rock Springs church, near Lawrenceville.

EX-SENATOR WEAVER DIES AT THOMASTON

Heart Attack Fatal to Member of Prominent Georgia Family.

THOMASTON, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—Former State Senator G. A. Weaver, of Thomaston, member of a distinguished Georgia family, died unexpectedly at his residence here today.

Survivors include his wife, a brother, Dr. Calvin Weaver, of Atlanta, and two sisters, Mrs. Willis A. Sutton, wife of the superintendent of Atlanta schools, and Mrs. Carrie Cook Porter, of New York city.

Mr. Weaver, one of the largest landowners in this section of Georgia, served in the 1933 session of the state legislature, as representative of the 25th state senatorial district. He was succeeded in the 1935 session by John McGehee, of Talbotton, when it became Talbot county's turn to furnish the senator.

For the past year Mr. Weaver had been in ill health. For several months, earlier in the year, he was confined to his bed, but had improved and was able to be out most of the time. He was not feeling well yesterday, but his heart ailment was blamed for his death.

The former senator was 63 years old, a member of Governor Talmadge's staff, and had extensive land and business interests.

For many years he was president of the Weaver Mercantile Company here, one of Thomaston's oldest establishments, but retired several months ago due to ill health.

He was keenly interested in development of the pine paper industry in this state. His land holdings included several large peach orchards, farms and stock farms.

In the legislature, he evinced keen interest in legislation for the betterment of educational facilities.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the residence, Rev. T. R. Moorehead, pastor of Thomaston Methodist church, is to officiate. Interment will be in Glenwood cemetery.

BUSINESS EDUCATION GROUP TO MEET HERE

The 1936 convention of the Southern Business Education Association will be held here, the Atlanta Convention and Tourist Bureau announced yesterday. The meeting is expected to assemble 300 delegates from every class business college and commercial school in the South.

L. E. Campbell, of Emory University, is president of the Georgia association, which will be host to the southern group. Miss Fannie B. Richardson, of the State College for Women at Milledgeville, is public school chairman for Georgia. Clark Harrison, of the Draughton School of Commerce, is private school chairman.

Officers of the southern association are, J. H. Dodd, of the Virginia State Teachers' College, president; F. E. Cranfield, of the Bowling Green College of Commerce, vice president; and Dr. C. W. Humphrey, of the Western Carolina Teachers' College, secretary.

HIGH LEGAL CHARGES RAPPED BY FLORIDA

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 19.—(P)—The supreme court took a rap today at lawyers who use only their clients' financial status as the standard for fixing fees.

The court said attorneys' fees "must bear a just relation to the prevailing philosophy with reference to the value of the lawyer's services, and must bear some relation to the results secured."

An opinion written by Justice Glenn Terrell said "preference of the litigant is sometimes entitled to consideration, but usually bears no relation to the fee that is just."

The decision was rendered in a fee suit brought by Vincent Giblin, Miami attorney, against Salling W. Baruch. The court upheld a judgment of the Dade county circuit court in giving Giblin a fee of $8,250 for services rendered in defending Baruch on a breach of promise suit.

Baruch was sued for $100,000 by Dorothy Firman, but the case later was settled for $400, he said.

Safe Driving Pledge

In the interest of accident prevention and safer conditions on the highways and in co-operation with the Safety Council of The Atlanta Constitution, I am making the following pledge:

1. To drive at moderate speed and on own side of road.

2. Not to pass cars on curves or hills.

3. To stop at stop signs.

4. Not to jump traffic lights.

5. In city traffic to be particularly watchful for pedestrians stepping into the line of traffic from parked cars.

6. Always to give hand signals showing my intention of turning to the left, to the right, or stopping, and not to leave the curb from a parked position without giving a signal.

7. To be fair to other drivers in all respects and to refrain from reckless driving.

The Safety Council of
THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

Fill out and mail this pledge to the Safety Council of The Atlanta Constitution, inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelope for return of windshield stickers.

On Program for Veterans

MACON PUBLISHER SAYS BANK
Act "Turned Panic Into Recovery."

MACON, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—Discussing the "New Deal" before the Macon Rotary Club yesterday, W. T. Anderson, Macon newspaper editor, described President Roosevelt's handling of the bank crisis as "the greatest mass psychology ever seen."

He gave praise to the President for "turning a panic into recovery."

The Macon editor said his attitude toward Roosevelt administration as one of "constructive criticism" rather than antagonistic opposition.

He referred to the AAA as being like a shoe that pinched its wearer but which could be made serviceable by temporarily taking it off as with a new shoe. It was an effort, he said, in the right direction and needs only to be adjusted to fit the situation better.

The editor likewise discussed other movements of the present administration.

MACON POSTMASTER
MAY BE NAMED SOON

MACON, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—The Macon Telegraph said today names of three prominent residents have been certified by the Civil Service Commission and referred to Congressman Vinson as eligible for the postmastership here.

They were listed as G. Glen Toole, former mayor; William A. Patisio, brother-in-law of Sheriff James R. Hicks Jr.; and now acting postmaster, and Mrs. Clara G. Kinney, former member of city council, active Roosevelt supporter, president of the American Legion Auxiliary here and wife of a Bibb county commissioner.

Patisio was named acting postmaster recently when Senator Richard B. Russell Jr. blocked confirmation of P. T. Anderson, Macon newspaper business executive.

A new nomination is expected to be placed before the congress early in January for confirmation.

ALABAMANS TO VOTE
DIRECTLY ON F. D. R.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 19.—(P)—John D. McQueen, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, said today he would call a meeting of the committee in Montgomery between January 1 and 10 and favor a plan to allow voters at the May primary to decide whether Alabama's delegation should be Roosevelt instructed or uninstructed.

McQueen, Governor Bibb Graves and United States Senator Hugo L. Black and John H. Bankhead, were elected by the committee at its November meeting as uninstructed delegates from the state at large to lead Alabama's delegation to the 1936 democratic national convention.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 19.—(P)—Lyndon (Red) Foster, lobbyist and pamphlet publisher, was wounded in the arms and face early today when a bomb wrecked his apartment in the fashionable Wilshire district.

Foster, publisher of a monthly pamphlet, The Equalizer, which has contained bitter attacks on various political figures of the city, was thrown from his bed by the blast. Lendings were found embedded in the walls, furniture and floors. An area of several square miles was shaken.

The publisher blamed his political enemies for the explosion.

ALABAMA TOWN GIVEN YEAR FREE FROM TAX

GAINESSVILLE, Ala., Dec. 19.—(P)—Mayor P. W. Norwood and the city council gave Gainesville citizens a Christmas gift today, a suspension of the payment of taxes for 1936.

This is the sixth consecutive year the city council has voted to suspend collection of ad valorem taxes, due to the condition of the municipal treasury—it doesn't need the money.

"We have a substantial balance in the treasury," said the mayor in his notice to taxpayers, "and can carry on without this tax."

MERRILL DELIVERS
AIRSHIP TO WILKINS

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 19.—(P)—Reports from Rio Gallegos, near the extreme southern tip of South America, said tonight that Dick Merrill and William Klenke, American pilots flying a plane from the United States, arrived late this afternoon and delivered the ship to Sir Hubert Wilkins for a search for Lincoln Ellsworth, missing explorer.

The reports did not say when Sir Hubert planned to take off on a flight over the antarctic ice to look for Ellsworth.

EX-NEWSPAPER HEAD
DIES IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(P)—George Buckley, vice president of the National City Bank and former publisher of the Chicago Herald-Examiner, died today.

Under the NIA he served as head of the newspaper and publishing division. Later he became a deputy administrator of the federal housing act and had an important part in putting it into operation.

Segregation Requested.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—Segregation of young first offenders from older and hardened criminals at the county chain gang was recommended by the chain gang committee of the county grand jury. The commission expressed its approval of the idea, but said it lacked money at this time to put the program into effect.

STATE DEATHS

MISS MARY TOWNLEY.

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga., Dec. 19.—Miss Mary Townley, 67, died suddenly Wednesday night at her residence here. She was a member of the Baptist church.

Surviving are four sisters, Mrs. B. W. Durham, Mrs. Maud Walker, of East Point; Mrs. Sennie Driver, Tallapoosa; and Mrs. A. E. Hater, Lawrenceville; two brothers, R. B. Townley, Charlotte, and E. L. Townley, New Orleans.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist church, Rev. E. B. Collins and Rev. H. L. Edmondson officiating. Burial will be in Shadowlawn cemetery.

T. ALBERT WILLIS.

ELBERTON, Ga., Dec. 19.—The funeral of T. Albert Willis was held yesterday after a short illness. He was 58 years old and the only surviving son of the late E. M. Willis. He had been connected with a local grocery firm for many years.

He was unmarried and is survived by five sisters.

JOSEPH A. COX.

DRY BRANCH, Ga., Dec. 19.—Joseph A. Cox, 68, retired fruit grower and nurseryman, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Miller, after an illness of four days. He had been here for the past six months, coming from Atlanta.

Surviving are his wife, four sons, J. T. D. C. W. R. and J. A. Cox; four daughters, Mrs. Inez Hater, Mrs. Paul Cook, Misses Wills Dean and Jane Cox; two sisters, Mrs. Lou Davis and Mrs. Alice Cooper; four brothers, W. D. A. J. L. and J. T. Cox.

Funeral services and interment were held Wednesday at Rock Springs church, near Lawrenceville.

ANDERSON PRAISES NEW DEAL PHASES

MACON PUBLISHER SAYS BANK
Act "Turned Panic Into Recovery."

MACON, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—Discussing the "New Deal" before the Macon Rotary Club yesterday, W. T. Anderson, Macon newspaper editor, described President Roosevelt's handling of the bank crisis as "the greatest mass psychology ever seen."

He gave praise to the President for "turning a panic into recovery."

The Macon editor said his attitude toward Roosevelt administration as one of "constructive criticism" rather than antagonistic opposition.

He referred to the AAA as being like a shoe that pinched its wearer but which could be made serviceable by temporarily taking it off as with a new shoe. It was an effort, he said, in the right direction and needs only to be adjusted to fit the situation better.

The editor likewise discussed other movements of the present administration.

MACON POSTMASTER
MAY BE NAMED SOON

MACON, Ga., Dec. 19.—(P)—The Macon Telegraph said today names of three prominent residents have been certified by the Civil Service Commission and referred to Congressman Vinson as eligible for the postmastership here.

They were listed as G. Glen Toole, former mayor; William A. Patisio, brother-in-law of Sheriff James R. Hicks Jr.; and now acting postmaster, and Mrs. Clara G. Kinney, former member of city council, active Roosevelt supporter, president of the American Legion Auxiliary here and wife of a Bibb county commissioner.

Patisio was named acting postmaster recently when Senator Richard B. Russell Jr. blocked confirmation of P. T. Anderson, Macon newspaper business executive.

A new nomination is expected to be placed before the congress early in January for confirmation.

ALABAMANS TO VOTE
DIRECTLY ON F. D. R.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 19.—(P)—John D. McQueen, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, said today he would call a meeting of the committee in Montgomery between January 1 and 10 and favor a plan to allow voters at the May primary to decide whether Alabama's delegation should be Roosevelt instructed or uninstructed.

McQueen, Governor Bibb Graves and United States Senator Hugo L. Black and John H. Bankhead, were elected by the committee at its November meeting as uninstructed delegates from the state at large to lead Alabama's delegation to the 1936 democratic national convention.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 19.—(P)—Lyndon (Red) Foster, lobbyist and pamphlet publisher, was wounded in the arms and face early today when a bomb wrecked his apartment in the fashionable Wilshire district.

Foster, publisher of a monthly pamphlet, The Equalizer, which has contained bitter attacks on various political figures of the city, was thrown from his bed by the blast. Lendings were found embedded in the walls, furniture and floors. An area of several square miles was shaken.

The publisher blamed his political enemies for the explosion.

ALABAMA TOWN GIVEN YEAR FREE FROM TAX

GAINESSVILLE, Ala., Dec. 19.—(P)—Mayor P. W. Norwood and the city council gave Gainesville citizens a Christmas gift today, a suspension of the payment of taxes for 1936.

This is the sixth consecutive year the city council has voted to suspend collection of ad valorem taxes, due to the condition of the municipal treasury—it doesn't need the money.

"We have a substantial balance in the treasury," said the mayor in his notice to taxpayers, "and can carry on without this tax."

MERRILL DELIVERS
AIRSHIP TO WILKINS

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 19.—(P)—Reports from Rio Gallegos, near the extreme southern tip of South America, said tonight that Dick Merrill and William Klenke, American pilots flying a plane from the United States, arrived late this afternoon and delivered the ship to Sir Hubert Wilkins for a search for Lincoln Ellsworth, missing explorer.

The reports did not say when Sir Hubert planned to take off on a flight over the antarctic ice to look for Ellsworth.

EX-NEWSPAPER HEAD
DIES IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(P)—George Buckley, vice president of the National City Bank and former publisher of the Chicago Herald-Ex

DEATH TOLL REACHES TOTAL FOR LAST YEAR

65 Now Dead, With 12 Days of 1935 Remaining; Truck Kills Negro Girl.

Deaths from traffic accidents within the city limits of Atlanta through yesterday equaled the entire toll of 1934, with the recording of the deaths of two more victims.

Millard Bagwell, 23, of 130 Claire drive, S. W., died yesterday morning at Grady hospital of injuries suffered Monday night when he was struck by a street car at McDonough Boulevard and Lakewood street.

Bagwell's death marks the 64th traffic fatalities within the boundaries of Atlanta since the first of the year. The 1934 death was recorded Tuesday night when Lola Calloway, negro woman, died in Grady.

The following were elected delegates to the Medical Association of Georgia convention: Dr. C. C. Aven, Dr. Ed H. Greene, Dr. Cyrus W. Strickler, Dr. T. C. Davidson and Dr. Edgar F. Fincher Jr. The president and president-elect automatically become delegates.

Alternates elected were Dr. Louis M. Gaines, Dr. M. T. Harrison, Dr. B. T. Beasley, Dr. George W. Fuller, Dr. D. Henry Doer, Dr. William E. Lake and Dr. G. C. Massee.

Dr. Leland G. Baggett, Dr. Glenville Giddings and Dr. J. R. Childs were elected to the judicial council.

THOMAS L. SEAY, 46, DIES IN TUCSON, ARIZ. Thomas L. Seay, 46, of Tucson, Ariz., formerly of Atlanta, died at Tucson yesterday after an illness of several months. The body will be brought to Atlanta for services Sunday night.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

NEW OFFICERS NAMED BY FULTON DOCTORS

Dr. H. C. Sauls Selected as President-Elect at Annual Meeting.

Dr. H. C. Sauls last night was chosen president-elect of the Fulton County Medical Society at the annual meeting held in the Academy of Medicine on Prescott street.

Dr. Grady E. Clay, who was chosen president-elect last year, takes office on the first of the year, and Dr. Sauls will become president after Dr. Clay's term is served.

Dr. E. C. Shanks, who served as president this year, briefly reviewed the year's work.

Dr. George F. Eubanks, who was unopposed, was elected vice president, and Dr. Major F. Fowler was elected to the board of trustees.

The following were elected delegates to the Medical Association of Georgia convention: Dr. C. C. Aven, Dr. Ed H. Greene, Dr. Cyrus W. Strickler, Dr. T. C. Davidson and Dr. Edgar F. Fincher Jr. The president and president-elect automatically become delegates.

Alternates elected were Dr. Louis M. Gaines, Dr. M. T. Harrison, Dr. B. T. Beasley, Dr. George W. Fuller, Dr. D. Henry Doer, Dr. William E. Lake and Dr. G. C. Massee.

Dr. Leland G. Baggett, Dr. Glenville Giddings and Dr. J. R. Childs were elected to the judicial council.

THOMAS L. SEAY, 46, DIES IN TUCSON, ARIZ. Thomas L. Seay, 46, of Tucson, Ariz., formerly of Atlanta, died at Tucson yesterday after an illness of several months. The body will be brought to Atlanta for services Sunday night.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

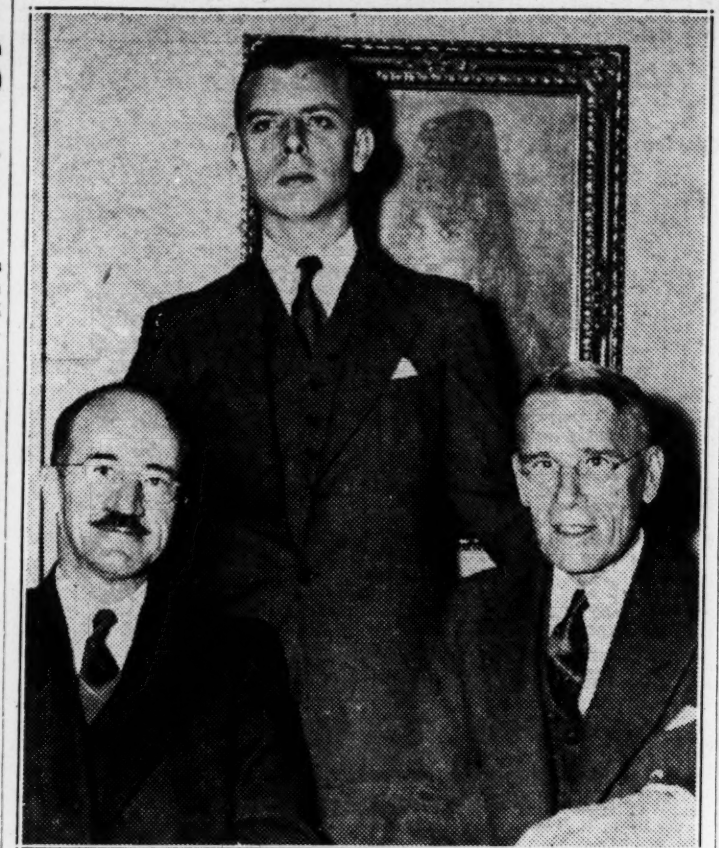

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Etel Seay; one son, Charles Seay; his mother, Mrs. H. C. Seay; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Holland and Mrs. Nellie Poyas, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. M. Turner, of Carrollton.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, with Dr. E. M. Altman officiating. Burial will be at Mabelton, Ga.

New Leaders of Atlanta Bar Association

Attorneys who will lead the Atlanta Bar Association for 1936 were elected at the annual meeting of the organization last night. Those named as officers are, from left to right, Bond Almand, president, formerly second vice president; Frank C. Tindall, second vice president, member of last year's executive committee, and John T. Dennis, first vice president, also a member of the 1934 executive committee. Staff photo by Turner Hiers.

Vote To Learn Lawyers' Attitude On Legislation Urged at Meeting

Proposal that a referendum be held for lawyers so that legislatures may know the attitude of members of the legal profession, as a body, on issues facing the bar and the bench, was made last night by Bond Almand before 120 attorneys at the annual meeting of the Atlanta Bar Association.

Mr. Almand later was elected president of the association, to succeed Frank Carter.

John T. Dennis and Frank C. Tindall were elected first and second vice presidents, respectively. Those named to the executive committee were William G. Grant, George H. Hensell, Grover Middlebrooks, Stephens Mitchell, W. D. Thomson and Mr. Carter.

In reporting for the legislative committee, Mr. Almand pointed out that the association had sponsored the passage of laws which provide for the fixing of salaries of all judges, and for the election of municipal court judges by the people. Attorneys present approved unanimously the report of the legislative committee.

A marked decrease in complaints against "unscrupulous and unethical practitioners" of law in Atlanta for 1935 was cited by Leonard Haas, of the grievance committee. He pointed out that local judges had given a special committee the right to make recommendations concerning "shysters," though this body had no authority to disbar lawyers. About $700 of the $1,100 spent by the association during the year was used by the grievance committee, it was reported.

Steps are being taken to provide one directing judge among the superior court judges to see that all other courts are functioning steadily, John T. Dennis, representing the rules committee, announced. Judge John D. Humphries, senior judge of the superior court, gave the views of judges regarding proposed rules. He predicted a vast improvement in the administration of justice, provided the bar and the courts continue to cooperate.

Mr. Carter reported the activities of the association during his administration. Both he and Thomas B. Branch Jr., secretary-treasurer, were presented gifts in appreciation of their work for the association. The association plans to open an office, on a full-time basis with a secretary in charge, it was announced.

DR. E. D. M'DOUGALL PASSES IN MISSOURI LIBERTY, Mo., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Dr. E. D. McDougall, 65, pastor of the Presbyterian church here since 1932, former president of Alabama Presbyterian Institute at Anniston, Ala., and former dean of Southwestern College, at Memphis, Tenn., died today after a heart attack. He was born at Dundee, Wis., and formerly was pastor at Cartersville, Ga., Thomasville, Ga., Florence, Ala., and Lewisburg, Tenn.

ing of the body in a garage the 30-year-old actress shared with West. Further inquiry was urged.

A district attorney's investigator was ordered to run down rumors that Miss Todd's beach cafe had been planning to permit gambling and that this might have aroused the enmity of professional gamblers.

Grand jury authorities, indicating a suspicion of poison in the mystery, awaited scientific analysis of the vital organs and arranged to start their own investigation tomorrow.

The identity of the person Miss Todd intended to take to a party at the home of Wallace Ford, actress, Sunday afternoon, the supposed date of her death, remained undetermined.

Complicating Evidence. The statement of Mrs. West, the former Jewel Carmen of the films, was the second bit of information tending to complicate evidence bearing on the date and hour of death. Mrs. Ford was the first.

Police detectives expressed doubt that Miss Todd was the person Mrs. West saw. They said they would adhere to the premise that the actress died at dawn Sunday.

Although West told the coronor's jury that Miss Todd had been connecting apartments above their cafe, he evaded a question as to whether they had been intimate.

Mrs. Ford told police Miss Todd was her "bosom friend."

The serenity at the mortuary contrasted sharply with the stir among police, detectives and grand jury authorities.

Miss Todd's body lay in state for five hours preceding the funeral and cremation at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Ropes kept the line of humanity about 30 feet from the funeral couch. Taylor said West, Anderson and Smith would be questioned on a broad range of points in the complex story.

Anderson testified he put away Miss Todd's automobile—the one in which her body was found, at 2:30 Sunday morning.

West told the coronor's jury that Smith occupied an apartment directly above the garage in which Miss Todd's body was found, and should have heard the motor of her car if it had been running there Sunday morning, because there was a hole in the garage ceiling.

"I can't understand why Mr. Smith didn't hear that motor running, if it was," said West, "and smell the fumes that killed Thelma."

Smith was not subpoenaed for the inquest.

He told interviewers today, however, he was not "missing," as reported, but that he was in his apartment all day yesterday. He pointed out that the "hole" mentioned by West did not come clear through the floor of his quarters. It was a section of plaster, removed from the ceiling of the garage, to prevent dampness, he said.

"I went to bed about 3:30, Sunday morning," Smith said. The restaurant closed shortly after 2 o'clock. It took me an hour or more to check the books, walk clear up the hill, and get to bed.

"I am an old man (he is 70) and I go to sleep the moment my head touches the pillow. If Miss Todd came to the garage at 4 o'clock, as the chauffeur estimates, opened the doors and started the car she did it quietly. I heard nothing unusual. But she might have done that. She was very considerate."

Riverman Drowned. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 19.—(AP)—William Gilbert, 67, was killed today in a collision of two boats. Gilbert, an employee of the Federal Barge lines, was drowned about noon when the barge, government inspection launch, and his small gasoline boat collided in midstream on the Mississippi river.

NEGRO SUSPECT FREED IN SLAYING OF ROBERTS

Coroner Lays Killing of Atlanta Salesman to 'Persons Unknown.'

A negro suspect, arrested yesterday in connection with the investigation of the murder of James Richards Roberts, 50-year-old Atlanta coffee and tea salesman, was released by detectives at 11 o'clock last night.

Police revealed they had nothing on which to hold the negro, who was arrested at yesterday's two hours before an inquest into the murder was held.

Following the inquest, held at the mortuary, of Avery & Lowndes, Coroner Paul B. Donebo announced that Roberts met death at "the hands of a person or persons unknown."

Roberts was killed at about 3:15 o'clock Tuesday night by a single charge from a shotgun fired by an unknown assailant just after he had parked his automobile in a garage in the rear of his apartment home at 318 Fourth street, N. E.

Physician Testifies. At the inquest, Dr. J. C. Blalock, county physician, who performed an autopsy Wednesday night, submitted his report that the shotgun charge, which resembled "a fine bird shot," entered Roberts' left chest, striking the heart, and then passed into the right chest, causing collapse of the lung.

Detectives E. I. Hilderbrand and W. M. Holland, assigned to the inquest, did not reveal where the negro suspect, who gave his name as Will Thomas, of a Mitchell place address, was arrested.

According to the detectives, the slain man last week visited a brother, who is employed at the Bellwood prison camp, from which Thomas was released last Monday.

The detectives learned that Roberts displayed a large sum of money in front of the negro, and thus he was suspected of perhaps having some knowledge of the crime. He was released for want of prosecution.

Roberts' Watch Found. Seriously handicapped by lack of clues, investigators yesterday lost a faint clue when members of the slain man's family revealed that Roberts' watch, at first believed stolen by a friend, was found in possession of a slayer.

The slain man's wallet, containing little or no cash, was missing, however, lending credence to robbery as the motive for the killing.

Funeral services for Roberts will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the chapel of Avery & Lowndes, with the Rev. W. H. La Prade officiating. Burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Roberts is survived by his wife; a son, James Richards Roberts Jr.; two daughters, Miss Virginia Roberts and Miss Pauline Roberts; six brothers, W. H. and T. E. both of Atlanta; J. H. of Decatur; C. G. F. K. and E. H. of Atlanta; and a sister, Mrs. E. H. of Atlanta. Mrs. E. T. Smith and Miss Lida Roberts, both of Oklahoma City, Okla.

ing of the body in a garage the 30-year-old actress shared with West. Further inquiry was urged.

A district attorney's investigator was ordered to run down rumors that Miss Todd's beach cafe had been planning to permit gambling and that this might have aroused the enmity of professional gamblers.

Grand jury authorities, indicating a suspicion of poison in the mystery, awaited scientific analysis of the vital organs and arranged to start their own investigation tomorrow.

The identity of the person Miss Todd intended to take to a party at the home of Wallace Ford, actress, Sunday afternoon, the supposed date of her death, remained undetermined.

Complicating Evidence. The statement of Mrs. West, the former Jewel Carmen of the films, was the second bit of information tending to complicate evidence bearing on the date and hour of death. Mrs. Ford was the first.

Police detectives expressed doubt that Miss Todd was the person Mrs. West saw. They said they would adhere to the premise that the actress died at dawn Sunday.

Although West told the coronor's jury that Miss Todd had been connecting apartments above their cafe, he evaded a question as to whether they had been intimate.

Mrs. Ford told police Miss Todd was her "bosom friend."

The serenity at the mortuary contrasted sharply with the stir among police, detectives and grand jury authorities.

Miss Todd's body lay in state for five hours preceding the funeral and cremation at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Ropes kept the line of humanity about 30 feet from the funeral couch. Taylor said West, Anderson and Smith would be questioned on a broad range of points in the complex story.

Anderson testified he put away Miss Todd's automobile—the one in which her body was found, at 2:30 Sunday morning.

West told the coronor's jury that Smith occupied an apartment directly above the garage in which Miss Todd's body was found, and should have heard the motor of her car if it had been running there Sunday morning, because there was a hole in the garage ceiling.

"I can't understand why Mr. Smith didn't hear that motor running, if it was," said West, "and smell the fumes that killed Thelma."

Smith was not subpoenaed for the inquest.

He told interviewers today, however, he was not "missing," as reported, but that he was in his apartment all day yesterday. He pointed out that the "hole" mentioned by West did not come clear through the floor of his quarters. It was a section of plaster, removed from the ceiling of the garage, to prevent dampness, he said.

"I went to bed about 3:30, Sunday morning," Smith said. The restaurant closed shortly after 2 o'clock. It took me an hour or more to check the books, walk clear up the hill, and get to bed.

"I am an old man (he is 70) and I go to sleep the moment my head touches the pillow. If Miss Todd came to the garage at 4 o'clock, as the chauffeur estimates, opened the doors and started the car she did it quietly. I heard nothing unusual. But she might have done that. She was very considerate."

Riverman Drowned. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 19.—(AP)—William Gilbert, 67, was killed today in a collision of two boats. Gilbert, an employee of the Federal Barge lines, was drowned about noon when the barge, government inspection launch, and his small gasoline boat collided in midstream on the Mississippi river.

ing of the body in a garage the 30-year-old actress shared with West. Further inquiry was urged.

AT ATLANTA'S THEATERS

Capitol Has Contest Of Colored Amateurs

The Capitol Theater will present another all-colored amateur contest on the stage at 9 o'clock tonight. This is the third such contest presented during the past few months and is offered in response to requests from hundreds of patrons.

Those who attend this fun night will be afforded an opportunity to witness some of Auburn avenue's greatest singers, dancers, musicians and funsters in competition for the prizes offered by the management.

The audience, as usual, by its applause, will pick the winners.

This extra 30 minutes of fun on the stage augments the regular stage and screen program. The feature picture is "Seven Keys to Baldpate" with Gene Raymond and Margaret Callahan. The stage show is "Mixed Nuts."

Starting Sunday the Capitol will offer on the stage Gene Cobb's "Toppin' Tops of 1935." The new screen attraction will be "King Solomon's Dancin'" with Edmund Lowe. As a special added attraction there will be another Reese Prologue, "The Spirit of Christmas." On Saturday morning of this week the Capitol will offer a special all-cartoon show starting at 10 o'clock.

'Remember Last Night' Gripping Murder Film. Mysterious murders in Long Island's fast social set provide the background for "Remember Last Night" the weird drama now playing at the Paramount theater. The sumptuous setting of Long Island's millionaire families swiftly changes into a maelstrom of death, suspicion and fear as the photograph progresses.

Stiffly chosen for the cast are Edward Arnold, Constance Cummings, Sally Eilers, Robert Young, Robert Armstrong, Reginald Denny, Gregory Ratoff and a dozen other famous players.

The hanover from a gay party of three wealthy couples and a prominent bachelor is the discovery next morning that one of the party has been murdered. No one is able clearly to "remember last night" and suspicion and fear assail the survivors as unaccountable things happen and keep on happening.

Gustav Von Seyffertitz does his part as a hypnotist to make your hair stand on end, while Edward Arnold, the actor, actor, and Edward Brophy, his assistant, plunge into the maze of events in an effort to clear up the case.

The mansions, roadhouses, estates, yachts and racing cars of Long Island's millionaire colony keep the photograph moving with excitement and suspense. Appropriate short features, "The Spirit of Christmas" and "The Spirit of Christmas" add to the thoroughly entertaining feature picture.

WARD HEADS CLUB Trade and Travel Club Names New Officers. Atlanta Foreign Trade and Travel Club held its annual meeting at a luncheon yesterday and elected officers for the ensuing year.

Walter Ward was elected president; George H. Morgan, first vice president; Gus Ascher, second vice president; Thomas N. Morgan, secretary, and Henri H. Morgan, treasurer.

Maid of Honor May Be Next Bride To Tread the Orange Blossom Trail

By Sally Forth.

IF PREDICTIONS come true, Mary Lee Kilhou may be the next bride to tread the orange-blossom trail. She caught the exquisite valley lily bouquet Mrs. John F. Glenn tossed in the direction of her bridesmaids Wednesday evening at the Driving Club. Mary Lee, who lives in Great Neck, L. I., was maid of honor at the Alston-Glenn marriage, which was solemnized in St. Luke's church.

The former Anne Alston and Mary Lee were roommates at Ogontz school in Pennsylvania and are devoted friends. The toast to the bride and groom was a gem of a speech made by Robert C. Alston, the bride's uncle, who proposed long life and happiness to the newlyweds in the most pleasing language.

These belles were at Sweetbriar College at Lynchburg, Va., together for several years, and Callie has often visited her brother, John Furniss, in Atlanta. She and Becky will be the central figures at many informal social affairs during her visit.

When beautiful Elkin Goddard, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Goddard, returned from Finch school in New

Junior Chamber Entertains Today

The annual Christmas party given by the Junior Chamber of Commerce for representatives of Atlanta's three newspapers and for the newly-elected officers of the Junior Chamber is scheduled for this evening, the affair to be given at the East Lake Country Club. Decorations appropriate of the Christmas season will prevail in the ballroom where dinner will be served, after which the guests will enjoy dancing. Everett G. Jackson, retiring president of the Junior Chamber, will preside and introduce the new officers and other honor guests.

The committee making plans for the affair are Herbert Hayes, chairman, and Robert Schilling, Roy Hall, Austin Abbott, Vernon Brown, Frank Richards, E. H. Elrod, Ed Thornton, Leon Carter, Everett Jackson, S. Russell Bridges Jr., George B. Yancey, John Weems, Jake Couch, Dade Kelley and Randy Edmondson.

Atlanta friends of Mrs. Harvey Nathaniel Davis, the former Miss Helen Clark Miller, read with interest of her recent address made in New York to the Woman's Auxiliary to the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. The group held a three-day session in the metropolis and Mrs. Davis was one of the principal speakers. She spoke on the topic, "The Work of Women With the League of Nations," with which she is thoroughly familiar and with which she has had wide experience.

Before her marriage to the renowned Dr. Davis, president of Stevens Institute of Technology at Hoboken, N. J., the former Miss Miller frequently visited her cousin, Mrs. Newton Craig, here. Her charm of manner and brilliant mental attainments won for her many friends in Atlanta's cultural circles. Included in this group are members of the Atlanta Overseas League, many of whom knew the former Miss Miller in France during the World War.

She was a distinguished figure during those days, rendering valiant patriotic services as organizer and director of the Training School for Women War Workers in Paris. Other Atlanta friends interested in Mrs. Davis are those who were enrolled at the Spence school in New York when the former Helen Miller was the headmistress at this fashionable institution.

SOCIETY EVENTS

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Spalding entertain at a dinner-dance at the Piedmont Driving Club formally presenting to society their debutante daughter, Miss Eleanor Spalding.

Mrs. M. L. Hudson gives a buffet supper honoring Miss Churchill Houston and her fiancé, Hendrik Reynolds Hudson, and the members of the bridal party following the rehearsal.

Mrs. Philip L'Engle and Miss Elizabeth L'Engle entertain at a luncheon honoring Miss Virginia Merry and Judy Beers, debutantes.

Mrs. William Davies Owens gives a tea honoring Misses Mary Hurt, Marjorie Carmichael, Judy Beers and Ellen Fleming, debutantes, and Mrs. Edward Wright and Mrs. H. W. Beers Jr., recent brides.

Miss Eleanor Clay entertains at an open house at her home on Fifteenth street.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce entertains at its annual inaugural dinner-dance at East Lake Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brooke entertain at a Christmas party honoring Miss Sarah Branan and her fiancé, C. M. Johnson.

Mrs. Florence Golsin Bateman will be honored at an informal tea by the Atlanta branch of National League of American Pen Women at the home of Mrs. Fritz Jones, president of the Atlanta Pen Women.

Pai Chapter of Sigma Pi fraternity of Emory University and Atlanta Alumni Club entertain at the annual Christmas dance at the Druid Hills Golf Club.

A Christmas carnival will be presented at the Lovett school, beginning at 10:45 o'clock.

Mrs. J. H. Crousette entertains at tea at her home on Peachtree road from 4 until 6 o'clock, honoring the Young Woman's Auxiliary of the Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist church.

Mrs. William J. Cordes entertains at tea at her home on Habersham road in honor of her grandmother, Mrs. H. S. Cordes, of Decatur, who celebrates her eightieth birthday.

Druid Hills Baptist T. E. L. Class will hold its annual Christmas party in the T. E. L. room of the church.

Mrs. C. L. Chosewood Sr. entertains Grant Peak Women's Club members at the meeting and Christmas party at her home at 700 Confederate avenue, S. E., at 11 o'clock.

The Adair Park Garden Club gives a Christmas party at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. T. C. Laird, 662 Maryland avenue, S. W., Mrs. W. E. Vaughn will be co-hostess.

Ben Hill P. T. A. sponsors a Christmas tree for children of Ben Hill school at 12:30 o'clock.

North Fulton High P. T. A. presents a "white gift" program given at 8:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The Commercial High School Athletic Association will be host to the 1935 football squad at the fifth annual football dance at the Shrine mosque.

Ladies' Auxiliary to the International Union of United Automobile Workers of America, Local No. 34, will have a combined Christmas party at the Labor Temple at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. H. M. Pennington's circle of St. John Methodist church will be entertained at a Christmas social meeting at the home of Mrs. Pennington, 810 Pulliam street, S. W., at 2:30 o'clock.

A piano recital will be presented at 8 o'clock at Oakland City Baptist church.

Members of the Amoma Class of Baptist Tabernacle will have their annual party at the church at 7 o'clock.

The Beta Iota Chapter of the A. T. O. fraternity gives a dance at the chapter house on North avenue.

Presbyterian Choir To Present Cantatas.

One of the loveliest arrangements of Christmas carols to be sung in Atlanta this year will be heard when the Clifton Road Presbyterian choir, under the direction of Miss Rosa Croft, presents the cantata, "Chimes of the Holy Night," at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The decorations will be supervised by an experienced stage director and will carry out the idea of holy Christmas adoration. The public is invited to attend.

To Install Officers.

Clara Henrich Memorial Chapter No. 263, O. E. S., will install officers this evening after a short business session and initiation. Mrs. Marcia Jewett, worthy grand matron, O. E. S., of Georgia, will act as grand installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Grace Bramblett as grand marshal; Mrs. Moore as grand chaplain, and Mrs. Lou Ella Simpson as grand organist.

The officers to be installed are Mrs. Irene Brooks, worthy matron; Alex Cumming, worthy patron; Mrs. Louise Garner, associate matron; Grover Howell, associate patron; Mrs. Corrie Youmans, conductress; Mrs. Barbara Howell, associate conductress; Mrs. Esther Thomas, secretary; Mrs. Barbara Cumming, treasurer; Mrs. Cora Blackwood, chaplain; Mrs. Mary J. Jones, marshal; Mrs. Ella Tyler, Adah; Mrs. Iva Altheiser, Ruth; Mrs. May Darline, Esther; Mrs. Irene Williams, Martha; Miss Ann Norton, Electa; Mrs. McMillan, warder, and Neil McMillan, sentinel.

Miss Emily Mathews Weds Dr. Schurmer In Phoenix, Arizona

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 19.—The marriage of Miss Emily Scott Mathews of Atlanta, and Dr. Robert Wagner Schurmer, of Los Angeles, Cal., was quietly solemnized here today in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Howard Mathews, and she was lovely in a green crepe gown with matching jacket. The dress was fashioned with a becoming V neck, and broad lapels added to the effective appearance of the jacket. She wore a cluster of orchids upon her shoulder. Atlanta attending the wedding were the bride's aunt, Miss Emma Scott, her brother, Howard Mathews, a cousin, Miss Josephine Scott, Miss Kathleen Colby, and Miss Annie Mac Sharp. Dr. and Mrs. Schurmer will return from a trip to Palm Springs and Lake Arrowhead, Ariz., in time to be at home in Los Angeles, Cal., on Christmas Eve.

Fontbonne Students Return for Holidays.

Misses Doreen McMahon, Virginia Smith, Elizabeth Harrison, Katherine Flynn and Virginia Mackay arrived yesterday to spend the holidays with their parents. All are students at Fontbonne College, a four-year institution conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet.

Miss McMahon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McMahon, is a senior, and Miss Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Smith, is a sophomore. Miss Virginia Mackay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Mackay, are freshmen.

WOMEN'S MEETINGS

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20.

Kate Pendleton Dawson Goodwill Center board meets at 10:30 o'clock at the Goodwill Center.

Fifth District Georgia State Nurses' Association meets at 2:30 o'clock in the Georgian ballroom of the Henry Grady hotel.

The Kennesaw Home and Garden Club meets at the home of Mrs. T. J. Blanton, 511 North avenue, at 2 o'clock.

Executive board of the W. M. S. of the Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist church meets at 10:30 o'clock at the church.

Druid Hills High School P. T. A. meets at 11:30 o'clock at the school building.

Clara Henrich Memorial Chapter No. 263, O. E. S., meets in Greenfield lodge on Moreland avenue.

Inman Chapter No. 112, O. E. S., will hold installation of officers this evening at 7 o'clock at the Masonic temple in Inman yards.

John M. Harrison, is president of the sophomore class. Miss Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Flynn, and Miss Mackay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Mackay, are freshmen.

Tau Delta Theta Sorority To Give Christmas Dance

Tau Delta Theta Sorority gives its Christmas dance this evening at the home of Miss Carolyn Du Vall, 905 Cascade avenue. Officers are: President, Miss Dorothy Lamb; vice president, Miss Grace Graham; secretary, Miss Betty Sewell.

Members are Misses Mary Alderman, Betty Alderman, Elvira Chosewood, Carolyn Du Vall, Grace Graham, Jane Knapp, Mary Frances Keys, Dorothy Lamb, June Moore, Dorothy Reese, Betty Sewell, Margaret Spratt, Caroline Sutter, Margaret Sims, Emma Jean Townley and Janelle Willoughby.

Others invited are Ellett Bond, Martha Doughman, Dolly Phillips, Mary Alice Haynes, Jean Thomas, Louise Meiere, Katharine Parks, Olivia Du Vall and Dot Tournay.

Young men invited are Joe Carter, Ed Ewing, Charles Adams, Garland Childrey, Guy McClure Jr., Dan Lambert, James McClure, Chic Williams, Richard Haynes, Horace Baker, Mayo Jones, Bud Clark, Jack Simmons, Jack Pickard, Joe Redwine, Charles Sutter, Ed Kneisel, Bill Schottman, Harold Dye, Newman Lozier, Tommy Baker, Howard Chaffee and George Tinsinger.

Chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sutter and Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Du Vall.

Meeting Postponed. Due to the rush of Christmas holiday season, there will be no meeting of Travelers' Aid Society today.

Bledsoe-Turner. McDONOUGH, Ga., Dec. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bledsoe, well-known citizens of Henry county, announce the marriage of their daughter, Verna Oree, to Memory George Turner, of Henry county, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Turner. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride Tuesday afternoon by Rev. C. B. Drake, of Social Circle. After a trip to Florida the young couple will reside at Olla, Ga.

Shoppers' Delite!
HOT BARBECUE SANDWICH
15c
Tender juicy meat, served piping hot with the grandest sauce you've ever tasted.
It's Grand! Peps You Up!
HOT CHEMM 10c
LANE
DRUG STORES
Always the Best

Give Him SLIPPERS
The gift you know will be welcomed and used.

Soft Kid Opera with leather sole.
Black, Brown,
Blue or Burgundy
DANIEL GREEN FELTS $1.95
Byck's
203 Peachtree

Get YOUR PHILCO at Sterchi's Today

PHILCO 84B $25.50
Don't Let the Last-Minute Rush Deprive Your Family of This Grandest Gift

Sterchi's still have the complete Philco lineup for your selection. Choose yours immediately. A liberal trade-in allowance for your old set... A convenient budget plan that takes the strain off your pocketbook! Any Philco installed at once or held for GUARANTEED Christmas Eve delivery!

THE 610F $66

A powerful Foreign and American receiver that brings in Europe, South America and world-distant points as clear as a bell! Tunes police, aviation and amateur stations. Sterchi's includes an all-wave aerial at no extra cost!

STERCHI'S
116-120 WHITEHALL ST.—ATLANTA
Open Nights Until Nine!

Christmas is Just Around the Corner ... and So Are Your LANE
DRUG STORES

Give HER PERFUME
Creations of world famous makers!
GUERLAIN CIRO
CARON
COTY LELONG
LENTHERIC
HOUBIGANT HUDNUT
VIGNY
BOURJOIS
Prices range from 50c to $32

GIFT SETS by these famous makers
BOURJOIS DUBARRY
HARRIET HUBBARD
AYER
ELMO GEMEY
PRIMROSE HOUSE
MAX FACTOR
"MARVELOUS" YARDLEY
Priced $1 to $17.50

For HER
MANICURE SETS
LACROSS CUTEX
GLAZO
PEGGY SAGE
Beautifully boxed! Genuine leather! Pigskin! Satin!
Priced 49c to $6

Family GIFT BOX

2 1/2 POUND BOX 89c
Truly Southern Chocolates
Give the whole family a treat! Deliciously flavored chocolate confections with nut, cream, fruit and crispy centers.

Complete---Fresh Stock of Nunnally's Whitman's Candies from 25c box to $1.50 a pound

Candies for every age and every taste! Lightly packaged boxes for children... Chocolates and bonbons that are favorites everywhere.

Crystallized Fruit
Full 18 Ounces 98c
A wonderful assortment of fine Glace fruit. Pineapple, cherries, ginger, kumquats—beautifully packaged for giving.
Chocolate Covered BRAZIL NUTS, lb. 49c
Chocolate Dipped CORDIALIZED CHERRIES, lb. 29c

Give HIM a real SET!
CHEVRON COTY
FITCH
WOODBURY
HOUBIGANT
WILLIAMS COLGATE PROPHYLACTIC
Brush Sets
Prices range 89c up

Gift Sets by Gillette
"ARISTOCRAT" one-pc. RAZOR. Gold-plated with 10 BLUE BLADES.
$3.79
Holiday Box 50 BLUE BLADES $2.45
Set of 100 BLUE BLADES in Bakelite Cigarette Box. $4.90

Electrical Gifts
TOASTERS $1.19 to $11.48
HEATERS $1.09 to $3.19
ELECTRIC IRONS $1.29 to $4.95
TABLE STOVES $1.09 to $2.69
WAFFLE IRONS $3.79 to $4.98
CORN POPPERS $1.29

Smoking Tobacco
Prince Albert
Sir Walter Raleigh or VELVET... pound cans 74c

Union Leader, 14-oz. 59c
Granger, pound. 70c
Briggs, pound. $1.25
ZIPPER TOBACCO
Pouches... 59c up

ASH TRAY SETS... 98c

Cigars--in Gift Boxes
10c Hav-a-Tampa (25's) $2.15
5c Tampa Nuggets (50's) $2.25
5c Cortez Special (25's) $1.15
5c Cuesta Rey (20's) $1
10c Admiration (25's) $2.15
5c Portina (25's) $1.15
Ronson Lighters formerly $2.49 500

Husbands of Alabama Club Members Are Honored by Mr. and Mrs. Ashcraft

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ashcraft entertained at a buffet supper last Tuesday at their Ponce de Leon residence in honor of the husbands of members of the Alabama Club. The party was arranged in order that the husbands may become better acquainted, and they were called upon to assist their wives in packing the Christmas boxes filled with layettes for babies in the maternity ward at Grady hospital.

Twice yearly members of the club donate exquisitely made layettes to needy children at Grady hospital, having as their special charity the maternity ward at Grady. Mrs. F. O. Walsh is president of the Alabama Club, which is composed of a prominent group of Alabama-born Atlantans. Members saw at each meeting and make the garments for the layettes.

A musical program was featured for the entertainment of the guests, and the house was beautified with flowers and plants. The hosts were assisted in entertaining by Mr. and Mrs. Claude McGinnis Jr. Honor guests were F. O. Walsh, Lee Ashcraft, Forrest Fisher, Frederick W. Patterson, W. E. Mathews, Judge Price Gilbert, S. F. Boykin, Walter Bardwell, Richard Locke, W. D. Thompson and others.

Battle Hill Patients To Be Remembered.

Members of Mrs. Alonzo Richardson's Sunday school class will give its annual Christmas tree for the children of Battle Hill sanitarium Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the institution. Hugh Howell, who has acted the role of Santa Claus for the little tubercular patients at Battle Hill for several years, will again be present and will present gifts, fruits and toys to the children. He will be assisted by members of the class and Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Gussie B. Ivey, chairman for the yearly Christmas party given at Battle Hill.

Miss Betty Gregg Is Honor Guest At Party Series

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Wardlaw were hosts last evening at a novel party at their country home, The Shack, on the Dunwoody road. The affair was given in compliment to Miss Betty Gregg, who arrived a few days ago from New York, with her mother, Mrs. Robert Gregg, to spend the holidays here. The guests included 24 close friends of the honor guest who assembled at The Shack in the early evening for a steak fry. Supper was served indoors where the rooms were attractively decorated with Christmas greens and where a huge log fire burned in the rock fireplace.

Myriads of white Christmas trees added a gay note to the decorations and the distribution of gifts and souvenirs added to the merriment of the occasion. After supper, the guests, who were attired in sports costumes, enjoyed a possum hunt in the nearby woods. They returned to the home for an old-fashioned conchucking which they enjoyed around a huge bonfire. Mr. and Mrs. Wardlaw were assisted in entertaining the youthful guests by the honor guest's mother, Mrs. Gregg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wardlaw will give a similar party at The Shack on Saturday evening in compliment to Miss Frances Sprattin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sprattin, who has returned from the National Cathedral school in Washington for the holiday vacation.

Miss Gregg was honored yesterday at the informal luncheon given by Miss Christine Thiesen at her home on Inman circle. The holiday motif was used on the luncheon table.

Hapeville Club To Sponsor Tree.

Hapeville Woman's Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Thomas Lang. A short business session was directed by Mrs. J. L. Fulghum, president. The club voted to sponsor a community Christmas tree. Mrs. Eugene King and Mrs. Emil Schenck accepted the chairmanship of this project. A donation of $10 was given to local relief. The treasurer was also authorized to send a contribution to Hospital 48 for Christmas decorations.

Mrs. Chester Martin, chairman of the garden division, reported that the club had recently been given national publicity in the Garden Club Exchange for its work in beautifying two city parks. One thousand dogwood seeds have been sold by the division. The club voted unanimously to enter a float in the dogwood festival next spring, and also to co-operate with the garden division of the fifth district, Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, in sponsoring one. Mrs. Walter Kinsman was appointed to serve as hostess at the Garden Center Saturday.

Dancing Party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Higgs will be hosts at a dancing party on December 24 at their home on Clifton road in honor of their son, Cawell, from 7 to 10:30 o'clock. Seventy-five members of the school set have been invited.

To Make Debut in Savannah

Miss Charters Smith, lovely young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney O. Smith, of Gainesville, who will be presented to members of Savannah society at a brilliant dance to be given by her cousin, Mrs. Olaf Otto, this evening in the gold room of the DeSoto hotel. Miss Smith, who is a popular student at the University of Georgia, is spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Otto. She formerly attended Brenau College and is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Photo by Ellison studio.

NANCY PAGE

By FLORENCE La GANKE.

When Nancy was a little girl her mother had insisted that the cook, who was something of a martinet in the kitchen, allow Nancy to help make Christmas cookies. Mrs. Lee believed that children should have an opportunity to build up a memory of customs that were traditional in the family. She herself, remembered the birthday customs, the traditional Christmas tree decorations that were used in her own family year after year. Things like that make home and family mean more when children are grown up.

Nancy was making it easy for Joan and Peter, and even little Susan, to build up like traditions. So into the kitchen went Nancy and the children one Sunday afternoon. They planned to make hazel nut macaroons and ginger bread men. After the ginger bread dough was mixed each one of the children was given a lump and enough. Add 3-4 cup molasses and 1-4 cup brown sugar. Add one egg well beaten. Sift, measure, and sift 3 cups flour with 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ginger, 3 teaspoons tartaric baking powder. Add to the first mixture. Mix well. Chill thoroughly. Flour a board lightly, roll and cut dough in shapes, or shape small pieces by rolling in the hand. These make excellent legs and arms, and a round ball makes a head. Whole cloves stuck in before baking make buttons.

Friendly Counsel

By CAROLINE CHATFIELD.
Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

The Rev. Mr. Hagedorn, a Lutheran minister of Philadelphia, like all conscientious clergymen, feels a responsibility for the marital felicity of the couples he has joined in holy wedlock. He gathered a group of them together and undertook to tell them what causes trouble between husbands and wives. He brought eight charges against the women and eight against the men. Ladies first.

Women, according to this spiritual diagnostician, are possessive, argumentative, touchy, humorless, given to whining, expert at crepe hanging, inclined to regulate their husbands and inclined to keep abreast of the times. From the woman's viewpoint these charges are just, with one notable exception: Women are not without humor but the feminine brand of humor is as different from the masculine brand as feminine hands and masculine hands are different. Such humor as a woman has descends her when she is at war with her man. Long ago Lord Byron told us why: "Man's love is of man's life apart; 'Tis woman's whole existence."

When her very existence is threatened, or when she fancies it is, she can't see the humor in any situation or laugh at any joke. The mighty males, funny boys that they are, aren't given to jesting on their death beds nor has anybody ever heard of one of them being very humorous when he thought he was drowning. On the contrary, his mind whirled around at a great rate on all the serious business of life and death.

Yes, "Women expect too much out of their relationships with the men." They are far too romantic for the prosaic business of living. But where is the cure for their congenital weaknesses? How are their crimes against the men to be atoned? The weakness can't be cured, but the crime atoned until love comes to be a side-line with women, until nature no longer calls them to build and sit on the nest, rear the babies, rear the young and cling like grim death to the men who are partners in this main business of their lives.

The smarties said: "When women are economically independent they will show the men a thing or two." But the smarties were wrong. The smarties said "When women are educated and have something to think about besides their relationship to the men they will use their heads and be far less emotional." But the smarties were wrong again. The seat of feminine folly is in the heart, not in the head or in the pocketbook. Education and features of the face. Bake in a 375 degree oven for 10 minutes.

For the macaroons Nancy used this recipe: 1-4 pound almonds are blanched and grated, 1 pound shelled filberts are toasted in a medium oven until the thin skin loosens. This is then removed. These nuts are grated and added with the almonds to 3 pound confectioner's sugar and 4 unbeaten egg whites. Mix well, shape in small balls, or force through a cookie press, or put a little in paper candy cups, decorating the top with cherry and sliced pistachio nuts. Bake in medium heat to a delicate brown. When baked, insert a slender strip of angelica curved to make a handle.

Other recipes are in a leaflet called "Teatime Goodies." Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Nancy Page, care of The Atlanta Constitution. (Copyright, 1935, for The Constitution.)

Chanukah Celebration Is Set for Sunday.

The Congregation Shearith Israel will present the Shearith Israel Sunday school in a Chanukah celebration Sunday evening. The program will be presented under the supervision of Samuel Geffen, who is in charge of the Sunday school. Included on the program will be the blessing over the candles, which will be rendered by Meyer Sloan; a novel Chanukah presentation, which will feature Simon Glustrom; a candle drill by the younger pupils, a Chanukah tableaux and poems, recitations and songs by Sunday school pupils.

Those taking part in the program are Harold Goldwasser, Mickey Greenberg, Irene Luck, Esther Sloan, Flora Reback, Frances Fitterman, Rebekah Epstein, Rebekah Zimmerman, Goldie Goucher, Aaron Epstein, Adelle Goldwasser, Beady Kaplan, Betty Kaplan, Simon Glustrom, Arthur Kaplan, Frank Berkowitz, Ida Sloan, Myron Randman, Meyer Sloan, Patsey Joffe, Charlotte Silverman, Annette Zimmerman, Shirley Pinsky, Frances Fried, Evelyn Tondrich. The program was presented by the following members of the faculty: Misses Bertha Fisher, Lottie Goucher, Rosalie Hirsch and Annette Tondrich. There will be no admission charge. The program will take place in the main auditorium of the synagogue, 500 Washington street, S. W., at 7:30 o'clock.

Foolishly enough she is looking to that man she loves for happiness and she, who doesn't get it, she howls like a hurt animal. She may hold her tongue, swallow her tears, smile bravely occasionally, but the guard comes down and the husband knows it is only an act she has put on. She remains the same old troublesome female, full of foibles; possessive, demanding, touchy, fearful, expecting far too much from her relationship with that husband—but eager to give as much as she demands.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

(Tomorrow Masculine Weakness.)

Lillian Mae Patterns

PERK UP WARDROBE—KEEP DOWN BUDGET WITH VERSATILE "TWO-PIECER."

Pattern 2551. This gay two-piece is a grand pick-me-up for wardrobes that have been on the go since early autumn—something new, and young, and oh, so practical to take you—or you—into the new year! Home, business or school girl—all will adore the versatility that lets you wear the bewitching blouse with an extra skirt—the pencil-slim skirt with a sweater or leather jacket. Tuck a gay scarf in at the throat one day—wear one of your dozen bows of different colors the next. It's easy to make, too, just simple cutting and stitching, with your Lillian Mae instructor to guide you. Gay alpaca, wool crepe or synthetic would be ever so practical! Pattern 2551 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40. Size 16 takes 4-1/4 yards 39-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included. Send 15 cents in coins for this Lillian Mae pattern. Do not send stamps. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Don't wait! Send now for the winter pattern book! You need all the advice Lillian Mae gives you on keeping the family thrifty and attractively dressed. You need to know more about clothes etiquette, more about fabrics and fashions, more about glorifying your type! Price of book 15 cents.

Address orders to Lillian Mae Pattern Department, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

10c to $1.25
Novels For All
29c to $5.00

ATLANTA BOOK SHOP, INC.
129 CARRIEWAY

PERFUME

Choose from these Gorgeous Creations
TODAY ★ ★ ★

Bourjois
Flamme	$7.50
Evening in Paris	$1.10 to $10.00
Barbara Gould
$30, $7.75, $5.50, $3.75. Other odors $1.25 up
Houbigant
Presence	$16.50
Other Odors	$1.10 to $6.25
Hadnut
Vogue	$3.75, $8.50, $12.50
Other Odors	$1.10 to $5.00
Guerlain
Vol De Nuit $10.00, $20.00	L'Heure Bleue $6.50, $19.00
Shalimar $16.00, $32.00	Jicky $7.00
Pois-de Senteur $7.00	Sous Le Vent $10.00, $20.00
Liu $19.00
Chanel
No. 5 $2.25, $5.50, $10.00, $15.00
No. 22 $2.25, $5.50, $10.00, $15.00
Gardenia $2.25, $5.50, $10.00, $15.00
Jasmin $2.25, $5.50, $10.00, $15.00
Ivoire $5.50, $9.50
Other Odors $2.25 to $15.00
Viovy
Heure Intime $3.00, $5.00, $7.00, $12.50
Coty
A-Suma $6.00, $10.00, $35	Jasmin $5.00
L'Fougere $10.00	Lorigan $5.00
Other Odors $1.00 up
Ciro's
Reflexions $12.00, $18.00 and $32.50
Surrender $10.50, $18.00 and $32.00
Gardenia Sauvage $4.50 and $11.50
Doux Jasmin $3.50, $4.50, $6.25, $9.50
Others $1.50 up
Corday
Jasmin $3.75
Quand $1.65 to $4.95
Voyage A Paris $15.00
Toujours Moi $2.25, $5.00 and $9.25

OUR PERSONAL SHOPPING SERVICE

Call on Mrs. Ray Wiggins and Mrs. Sara Grant, who have had more than 20 years' combined experience in helping select for discriminating givers.

Use Your Charge Account

Miner & Carter
DRUGGIST
WA. 4900 Peachtree at Ellis Street

Things That Make Women More Beautiful

(Posed by Carole Lombard.)

A Cuticle Cream That Is

Fragrant and Effective

By MIGNON.
"It looks like jelly, smells like rose geranium and is immediately absorbed by the skin." That is the description of the cuticle cream which is now being hurried over counters throughout the country—to enthusiastic woman buyers. The rules are, don't cut the cuticle. But you have to or have your fingers look all rough and scraggly at the ends, and this is the day of good grooming for women. There was a time, long ago, when if the nails were clean that was enough. Not today!

Say what you like about the colored liquid polishes, some like them and some don't, but everybody likes the quick effect and the beauty of the shine of them. They like them best because this is the day of hurry, and no woman wants to work too long over her nails. The minute the highly colored polishes, no matter how horrible the color, came into fashion, women began to take better care of their nails. They had to. Nothing could possibly look worse than nails colored to attract attention and then imperfectly

HANAN is at home to Christmas!

For gifts that bespeak distinction in giving and pleasure in receiving, the smart world turns to HANAN. There are gifts in variety and our list below is but a reminder of a few that are perennially popular with the many who make Hanan Gifts a happy habit!

For Her Delight!

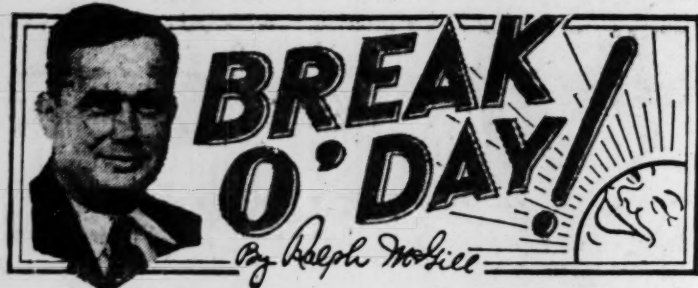

Handbags, tailored to smart perfection, of fine leathers and materials. For street and evening $2.95 and $4.95

And for Him—Hanan is ready with all the typically masculine gifts, such as hose and spats, slippers and shoes, correct in design, faultless in taste. Or, when in doubt, a Hanan Gift Certificate is always welcome.

HANAN

NEW YORK • PARIS • NICE • LONDON
170 PEACHTREE ST., N. W.

War Department Bans Football Coaching by Army Officers

Army officers, according to a War Department order received by the various corps areas this week, will not be permitted in the future to act as football coaches at any civilian institution.

The actual wording of the order concerning football coaches reads: "Specifically, no officers in the future will act as football coaches at any institution."

For some months The Constitution has led a lone campaign for this ruling by the War Department.

There were at least two very good reasons for it.

In the first place army officers with a football coaching job were drawing a salary from public funds and at the same time drawing a salary from the institution which otherwise would go to a football coach who had no other profession. In other words the taxpayers of the United States were supporting a man for the specific purpose of imparting military training to the students at the institution to which he was assigned. And he was, while taking this pay, earning another salary for coaching and depriving a coach of a chance to practice his profession.

In the second place an army man coaching detracted from the dignity of his own profession, lowered the morale and respect of his brother officers for their profession and often subjected himself, as an army officer, to public criticism and abuse.

The spectacle of, for instance, Captain Biff Jones brawling publicly with the late Senator Huey Long, did not add to the dignity of his profession.

They brawled about football. And while there was great public sympathy for Biff Jones and a great cheering for him because he ejected the late Senator Long from the L. S. U. football dressing room, it was not good publicity for the army.

Politics had got into the situation and an officer often was retained at an institution far beyond his normal tenure of service there because of this political influence.

This did not make his brother officers, who had not taken a football course at West Point, feel any too good as they got along on their army pay and watched the coach draw his army pay plus a large salary contributed by the university. It certainly did not improve his morale.

It was not at all proper. In depriving army officers of coaching jobs they are not harmed in any manner at all.

Their jobs will be taken by taxpaying football coaches who have no other profession.

IT WOULD HAVE BEEN EMBARRASSING.

It should be noted that army officers are not to be banned from non-military activity in the institutions to which they may be assigned. But any request for such activity must be submitted to the corps area head who will pass upon it.

But, football coaching is specifically banned "at any institution." The order seems to be very clear on this matter.

This is perhaps better after all. The officers are assigned to the institutions to teach the young idea how to defend his country. This consisted of teaching him to drill, to load his rifle and to do the manual of arms without popping himself in the head with his rifle.

It would have been most embarrassing, in time of war, to have one of our young soldiers to complain he did not know how to load his rifle because his army instructor had been too busy coaching the football team to teach him how.

This would have caused more brickbats to be tossed at the game. And it has enough of them now.

It is the first instance on record where a man is deprived of a job and no harm done. The taxpayers provide the army officer with a permanent job. And even continue to pay him when he is retired.

But the football coaching jobs are few enough. And coaches should fill them. The army man keeps his army job and the football coach gets a job.

THAT'S FAIR ENOUGH.

SHAUGHNESSY'S HALFBACKS.

Clark Shaughnessy, up at Chicago, thinks he has had the three best left halfbacks of the last decade. In an interview he said:

"I think I've had the three best left halfbacks of the last 10 years—Peggy Flournoy, at Tulane; Marchmont Schwartz,

Continued on Second Sports Page.

SPORTS

RALPH MCGILL, Sports Editor.

Grantland Rice - Jack Troy - Melvin Pazol - Roy White - Thad Holt - Eddie Neil - Alan J. Gould

THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1935.

PAGE TWENTY-ONE

PETRELS DROP SECOND CLASH TO MAROONS

Mississippi State Sweeps Two-Game Set With 47-26 Victory.

STATE COLLEGE, Miss., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Mississippi State made a clean sweep of the two-game series with Oglethorpe University, winning the final game here tonight, 47-26.

The Maroons, paced by Orville Stone and Fred Walters, got away to a quick lead, but the Petrels, starting the second period with a rush, pulled within four points before the States got going.

Oglethorpe's center, Dean, and Kumbie, guard, each accounted for eight points, and it was the deadly shooting of this pair that made the Maroons extend themselves to move away from a slim lead.

Although a total of 11 substitutes was used the scoring for both teams was confined to the starting players.

THE LINEUP AND SUMMARY.

MISS. ST. (47)	OGLETHORPE (26)
Walters, f. 18	Copeland, f. 8
Galloway, f. 4	Sullivan, f. 3
Stone, c. 17	Dean, c. 8
Pillay, g. 1	Kumbie, g. 8
Armstrong, g. 0	Farmar, g. 4
Brumfield, f. 0	Faulkner, g. 0
Bomer, f. 0	Mosley, g. 0
Barkley, c. 0	Moore, g. 0
Ward, g. 0	Dorle, f. 0
Fittman, g. 0	Fisher, g. 0
Archer, f. 0
Total	Total
Referee, Jenkins (Miss. College).

Bill Bonthron Won't Race This Fall

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Although the twin shall not meet this winter, America's arch-rival miler, Glenn Cunningham and Bill Bonthron, are pouncing the boards again. He plans to campaign again this winter over the indoor circuit in preparation for a bid for a place on the American Olympic track team. He already has reported to Bill Hargis, his old coach at the University of Kansas.

Bonthron has decided to pass up competition this winter but likewise has his eye on the Olympics. He's working out three nights a week at the New York Athletic Club.

"Maybe Reggie McNamara and I have something in common with regard to announcing our retirements," Bonthron smiled. "I thought I might hang up my spikes for all time after last summer but the urge to continue is irresistible."

Track fans won't see him this winter but they'll get many an eyeful of the black-haired, barrel-chested Princeton alumnus when the outdoor season starts.

GARNER INACTIVE.

Mack Garner, one of the few members of the old school of jockeys still active, plans to spend the winter at Miami, Fla. Mack, who piloted Cavalcade in all his brilliant three-year-old exploits two years ago, has seen very little action this year.

The Last Army Grid Coach

The War Department's order banning army officers as football coaches came a year too late to remove Major Ralph Sasse from his grid duties at Mississippi State. Since Sasse, along with Captain Biff Jones, of Oklahoma U., was the last appointed military coach, he will be allowed to continue as Maroon mentor. And this morning the state of Mississippi and Starkville in particular, breathes a sigh of relief. Sasse led Mississippi State out of the football wilderness last season.

U.S.L. T.A. Must Give 'Bitsy' Fair Cup Trial

Atlantan's Great Showing Can't Be Denied in View of British Rout.

By Jack Troy.

A noted eastern tennis writer, whose pet, red-headed Donald Budge, of California, was blasted off the courts by our Bryan Grant in the national tennis championship last September, is now trying to explain that defeat and declaring that Budge should rate every consideration over Grant for the Davis cup team next spring.

Just why it is that this writer should haul out his pet animosity in the midst of winter's icy blasts, when thoughts of tennis are entertained only by tennis players, is not very clear. For that matter, his argument as to why Grant's four-set victory over Budge was not convincing, is not very clear either.

Admitting that it is a bit early to be writing about such things, Danzig says, "It is the guess of this corner that Wilmer Allison will be nominated in singles and either Allison and Van Ryn or Mako and Budge for the doubles. Wilmer Hines and Henry Cully are another tandem possibility.

"Allison's almost perfect tennis in his sensational victory over Perry and his triumph in the final of the national championship has made it inevitable that the fighting Texan will be named.

"Many lost faith in Budge after his defeat by Bryan Grant, but it is well to recall that Vines at one stage in his career was regarded as a flash in the pan and came back to gain world supremacy.

DESERVES RECOGNITION.

"Grant certainly deserves recognition for the tennis he has been playing year after year on both grass and clay, and for his unquenchable fighting spirit, but if it comes to a question of the lanky Californian or the tiny Atlantan, the unhesitating choice of this corner is Budge."

The easterner should not allow prejudice to blot out the facts. Rain halted the Grant-Budge match with Grant leading, 6-4, 6-4, 2-1. The next day Grant, according to the experts, was a bit over-anxious and lost the third set, 5-7. But he raced through the deciding set, 6-3.

The noted tennis writer, putting himself on record as favoring somewhat the same Davis cup combination as last year—one that was ignominiously routed by the English, 5 to 0—perches far out on a limb and sows near the trunk.

"NO PROSPECT."

Fred Perry came over to this country and, speaking of Budge, said, "In my opinion Donald Budge is no national prospect. I do not think he ever will become a great player."

And Fred Perry, a great player, ought to know.

Such booh as nominating Allison for both singles and doubles also is unquestionably stupid. The veteran does not have the stamina for double

Continued on Second Sports Page.

MAVOY, RISCO MEET TONIGHT IN GARDEN BOUT

British Lightweight Faces "Babe" in Ten-Round Feature.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Two champions meet in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night but no title will be at stake.

Jock McAvoy, holder of the British light-heavyweight and middleweight crowns, and Babe Risco, the world's reigning middleweight king, swap punches in the featured 10-round bout.

McAvoy has agreed to come in over the 160-pound class limit so Risco's crown will be safe.

For McAvoy the fight will furnish an opportunity to get a crack either at Risco's title or John Henry Lewis' light-heavyweight crown. Neither title is out of the Englishman's reach on the basis of the fine showing he made against Al McCoy, Boston 175-pounder, in his American debut three weeks ago.

Risco, who acquired his title only three months ago when he outpointed Teddy Yarosz and since has won three non-title events, also would like a chance at Lewis' championship. Jimmy Johnston, Garden promoter, plans to stage one or both of the championship bouts the latter part of January or early in February.

McAvoy, hailed as the greatest fighter to come out of England in recent years, showed plenty of speed and punching ability in stopping McCoy's string of victories. As the result of his fine exhibition, the British has been made the 6-to-5 choice to whip Risco. He was on the short end of 5-2 odds against McCoy.

Supporting them in an event will be three fights, one six and a four-rounder. Frankie Connelly, Boston heavy-weight, is paired with James J. Merriott, of Oklahoma, in one of the eighties. In the other two, John Anderson, Swedish light heavy-weight, battles Bud Mignault, New England 175-pounder, and Solly Krieger, New York, meets Jack Ennis, Asbury Park, New Jersey.

In the six, Sedgwick Harvey, former national amateur lightweight champion, squares off against Jimmy Fantano, New York, while Gordon Donahue, New York, will meet Charlie Eagle, of Waterbury, Conn., in the four-round opener.

BUCKEYE PASSER SHOWS .555 MARK

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Ohio State University cast a speculative glance at digits and decimals today and decided its Stan Pincura was 1935's best forward passer.

No. 1 quarterback, co-champion with the Minnesota of the Big Ten, had a .555 season percentage on completed passes.

Sammy (Slinging Sam) Baugh, of Texas Christian, hailed far and wide as the year's outstanding pigskin hurler, was far ahead of Pincura on pass attempts, but the percentage figures gave the Ohioan an edge.

Pincura threw 67 passes in eight games, 37 of them being completed. Only three were intercepted, while 27 failed to connect. The successful passes gained 530 yards, or an average of 14.3 yards per pass.

Baugh threw 218 passes, 101 being completed, 100 incomplete, and 17 intercepted. His percentage of completed passes was .464.

Baugh's passes gained 1,293 yards, but his average gain was but 12.8 yards, compared to the 14.3 figure reached by the Buck field star.

Baugh's foes caught .078 of his passes, while Pincura held the opposition to an .045 percentage.

Pincura has laid aside his collegiate football togs, being due for graduation in June.

Arkansas Star Averages .565.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Claim of Ohio State University statisticians that Stan Pincura, Buckeye back, was 1935's premier forward pass master in major college circles, drew a sharp challenge today from University of Arkansas record checkers.

The Big Ten records gave Pincura credit for hurling at a .552 percentage clip, completing 37 out of 67 heaves.

Arkansas statisticians replied that Jack Robbins, Razorback quarterback, had the Ohio state signal Barker shaded just under exactly 13 percentage points. Robbins passed 161 times during the recent season and completed 91 tosses for an average of .565.

Sammy (Slinging Sam) Baugh, of Texas Christian University, threw 218 passes and completed 101 for an average of .463.

Northwest Tigers Play Porterdale

The Northwest Tigers, one of the city's outstanding sandlot football teams, will close their schedule at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Porterdale, Ga., against the Porterdale Cobras.

The Tigers have won six, tied one and lost three games this season.

Coach Arrell Nations, who has piloted the Tigers during the past four years, will be with the team for the last time. During his leadership the Tigers have won 34, lost three and tied six games. And it was not until this year that the youngsters have dropped a game under his guidance.

They were undefeated for three straight years and were unscored on in 14 straight games.

Nat Collins has been assisting with the backfield this year.

The Y. M. C. A. has sponsored the Tigers this year and in addition to Nations and Collins, S. M. Waddell and Oscar Brock have been in charge of the youngsters who meet in front of the Y. M. C. A. on Luckie street at 11 o'clock.

'At Any Institution,' Says New Command

Sasse and Jones Last Army Men Who Will Be Permitted To Coach at Civilian Schools.

By Ralph McGill.

Army officers assigned to civilian institutions will not be permitted to act as football coaches in the future.

This important and far-reaching order is released in a general War Department order, dated December 10, and now distributed to all army corps areas.

"Specifically, no officers in the future will act as football coaches at any institution," reads a part of the order which covers the general R. O. T. C. activities of army officers assigned to civilian institutions.

This has been a campaign of The Atlanta Constitution sports and editorial page. It has insisted it was unethical that army officers, drawing army pay from public funds, should take over the football coaching positions at high salaries while continuing to draw salaries paid from taxes.

However, it is learned Major Ralph Sasse, of Mississippi State, and Captain Biff Jones, of University of Oklahoma, the last two appointed military coaches, will be permitted to continue with their present duties as grid leaders.

The complete order contains the provision that in the future no officer may be assigned to any institution which does not have a branch of his service. In other words, an officer of the field artillery could not be assigned to an institution not having an R. O. T. C. field artillery unit. Similarly a cavalry man could not be assigned to an infantry unit and so on.

The order then says any officer taking part in any extra-military activity at the institution may do so only on recommendation which has been approved by the corps area head.

SPECIFIC ORDER. It is the last sentence of the second paragraph of the order which specifically prohibits officers engaging in football coaching.

The complete order, which is a general War Department order, reads: "1. The following policy with reference to officers detailed at senior units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at civilian institutions is announced:

a. In the future no officer will be detailed for duty with a senior unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at an educational institution where no unit of his particular arm or service is maintained.

b. No officer of the regular army detailed for duty at a civilian educational institution will perform any duties other than military which in any way interfere with the military duties or which make it necessary that the burden of his work be assumed by another officer on duty at the institution.

Continued on Second Sports Page.

DODGE

QUITTING BUSINESS Sale

We've Lost Our Lease

And must get out in double-quick time! Prices are cut to the bone in order to create a selling stampede that should dispose of this $40,000 stock of Suits and Overcoats in a hurry! Now is the time to cut loose and buy.

Suits and Overcoats

$13.85

Men

Memory will not help you in attempting to recall a sale of clothing that will outshine this one.

It is doubtful if ever again you will be able to buy such quality at such ridiculously low prices!

We've been in Atlanta for years—so you can buy with confidence! A sale that can't be repeated and can only last a limited time. ACT NOW!

ALTERATIONS FREE!

SUITS AND TOPCOATS

Smartly styled of this season's quality fabrics and snappiest models. This is Dodge's greatest and last sale!

$13.85

You've never seen such values!

DODGE Clothes

56 Peachtree St.

The FESTIVE Gift

RENAULT

Fine Old Vintage WINES

Between friends the gift of fine wine conveys a pleasant holiday greeting. Renault offers for your selection a distinguished line of agreeable vintages . . . true to type, of a quality and bouquet you will be proud to serve, and to give.

RENAULT Sparkling Wines
Extra Dry Champagne
Sparkling Brandy

RENAULT Sweet Wines
Muscatel Tokay Port
Madeira Anjoua Sherry

RENAULT Dry Wines
Claret St. Julien
Bordeaux Burgundy
Chablis Sauternes

ESTABLISHED 1870

Atlanta Distributors:
Dixie Beverage & Bottle Co.
2 N. RENAUD & SONS, INC.
Wholesale, 512 Harbor City, N. Y.
437 Whitehall St., S. W. Phone Walnut 1882

Joe Louis 'Tired' Fight in Havana Postponed Until Feb. 2

Banquet Set Tonight For Boys' High Team

Southern Prep Champions To Be Feted at Winecoff at 7 O'Clock.

By Roy White.

Boys' High's undefeated and untied city, state and southern prep football champions will be honored tonight at 7 o'clock at a banquet at the Winecoff hotel. The football squad will be guests of the Boys' High athletic and alumni associations and preparations are being made to care for more than 150 guests.

All members of the alumni association and friends of the team are invited to be present and can reserve plates for $1 each. All reservations must be made before noon through H. O. Smith, principal, or "Shorty" Doyle, coach and athletic director at the school, Vernon 1401.

Jim Setz, an alumnus, and an officer of the athletic association, will be the toastmaster, with only a few brief talks scheduled. Shorty Doyle and Dwight Keith, the coaches, representatives of the Atlanta newspapers, and several members of the team are the only scheduled talks.

GOLD FOOTBALLS. Following the dinner and brief talks, gold footballs to members of the varsity squad will be awarded by the coaches. The awards will be followed by the election of a captain and alternate for next year.

Shorty Doyle and Keith will outline briefly the plans for next year which will include a six-week spring practice starting in February, and a two-week summer camp at Lake Burton prior to the regular fall practice grind.

Boys' High on Thanksgiving Day completed one of its most successful seasons winning 11 games and extending a winning streak to 25 of the past 26 games played. A tie game in the 1934 season is the only blot on an otherwise perfect record since late in the 1923 season.

Three members of the team, Billy Mims, quarterback; Captain Ben Ehrlich, halfback; and Phil Richards, guard, were named on the official All-Southern prep squad. Several other members of the team were given honorable mention.

DARTMOUTH TROPHY. In winning the state championship for the second successive year, Boys' High won permanent possession of the Dartmouth alumni trophy.

Sweaters were awarded the boys several days ago, when all the uniforms and equipment was turned into the school.

Among the invited guest list are Morgan Blake and Dave Jenkins, of the Journal; Ed Danforth and George Tinsinger, of the Georgian; Ralph McGill and Roy White, of The Constitution; Ben S. Read, an official of the Boys' High Athletic Association; Herbert O. Smith, principal; George Lowman, president of the Alumni Athletic Association; Dr. Frank Boland, president of the alumni association; Dr. Dan Saxe, W. R. Massengale, J. Carlisle Smith Sr., O. B. Keeler and members of the Boys' High faculty.

Treasured Relic To Rest in Case.

Another treasured relic, a black derby, will be placed in the Boys' High trophy case tonight following an annual football banquet at the Winecoff hotel.

The derby, bought two years ago, has been worn by almost every official at Boys' High for one week after the team had won a football game.

George Lowman, president of the Alumni Athletic Association, has been wearing the derby since Boys' High closed its season with a victory Thanksgiving Day over Miami High in Miami. Lowman will wear it tonight to the banquet and it will then be placed in the trophy room.

Another derby will be bought for next year.

Among those who have worn the victory derby during the past two seasons are H. O. Smith, principal; Shorty Doyle, athletic director and coach; Dwight Keith, assistant coach; Dick Butler, backfield coach last year; Claude Bond, the trainer; Bill Orsain, an assistant coach and practice game referee; Dave Johnston, basketball coach and chief supporter of the team; Roy Davis, treasurer of the athletic association, and George Lowman, president of the Alumni Athletic Association.

Mickey Cochrane Will Fish Xmas

SEBRING, Fla., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Mickey Cochrane expects to spend the Christmas holiday season fishing for large mouth bass at Lake Istok, near here. He will be accompanied by his friend, Joe Roberts, federal official. Their headquarters will be Bill Edging's camp.

MONTH OF REST DOCTOR'S ORDER FOR NEGRO ACE

Jacobs Puts Off Bout Despite Threats of Suspension.

HAVANA, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Mike Jacobs, New York boxing promoter, who controls the appearances of Joe Louis, came to Havana today, postponed the Louis-Isidor Gastanaga fight from December 29 to February 2 and left for Miami again, suspended by the Cuban boxing commission.

It took an all-day discussion among Jacobs, Cuban promoters and government officials to reach that rather unsatisfactory conclusion. Jacobs made the visit because reports of political unrest had Louis' managers worried. After settling upon the postponement, however, he said it was because the Brown Bomber from Detroit was tired and had been ordered not to don the gloves again for at least a month.

NOT SATISFACTORY. The decision was far from satisfactory to Rafael Cepeda, president of the Cuban boxing commission, who said that unless the fight went on as scheduled the promoter, Louis and Julian Black, one of the fighter's managers, would be suspended. Cepeda insisted that a working agreement with the New York state athletic commission would make the suspensions effective in New York. The suspensions will remain in effect until Louis reaches Cuba.

The sale of seats was ordered suspended and arrangements were made to refund the money already received on the advance sale. The February 2 date was selected after Joe Jacobs, manager of Max Schmeling, had agreed to waive a clause in the contract for a Schmeling-Louis fight next summer which provided that Louis should not fight between January 31 and the time of that bout. Joe Jacobs accompanied Mike on the visit.

In announcing the postponement Mike Jacobs said:

NEEDS A REST. "Louis needs to have some rest and needs a rest. His manager has been able and telephoned to us saying the boy positively cannot fight December 29. He has had 15 fights in 11 months and his doctor has told him not to put on a glove for at least a month."

Jacobs denied that reports of "political unrest," given by John Roxborough, president of the Cuban Athletic Association, had influenced his decision. He also said the bout would not be shifted to Detroit or some other United States city.

"Gastanaga must fight Louis here in Havana before he gets a chance to fight in the United States," he said.

No Agreement Of Commissions.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Commenting on the threat by the Cuban boxing commission to suspend Promoted Joe Louis goes through with an engagement with Izzy Gastanaga in Havana December 29, Brigadier General John J. Phelan, chairman of the New York state athletic commission, said no agreement, "reciprocal or otherwise," exists between the two commissions.

Even if there was an agreement and Jacobs and Louis were suspended the matter thoroughly before we suspended them here. But to the best of my knowledge there is no agreement."

William and Mary Coach Will Return

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 19.—(AP)—The News-Leader said today it was reliable, informed that Branch Roock will come back to the College of William and Mary as head football coach next fall.

John Kellison and Tommy Dowler who have handled the team for the past five years will be retained, the News-Leader said. Dowler has been head coach during the past season.

Roock, for three seasons coach at William and Mary until his retirement in 1931, turned out some of the finest football teams in all the history of the institution.

Sports officials at Williamsburg declined to confirm or deny the report.

U. S. L. T. A. MUST SUPPORT 'BITSY'

Continued From First Sports Page.

He showed this very plainly at Wimbledon.

The United States Lawn Tennis Association should be pretty well fed up with such combinations. Or maybe the members of that great body like it. Grant defeated every top-ranking player in the nation last year. He won the national clay court championship for a second time and went to the semi-finals in the national grass court championship.

He showed that he had more on the ball than the majority of the so-called stars ranked ahead of him.

Plainly the best thing to do, perhaps not for the best interests of American tennis but for the satisfaction of an expert, is to let the critic go ahead and pick the team.

TEAM IN RUT.

Let him leave Grant off again. United States Davis cup tennis has been in a rut since the days of Tilden and Little Bill Johnston.

Grant has shown himself as leading timber, but what's the use? Budge is a great player. He had his chance against the English and failed. He lost to Grant at Forest Hills.

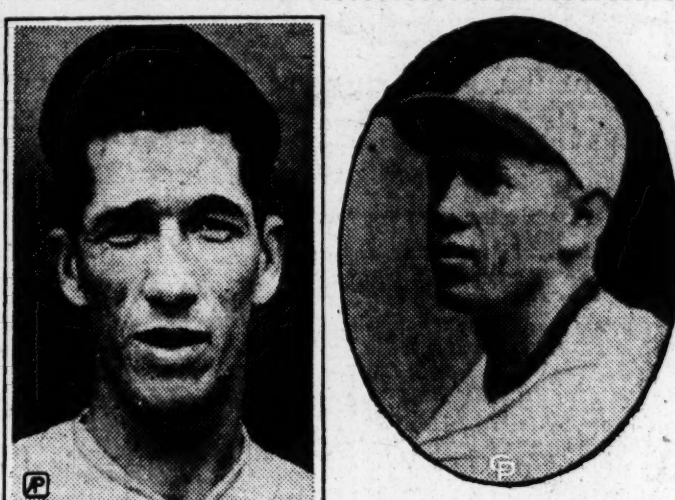

But if it comes to a question of the lanky Californian or the tiny Atlantan, the unhesitating choice of this corner is Budge.

WARRANTS TRYOUT. The U. S. L. T. A. is virtually forced to give Grant a tryout, following his great record of this past season. His spirit and style of play might make a lot of difference to the Davis cup team.

At any rate, any change would be for the better. You can't write off a 5 to 0 defeat. It shows too plainly in the records.

Then you can't write off a conclusive defeat of your favorite, especially when the match was halted and then resumed the following day. It just doesn't make sense.

Who Said 'Washed Up'?

Last year when Lefty Grove's ailing left arm scored only eight victories, and Ted Lyons could win but eleven, opinions were expressed that these two mound veterans were definitely on the down grade. However, 1935 averages disclose Grove won 20 games for the Red Sox, and Lyons pitched the White Sox to 15 triumphs. The real feature, however, about the 1935 work of the lanky southpaw, Grove, shown at the left, and Righthander Lyons at the right, is the fact that they topped the American League in effectiveness. Grove was first, allowing only 2.70 runs per game. Lyons came next with 3.20 runs per nine-inning game.

GEORGIA CENTER ACE OF QUINTET AVERAGE IS TOP

Farren One of Four Vets Who Face Tulane Five Tonight.

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 19.—(AP)—The University of Georgia basketball boys hinge on a rangy sophomore center, the Bulldogs' first in years who is able to mix and mingle with the tall boys.

He is Jack Farren, of Mcon, Ga., whose six feet and four inches have put him on a team otherwise composed of veterans. He will test his first varsity tests in New Orleans against Tulane Friday and Saturday nights and in Baton Rouge against Louisiana State Monday.

Just how this sophomore turns out, that will tell the story of our team, he said. "Most of the other available players are veterans. The starting lineup will have four experienced men in it."

These veterans were good last year. But they were not the best in the country. It would not be reasonable to expect them to be so improved over last season that they are now the Southeastern champions to be.

"And another thing, we cannot hope that Farren will immediately be a sensation. It takes lots of experience to make an outstanding basketball player. Sincerely, though, I think the boy will eventually come through. I also think the whole squad is going to look good."

Coach Enright is expected to start Frank Johnson and Dan Bowden, forwards; Farren at center, and Charlie Arnold and Harry Harman at guards in the opening game against Tulane, Saturday night.

Jimmy Moore and Albert Mazon, forwards, and Olin Thompson, guard, will be the reserves.

Johnson last season was an All-Southeastern and the second highest conference scorer. Bowden has seen much service during the last two seasons. He played center last year. Along came Farren, so Harrell is playing guard. Jarman, a junior, was a good guard in his sophomore year.

The schedule: December 20-21, Tulane at New Orleans; December 23, Louisiana State at Baton Rouge; January 3, Chattanooga at Athens; January 10, Chattanooga at Chattanooga; January 11, Tennessee at Knoxville; January 12, Tennessee at Knoxville; January 13, Tennessee at Athens; February 3, Florida at Athens; February 12, Clemson at Athens; February 15, Auburn at Auburn; February 20, Clemson at Clemson; February 22, Georgia Tech at Athens.

Savannah Boy '36 Spring Hill Captain

MOBILE, Ala., Dec. 19.—(UP)—John Tarantino, Savannah, Ga., was elected captain of the 1936 Spring Hill College football team here tonight at the annual griddon banquet. Mike Donahue Jr., son of the famous coach, was elected alternate captain. Tarantino, a junior, attended Benedictine High school in Savannah. Donahue, also a junior, matriculated at Spring Hill High school.

RACE FINANCING.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 19.—(AP)—The state racing commission found today that the Arkansas Jockey Club, of West Memphis, Ark., was making a "genuine effort" to finance a horse race track and granted additional time for pushing the plans through to completion.

BREAK O' DAY

Continued From First Sports Page.

of Loyola before he went to Notre Dame, and Jay Berwanger, of Chicago."

There may be some argument about his picks. But he had three good ones all right. Peggy Flournoy was awfully good at Tulane. And the others made plenty of headlines at their respective institutions.

SPEAKING OF ASSISTANTS.

That Florida alumnus who was a little bit doubtful about Josh Cody being signed as head coach because he had been an assistant, hadn't been reading his football.

Else he would not have been so dubious about assistants. It so happens Matty Bell, who leads his S. M. U. team to the Rose Bowl, was an assistant coach until Ray Morrison pulled out. Bell put in some new running plays and some new style defense and his team was undefeated.

And Bernie Moore was just an end coach at L. S. U. until Biff Jones and Senator Long had their little row. His L. S. U. team did much better than any team by Biff Jones and will play in the Sugar Bowl game.

In fact, most of the 1935 honors were carried away by coaches who last year were assistants.

ANNOUNCEMENT AT WISCONSIN SLATED SOON

Meanwell Questioned 3d Time; Rumors Say Policies Approved.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Two official groups delivered in the Meanwell-Spears controversy, which has kept the University of Wisconsin campus in turmoil more than a week but a communique of "progress" was the only concrete development.

An announcement by the board of regents stated that the university athletic board would have definite recommendations to make but did not disclose when or what.

The athletic board held a 12-hour session to consider the first-hand information into charges that Dr. Walter J. Meanwell, athletic director, had encouraged circulation of a petition among members of the football squad asking the resignation of his colleague, Dr. Clarence W. Spears, head coach.

The regents during the afternoon called for questioning Dr. Meanwell. Dr. Spears, Johns Hopkins graduate, captain-elect, Ray Hamann, former varsity basketball player; Jack Kellner, and Carlisle Crowell, trackman, and Emmet Tabb, the latter four were reported to be members of Dr. Meanwell's fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Their statement said only, however: "The regents received a report of progress from the athletic board pending recommendations of the conclusion of its investigation. The regents will further question certain members of the athletic staff and others that they may decide to call."

The athletic board which has been investigating the controversy nine days, last night questioned Meanwell for the third time. Rumors that the director's administration was a clean bill of health were unverified. "Golemske, captain-elect of the 1936 football team, precipitated the 1935 season when he said Meanwell instigated circulation of the petition. The director denied the allegation.

On the Courts

Stewart Avenue "B" team defeated the "A" team, 27 to 21, in the feature battle of the A. C. basketball tour Thursday night, showing that the future of the country is in the hands of modern youth, and that the old boys cannot go on forever.

It was an exciting game, the Stewart Avenue team, led by the second year player, the big boys trailed only one point, 12 to 11. The "B's" finished the game with the lead, the others being put out on fouls.

Grace boys won a hard game from Druid Hills, 27 to 24, and the Grace girls led the Don Mills girls for most of the game, finally going down, 16 to 12. Oakland finally downed St. Paul, 32 to 9, while Grant Park took a forfeit from Kraft Phenix.

Down the Alleys

A really close and interesting match for the first half championship of the Atlanta Bowling League is scheduled for this evening, beginning at 7 o'clock in which the Dinosaurs and Penetrators will be opponents.

The Dinosaurs won the first quarter and the Penetrators won the second quarter. The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The teams are well balanced and the outcome should prove to be interesting and exciting. The second half of the match will show that Ben Horne has the high-gam ball, and that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

The match will be bowled on a five-game basis with no handicaps being added to the scores of either team, despite the fact that the league is bowled on a handicap basis.

THE PORTLIGHT

By Krawell Rice

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 19.—"I am taking no credit from any opponent," Tiny Thornhill told me, "but Stanford hasn't been Stanford in any Rose Bowl game so far. This time, the third shot, I hope things will be different. California in the most decisive game of the coast season. They are the greatest bunch of boys you ever saw and they can play football. You won't see many better men than Grayson, Hamilton, Moscrip, Topping, Reynolds, Muller and several others."

"What chance has Moscrip to start or finish?" I asked Thornhill. "I don't know," he said, "and I probably won't know until a few days before the game. You know what a bad knee is. It may come around and it may not. But if we play our game we'll have an even chance. Too many people are judging Stanford on her two Rose Bowl games rather than upon her play through three seasons of hard competition where our record speaks for itself."

While Thornhill didn't care to discuss any phase of his impending task on New Year's Day, there is a little question but that he is banking heavily on these angles—

1. To have his ends rush S. M. U. passing game, hurry it badly, and figure in a few interferences.

2. Throw a hard, fast running attack against S. M. U.'s two ends—Grayson leading—mixed in with short passes and a few interceptions.

This will be the final college game that most of Stanford's veterans will play and they intend to turn on all the juice in stock.

Concerning Bobby Wilson. Bobby Wilson, S. M. U.'s star running back, is one of the most interesting characters in football. He is not only a great ball carrier and a first-class passer and pass receiver, but at 147 pounds he has been one of the iron men of three seasons. He's been tougher than one of his native Mustangs.

Wilson backs ranging from 170 to 190 pounds were being battered up or battered down, held back by injuries, this 147-pound Texan has been ready to hustle for 60 minutes in 12 games for 1935. In addition to raw speed he is also a driving, rugged running type hard to hold.

Bob Leary, Williams, former football officials of the southwest gives another line on Wilson's make up. "The never seen Bob squawk or get sore about anything that ever happened on a football field," Boynton told me. "I'll give you one example. The play was called for an S. M. U. offside. Wilson came back, handed me the ball with a smile, and then in the huddle I could hear him saying: 'Never mind that, fellows. Don't worry about it. We'll get that one back before they know what happened.'"

It has been that way for three years, Boynton said. "He is not only a brilliant football player, offense or defense, but as fine a sportsman as I ever saw."

In the same way, Williams star is now one of the most efficient officials in the game. He has the respect and confidence of every team in his section. They all happen to know he is on top of the job through every play.

The condition of Monk Moscrip, Stanford's crack end, and Harry Shuford, S. M. U.'s best blocking back, may play a big part in the Rose Bowl outcome.

Moscrip's defensive play and his place kicking have been big factors in Stanford's Rose Bowl selection. Topping is a fine end, one of the best, but Moscrip's all-around value has been well above normal.

In the same way, Shuford has played a leading role in S. M. U.'s rise to power. Weighing 192 pounds, Shuford has not only been a handy blocker for Wilson, but a ball carrier and a defensive star on his own. Bob Neyland, the former Tennessee coach, told me some weeks ago he considered Shuford the most valuable all-around back he had seen all year. And Neyland had seen Wallace and McCauley, of Rice; Pinyon and Shakespeare, of Notre Dame; Ohio State, Princeton, Army, Navy and several more.

As Tiny Thornhill says: "No one can tell how a bad knee will act." In the Moscrip and Shuford look to be in for only part-time play.

The main brunt of battle is still carried by Al Masters and Don Liebenow, in charge of the ticket sale. The two Stanford officials are still Left with 9 points, and Kunitas, with 9, led the Aaroneans to victory, while Lewis and McConnell played best for the losers.

The Aaroneans led at the half, 14-6, and were never overhauled by the losers. Left with 9 points, and Kunitas, with 9, led the Aaroneans to victory, while Lewis and McConnell played best for the losers.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

Watkinsville Beats Athens High Cagers

WATKINSVILLE, Ga., Dec. 19.—A field goal in the last second of play by Landers won a victory for Watkinsville over Athens here tonight, 22 to 21. Huzh Ripley, with 8, and Jack McDougal, with 10 yards, played best for the winners. Robert Horne was outstanding for Athens, with 8 points. Athens led, 14 to 4, at the half.

Aaroneans Defeat Calvary Methodist

The Aaronean quintet defeated the Calvary Methodist church Wednesday night, 30-28, on the Jewish Educational Alliance court.

The Aaroneans led at the half, 14-6, and were never overhauled by the losers. Left with 9 points, and Kunitas, with 9, led the Aaroneans to victory, while Lewis and McConnell played best for the losers.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

buried a mile deep under the largest ticket drift that ever struck a football game. Over-subscribed four days after the game was announced, demands and applications continue to pour in from every part of the map. Over 20,000 tickets have been requested. There have already been turned back before it is all over refusals and refunds will pass the half-million dollar mark. If that doesn't set a new record in sport, you think up another.

Good ALE as you probably know is rather rare...

LEWIS

Distributed By

ENTREKIN SALES CO.

843 LEE ST. PHONE RAYMOND 3761

IF THEY HAD THEIR CHOICE, MILLIONS OF MEN WOULD SAY, "Give me Flor de Melba Cigars for Christmas"

Then give him the gift he would select. He knows Flor de Melbas are filled with the choicest Long Imported & Long Havana tobaccos—which make them so mild and pleasing to the taste... Buy him FLOR DE MELBAS—the ideal Xmas gift and the perfect all year 'round smoke.

FLOR DE MELBA THE CIGAR SUPREME

Jim Braddock's Victory Voted Greatest Comeback of 1935

Bernie Moore Denies Tigers Are Powerful

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Coach Bernie Moore, of Louisiana State University, believes that if his purple grid warriors reach the peak they attained against Georgia and Tulane they will "make a game of it," when they encounter T. C. U. in the Sugar Bowl.

"On the other hand, if they don't come up we're in for a bad licking," he predicted.

Moore, hard at work defensively drilling his team against anticipated Texas Christian onslaughts, questioned the praise that has been bestowed on Louisiana State in some quarters for having a "power backfield."

"On what basis of fact do all these coaches and writers base their assertions that L. S. U. has tremendous power?" he asks.

"Our starting backfield is composed of Jess Fathorne, Ernie Seago, 'Rock' Reed and Abe Mickal.

"Fathorne today weighs 173 pounds, Seago 150, Reed 164 and Mickal 175."

CROSS-COUNTRY CHAMP

WINTER PARK, Fla., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Freling Smith, freshman from New York city, is the new cross-country

Star Fullback Of T.C.U. Team Will Be Ready

FORT WORTH, Texas, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Jimmy Lawrence, T. C. U.'s jarring fullback, injured in the S. M. U. game, will be in the starting lineup against L. S. U. in the Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day.

The husky fullback is vastly improved and Coach L. R. Meyer is convinced that Lawrence will be ready for the opening kickoff.

Rex Clark, also hurt in the Mustang battle, reported for practice today and also will be ready for the Tigers.

Passing was stressed in today's drill with much attention being paid to the heaves, both long and short. It was an indication that the Frogs plan to stick to their aerials for the Tigers.

The heavy work for the Frogs, however, will not start until early next week. At the present several regulars still are absent from drills due to classes.

Senior champion at Rollins College, Smith, representing Phi Delta Theta fraternity, covered the three-mile course in 18 minutes and 50 seconds Wednesday afternoon to take the intramural title.

ERWIN RUDOLPH TIGHTENS HOLD ON FIRST PLACE

Billiard Leader Defeats Mosconi, Virtually Clinches Title.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Erwin Rudolph, of Cleveland, tightened his hold on first place in the world's pocket billiards championships tonight by defeating Willie Mosconi, of Philadelphia, one of his leading challengers, 125 to 44, in 15 innings.

The victory virtually clinched the title for Rudolph, who won the tournament last year only to lose the title to Andrew Poni in a challenge match. It was his sixth triumph in seven games and Mosconi's third loss in eight starts.

Jimmy Caras, young Wilmington (Del.) star, was left as the only serious contender for the lead after Rudolph disposed of Mosconi. Caras whipped George Kelly, of Philadelphia, the national champion, 125 to 33, in an afternoon match that went six innings.

Golf Champ Weds in February

"It was a case of Dan Cupid handling the putter and besting my handicap," said Lawson Little Jr., golf champion, to reporters upon arrival in San Francisco with his bride-to-be, Miss Dorothy Hurd, of Chicago. Little, who disclosed they will be married in February, is pointing out salient features of his home town to his bride-to-be in above photo.

HELEN MOODY RATES SECOND; GROVE THIRD

Heavyweight's Story-Book Rise From Relief Rolls Tide Race.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The story-book rise of James J. Braddock from the relief rolls to the world heavyweight boxing championship has been labeled by sports experts as the greatest comeback of 1935.

The year was filled with many spectacular returns to form but participants in the fifth annual Associated Press sports poll accorded the rugged and courageous New Jersey veteran prime recognition, and placed Helen Wills Moody, already voted the outstanding woman athlete performer of the year, in the runner-up role.

Braddock and Mrs. Moody, who came out of a two-year retirement and won the Wimbledon tennis championship, were involved in a spirited contest by the experts and it was not until the last few votes were counted that the fighter established his final margin of popularity. All told, Braddock polled 180 points to 171 for Mrs. Moody.

CLOSE RACE. The vote was polled on a 3-2-1 point basis with experts listing their three comeback choices in the order of preference. Braddock was a pronounced favorite in the matter of first places. Forty-six voters put him at the top of their lists while Mrs. Moody drew 31 three-point votes.

Robert Moses (Left) Grove, Boston Red Sox southpaw pitcher, and Glenn Collet Vare, of Philadelphia, who won the national golf title for the first time in five years and the sixth time in her career, ended in a deadlock for third place, each receiving 43 points. Suffering from a sore arm, Grove was a "bust" last year, but he regained his form in the 1935 campaign, won 20 games and set a record by compiling the league's best earned-run average for the seventh time.

Tommy Hitchcock, the polo player, and Charley Gelbert, St. Louis Cardinals' infielder, two athletes whose injuries it was feared might wreck their careers, were included among the first 10 leading comeback performances. Hitchcock polled up eighth in the voting with nine points, while Gelbert, who almost shot one foot off in a hunting accident a couple of years ago, was tenth with six points.

THE COUNT. Tabulation of the poll on the year's outstanding individual comeback:

PERFORMER	Points
1. James J. Braddock, world heavyweight boxing champion	180
2. Helen Wills Moody, Wimbledon tennis champion	171
3. Robert Moses Grove, Boston Red Sox, southpaw pitcher	43
4. Glenn Collet Vare, national women's golf champion	43
5. Wilmer Allison, national men's tennis champion	28
6. Tony Canzoneri, world's lightweight boxing champion	14
7. Alvin (General Crowder, Detroit Tigers' pitcher	11
8. Thomas Hitchcock Jr., world's only 10-goal polo player	9
9. Fernald, Boston Red Sox pitcher	7
10. Charles Gelbert, St. Louis Cardinals' infielder	6

Five points each, Goose Goslin, Detroit outfielder; Charles East, Chicago Cubs' pitcher, and Ossie Simmons, Iowa halfback. Three points each, Paul Derringer, Cincinnati pitcher; John Ewells, professional golfer, and Walter Hagen, two points each, Madison (Matty) Ball, Southern Methodist football coach; Andy Pinney, Notre Dame halfback. One point each, Ted Lyons, White Sox pitcher; Mark Koenig, New York Giants' infielder; Babe Siebert, Boston Bruins' hockey player; Big Bill Tilden, pro tennis; Morris Olson, distance swimmer.

Carpentier

Here's answer to "Guess Who!" in today's sports section.

By Central Press. Principal in the third largest gate in boxing history, Georges Carpentier was knocked out in four rounds by Jack Dempsey, July 2, 1921, at Boyle's Thirty Acres, in Jersey City, N. J. The gate, officially totaling $1,780,228, was exceeded only by the gates of the two Dempsey-Tunney fights.

Creation of the popular illusion that Carpentier was a great fighter who might knock Dempsey from under his crown was probably the most notable triumph the art of fistic ballyhoo ever has scored. The fact that Georges was a World War hero aided in the build-up. Reams were written about his extensive wardrobe; he was dubbed the "Orchid Man," and the press even went so far as to ascribe hypnotic powers to his rotund manager, Francois Descamps.

Carpentier, born in Lens, France, January 12, 1894, starting fighting when he reached his teens. In 1912 he lost to both Billy Papke and Frank Klaus. In 1913 he knocked out Bombardier Wells twice, and defeated Jeff Smith. He won from Gunboat Smith on a foul in the following year, and in 1918 knocked out Great Britain's well-known Joe Beckett in a round.

Light heavyweight champion of Europe, Carpentier won the world light heavy title when he knocked out Battling Levinsky in 1920, the fight being staged as a buildup for the match with Dempsey.

A year after he was tagged by Dempsey, Carpentier lost his light heavyweight title, knocked out in six rounds by Battling Siki.

"Gorgeous Georges," now living in Paris, is still held as an idol by French sports fans.

Druid Hills Divides Pair With Marietta

Marietta and Druid Hills High school cage teams divided a double-header on the Druid Hills court last night. Marietta boys won, 25-12, while the Druid Hills girls nosed out the Marietta lassies in a thriller, 25-22.

Hulsey and Henley, with 10 and eight points, respectively, led Marietta boys to victory. The winners held a 11-8 lead at the half.

McDonald, with 12, and Warnock, with 10 tallies, topped the Druid Hills girls. Holbrook sank nine, Jordan seven and Hamby 6 for the losers.

Jockeys in Battle For Leading Honors

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Charles Stevenson, battling to supplant Wayne Wright as the leading rider on the American turf, today reduced the Herbyburg, Idaho, veteran's margin to one victory as he brought home two winners at the Fair Grounds, New Orleans.

'Cruickshank Hot Again' Shooting 66 at Nassau

Bobby, Winner Last Year in British Colonial Open, Shines in Warmup Round.

NASSAU, Bahamas, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The word "Bobby Cruickshank's hot again" went 'round tonight among 80 golfers gathered for the annual $5,000 British colonial open starting tomorrow.

Touring the toughened course his first time out in 66, two under par, the wee Scott from Richmond, Va., served notice he was ready to repeat the victory last year that brought him top prize of $1,000.

Cruickshank, victor in the $2,000 Orlando open this month that opened the series of four December gulf stream tournaments, hung up his par-cracking practice round despite quivering breezes that swept the ocean-side course.

A newly imposed rule the balls might not be teed up in fairways—last year teeing up anywhere was permissible—rendered still more impressive his feat.

Playing the course Cruickshank described as "100 per cent better than last year," other professionals of the biggest American contingent ever to invade Nassau fell 2 strokes or more short of matching his practice round.

Billy Burke, Belleair, Fla., former national open champion; John Milute, Youngtown (Ohio) lad, who was the sensation of the first two rounds of the recently ended $10,000 Miami Biltmore open; Tony Longo, Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Mike Turnesa, Elmford, N. Y.; Tony Penna, Pensacola, Fla.; Leo Mallory, Norton, Conn.; Sam Parks Jr., Coral Gables, Fla., American open champion, and Abe Esquinoza, Chicago, all brought home par 68's.

A pair of good 69's were turned in by Zell Eaton, Oklahoma City, and Al Nelson, Hopewell, N. J., while Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill., winner of the $2,500 top prize in the Miami Biltmore open, was grouped with Pat Tiso, Greenville, N. Y., and Ben Loving, Charlottesville, Va., at 70.

The big hole left at the fullback post by the loss of Clarence Hapes, a casualty of the State College game, remained the coaches' leading worry.

Searching for some one to relieve Dave Bernard at the fullback duties, coaches tried Rab Rodgers, halfback, and Herb Baumstein, quarterback, at running the position in signal drills.

OLE MISS GETS HARD PRACTICE

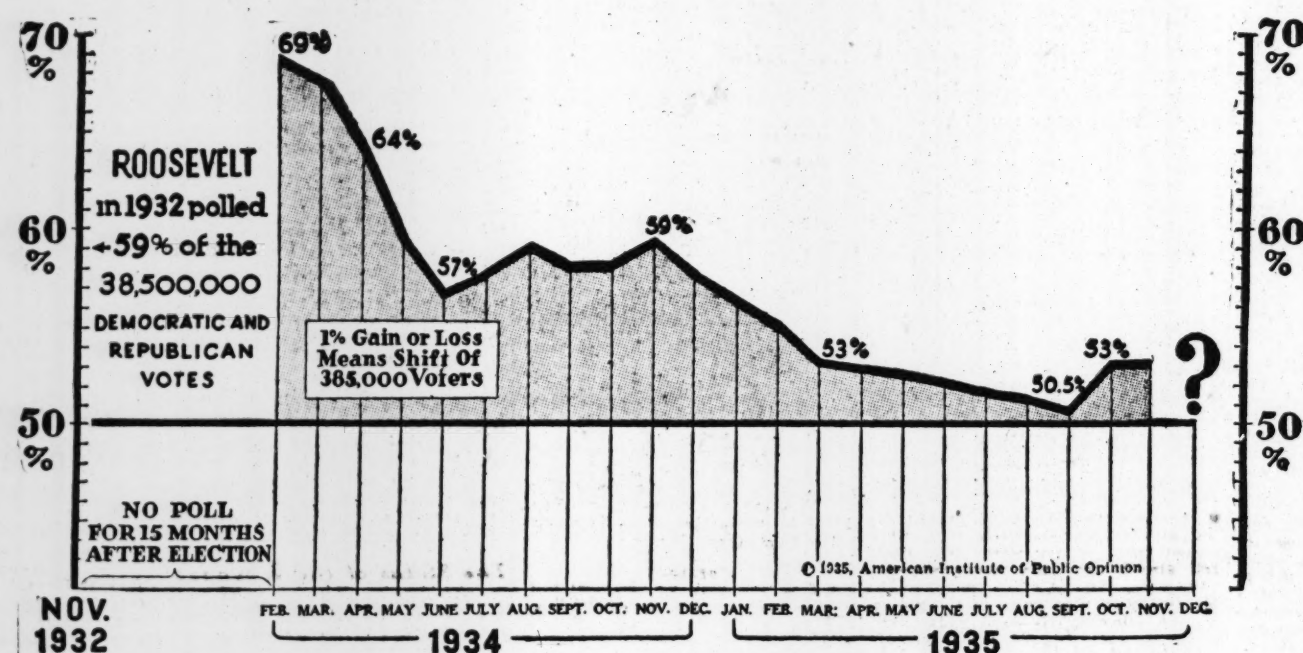

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Coach Ed Walker's Orange Bowl bound football team saw its first strenuous practice session since the close of the regular season this afternoon.

With the Christmas holidays starting Friday four-hour daily workouts will be inaugurated for the period remaining before December 29 when the squad leaves for the New Year's Day tilt with Catholic University at Miami.

The big hole left at the fullback post by the loss of Clarence Hapes, a casualty of the State College game, remained the coaches' leading worry.

Searching for some one to relieve Dave Bernard at the fullback duties, coaches tried Rab Rodgers, halfback, and Herb Baumstein, quarterback, at running the position in signal drills.

How Well Do You Know the Political Situation?

Here are the Questions:

1. President Roosevelt, if an election were held today, would poll —% of the combined Republican-Democratic vote.
2. The Democrats are strongest in the state of —
3. The leading Republican state is —
4. The State of New York today is in the (Republican) ... (Democratic) column.
5. — states have switched from the Democratic to the Republican column since the last presidential election.
6. James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, was (wrong) ... (right) when he claimed twenty-eight states for his party following his November tour of Western states.

Jot down the answers to the questions at the left. Save your guesses and compare them with the correct answers which will appear in next Sunday's Atlanta Constitution as the result of a nation-wide non-partisan poll conducted by the American Institute of Public Opinion.

★ ★ ★
Look for the correct answers in

Next Sunday in

The Constitution

Leading Newspapers publishing the result of this nation-wide poll include:

DEMOCRATIC Atlanta Constitution
El Paso Times
Houston Chronicle
Memphis Commercial Appeal
Mobile Press-Register
INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC
Birmingham News
Chattanooga Times
Cleveland Plain Dealer
Greensboro News
Norfolk Virginian-Pilot
Portland (Oregon) Journal
Richmond Times-Dispatch
Shreveport Times

Tucson Arizona Star
INDEPENDENT
Bloomington Pantagraph
Boston Globe
Buffalo Times
Cincinnati Enquirer
Dallas News
Des Moines Register and Tribune
Detroit News
Durham Herald
Evansville Press
Knoxville News-Sentinel
Muncie Star
Nashville Banner
Oklahoma City Oklahoman and Times

Pittsburgh Press
St. Louis Globe-Democrat
San Antonio Express
San Diego Sun
Seattle Star
Sioux City Journal
Tacoma Times
Washington Post
Wichita Eagle
REPUBLICAN
Boise Idaho Statesman
Dayton Journal and Herald
Milwaukee Sentinel
Minneapolis Tribune

Oakland Tribune
Philadelphia Inquirer
Rochester Democrat and Chronicle
San Francisco Chronicle
San Jose Mercury
South Bend Tribune
Toledo Times
INDEPENDENT REPUBLICAN
Chicago Daily News
Fort Wayne News-Sentinel
Indianapolis Star
Madison Wisconsin State Journal
New York Herald Tribune
Rockford Star
Spokane Spokesman-Review

Pour Joyous Christmas Cheer FROM THESE GOLDEN KEGLINED CANS

Scheidt's Valley Forge Beer

Scheidt's Rams Head Ale

FOR RICHER FLAVOR

Buy America's Quality Beer and Ale—the brews that equal the finest of imported brands in flavor—to make your Christmas merrier.

VALLEY FORGE BEER
The Pilsener of America.
RAMS HEAD ALE
The Aristocrat of Ales.

Order them by the case for real Christmas hospitality.

ADAM SCHEIDT BREWING CO.
Norristown, Pa.

If your dealer is unable to supply you, phone

Atlanta Beverage & Bottle Company
485 Stephens Street, S. W.
Telephone JACKSON 2824

CURB MARKET QUIET;

CHANGES ARE NARROW

Steadiness Rules Among Metals; Utilities; Specialties Advance.
100 103 101	102 103 101	103 104 102	104 105 103
105 106 104	107 108 105	108 109 106	109 110 107
110 111 108	112 113 109	113 114 110	114 115 111
115 116 112	117 118 113	118 119 114	119 120 115
120 121 116	122 123 117	123 124 118	124 125 119
125 126 120	127 128 121	128 129 122	129 130 123
130 131 124	132 133 125	133 134 126	134 135 127
135 136 128	137 138 129	138 139 130	139 140 131
140 141 132	142 143 133	143 144 134	144 145 135
145 146 136	147 148 137	148 149 138	149 150 139
150 151 140	152 153 141	153 154 142	154 155 143
155 156 144	157 158 145	158 159 146	159 160 147
160 161 148	162 163 149	163 164 150	164 165 151
165 166 152	167 168 153	168 169 154	169 170 155
170 171 156	172 173 157	173 174 158	174 175 159
175 176 160	177 178 161	178 179 162	179 180 163
180 181 164	182 183 165	183 184 166	184 185 167
185 186 168	187 188 169	188 189 170	189 190 171
190 191 172	192 193 173	193 194 174	194 195 175
195 196 176	197 198 177	198 199 178	199 200 179
200 201 180	202 203 181	203 204 182	204 205 183
205 206 184	207 208 185	208 209 186	209 210 187
210 211 188	212 213 189	213 214 190	214 215 191
215 216 192	217 218 193	218 219 194	219 220 195
220 221 196	222 223 197	223 224 198	224 225 199
225 226 200	227 228 201	228 229 202	229 230 203
230 231 204	232 233 205	233 234 206	234 235 207
235 236 208	237 238 209	238 239 210	239 240 211
240 241 212	242 243 213	243 244 214	244 245 215
245 246 216	247 248 217	248 249 218	249 250 219
250 251 220	252 253 221	253 254 222	254 255 223
255 256 224	257 258 225	258 259 226	259 260 227
260 261 228	262 263 229	263 264 230	264 265 231
265 266 232	267 268 233	268 269 234	269 270 235
270 271 236	272 273 237	273 274 238	274 275 239
275 276 240	277 278 241	278 279 242	279 280 243
280 281 244	282 283 245	283 284 246	284 285 247
285 286 248	287 288 249	288 289 250	289 290 251
290 291 252	292 293 253	293 294 254	294 295 255
295 296 256	297 298 257	298 299 258	299 300 259
300 301 260	302 303 261	303 304 262	304 305 263
305 306 264	307 308 265	308 309 266	309 310 267
310 311 268	312 313 269	313 314 270	314 315 271
315 316 272	317 318 273	318 319 274	319 320 275
320 321 276	322 323 277	323 324 278	324 325 279
325 326 280	327 328 281	328 329 282	329 330 283
330 331 284	332 333 285	333 334 286	334 335 287
335 336 288	337 338 289	338 339 290	339 340 291
340 341 292	342 343 293	343 344 294	344 345 295
345 346 296	347 348 297	348 349 298	349 350 299
350 351 300	352 353 301	353 354 302	354 355 303
355 356 304	357 358 305	358 359 306	359 360 307
360 361 308	362 363 309	363 364 310	364 365 311
365 366 312	367 368 313	368 369 314	369 370 315
370 371 316	372 373 317	373 374 318	374 375 319
375 376 320	377 378 321	378 379 322	379 380 323
380 381 324	382 383 325	383 384 326	384 385 327
385 386 328	387 388 329	388 389 330	389 390 331
390 391 332	392 393 333	393 394 334	394 395 335
395 396 336	397 398 337	398 399 338	399 400 339
400 401 340	402 403 341	403 404 342	404 405 343
405 406 344	407 408 345	408 409 346	409 410 347
410 411 348	412 413 349	413 414 350	414 415 351
415 416 352	417 418 353	418 419 354	419 420 355
420 421 356	422 423 357	423 424 358	424 425 359
425 426 360	427 428 361	428 429 362	429 430 363
430 431 364	432 433 365	433 434 366	434 435 367
435 436 368	437 438 369	438 439 370	439 440 371
440 441 372	442 443 373	443 444 374	444 445 375
445 446 376	447 448 377	448 449 378	449 450 379
450 451 380	452 453 381	453 454 382	454 455 383
455 456 384	457 458 385	458 459 386	459 460 387
460 461 388	462 463 389	463 464 390	464 465 391
465 466 392	467 468 393	468 469 394	469 470 395
470 471 396	472 473 397	473 474 398	474 475 399
475 476 400	477 478 401	478 479 402	479 480 403
480 481 404	482 483 405	483 484 406	484 485 407
485 486 408	487 488 409	488 489 410	489 490 411
490 491 412	492 493 413	493 494 414	494 495 415
495 496 416	497 498 417	498 499 418	499 500 419
500 501 420	502 503 421	503 504 422	504 505 423
505 506 424	507 508 425	508 509 426	509 510 427
510 511 428	512 513 429	513 514 430	514 515 431
515 516 432	517 518 433	518 519 434	519 520 435
520 521 436	522 523 437	523 524 438	524 525 439
525 526 440	527 528 441	528 529 442	529 530 443
530 531 444	532 533 445	533 534 446	534 535 447
535 536 448	537 538 449	538 539 450	539 540 451
540 541 452	542 543 453	543 544 454	544 545 455
545 546 456	547 548 457	548 549 458	549 550 459
550 551 460	552 553 461	553 554 462	554 555 463
555 556 464	557 558 465	558 559 466	559 560 467
560 561 468	562 563 469	563 564 470	564 565 471
565 566 472	567 568 473	568 569 474	569 570 475
570 571 476	572 573 477	573 574 478	574 575 479
575 576 480	577 578 481	578 579 482	579 580 483
580 581 484	582 583 485	583 584 486	584 585 487
585 586 488	587 588 489	588 589 490	589 590 491
590 591 492	592 593 493	593 594 494	594 595 495
595 596 496	597 598 497	598 599 498	599 600 499
600 601 500	602 603 501	603 604 502	604 605 503
605 606 504	607 608 505	608 609 506	609 610 507
610 611 508	612 613 509	613 614 510	614 615 511
615 616 512	617 618 513	618 619 514	619 620 515
620 621 516	622 623 517	623 624 518	624 625 519
625 626 520	627 628 521	628 629 522	629 630 523
630 631 524	632 633 525	633 634 526	634 635 527
635 636 528	637 638 529	638 639 530	639 640 531
640 641 532	642 643 533	643 644 534	644 645 535
645 646 536	647 648 537	648 649 538	649 650 539
650 651 540	652 653 541	653 654 542	654 655 543
655 656 544	657 658 545	658 659 546	659 660 547
660 661 548	662 663 549	663 664 550	664 665 551
665 666 552	667 668 553	668 669 554	669 670 555
670 671 556	672 673 557	673 674 558	674 675 559
675 676 560	677 678 561	678 679 562	679 680 563
680 681 564	682 683 565	683 684 566	684 685 567
685 686 568	687 688 569	688 689 570	689 690 571
690 691 572	692 693 573	693 694 574	694 695 575
695 696 576	697 698 577	698 699 578	699 700 579
700 701 580	702 703 581	703 704 582	704 705 583
705 706 584	707 708 585	708 709 586	709 710 587
710 711 588	712 713 589	713 714 590	714 715 591
715 716 592	717 718 593	718 719 594	719 720 595
720 721 596	722 723 597	723 724 598	724 725 599
725 726 600	727 728 601	728 729 602	729 730 603
730 731 604	732 733 605	733 734 606	734 735 607
735 736 608	737 738 609	738 739 610	739 740 611
740 741 612	742 743 613	743 744 614	744 745 615
745 746 616	747 748 617	748 749 618	749 750 619
750 751 620	752 753 621	753 754 622	754 755 623
755 756 624	757 758 625	758 759 626	759 760 627
760 761 628	762 763 629	763 764 630	764 765 631
765 766 632	767 768 633	768 769 634	769 770 635
770 771 636	772 773 637	773 774 638	774 775 639
775 776 640	777 778 641	778 779 642	779 780 643
780 781 644	782 783 645	783 784 646	784 785 647
785 786 648	787 788 649	788 789 650	789 790 651
790 791 652	792 793 653	793 794 654	794 795 655
795 796 656	797 798 657	798 799 658	799 800 659
800 801 660	802 803 661	803 804 662	804 805 663
805 806 664	807 808 665	808 809 666	809 810 667
810 811 668	812 813 669	813 814 670	814 815 671
815 816 672	817 818 673	818 819 674	819 820 675
820 821 676	822 823 677	823 824 678	824 825 679
825 826 680	827 828 681	828 829 682	829 830 683
830 831 684	832 833 685	833 834 686	834 835 687
835 836 688	837 838 689	838 839 690	839 840 691
840 841 692	842 843 693	843 844 694	844 845 695
845 846 696	847 848 697	848 849 698	849 850 699
850 851 700	852 853 701	853 854 702	854 855 703
855 856 704	857 858 705	858 859 706	859 860 707
860 861 708	862 863 709	863 864 710	864 865 711
865 866 712	867 868 713	868 869 714	869 870 715
870 871 716	872 873 717	873 874 718	874 875 719
875 876 720	877 878 721	878 879 722	879 880 723
880 881 724	882 883 725	883 884 726	884 885 727
885 886 728	887 888 729	888 889 730	889 890 731
890 891 732	892 893 733	893 894 734	894 895 735
895 896 736	897 898 737	898 899 738	899 900 739
900 901 740	902 903 741	903 904 742	904 905 743
905 906 744	907 908 745	908 909 746	909 910 747
910 911 748	912 913 749	913 914 750	914 915 751
915 916 752	917 918 753	918 919 754	919 920 755
920 921 756	922 923 757	923 924 758	924 925 759
925 926 760	927 928 761	928 929 762	929 930 763
930 931 764	932 933 765	933 934 766	934 935 767
935 936 768	937 938 769	938 939 770	939 940 771
940 941 772	942 943 773	943 944 774	944 945 775
945 946 776	947 948 777	948 949 778	949 950 779
950 951 780	952 953 781	953 954 782	954 955 783
955 956 784	957 958 785	958 959 786	959 960 787
960 961 788	962 963 789	963 964 790	964 965 791
965 966 792	967 968 793	968 969 794	969 970 795
970 971 796	972 973 797	973 974 798	974 975 799
975 976 800	977 978 801	978 979 802	979 980 803
980

Prospective bidders may obtain formal prospectus instructions as to bidding, together with draft of lease to be executed and a memorandum description of premises and the essential terms and conditions under which the property will be leased, upon application to the undersigned.

Bids will be received until 11 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, December 23, 1935, when publicly opened.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

J. C. PEACOCK.

Detective School Head, Held Here, Once Trod Stage With Otis Skinner

Edward De Groote Also Appeared With Joe Jefferson in 'Rip Van Winkle' and Appeared at Old De Give Opera House and Bijou Theater.

Edward De Groote, chief inspector of the Interstate Detective Agency, dean of the faculty of the Continental Detective Training System, playwright, actor and producer, former chief of police of McIntosh, Ga., and boyhood chum of Governor Talmadge, showed the triumphs of his past into the background yesterday as he dealt calmly with the problems of today.

"What I was has nothing to do with where I am," he said, glancing at the bars that confine him in Fulton tower.

"No one is going to let me out of jail because I trod the boards with Joseph Jefferson and Richard Mansfield and Otis Skinner. No judge or jury is going to smile and bow and wave me out of court because I wrote 'Over the Hills to the Poorhouse' and 'The Vagabonds.' Everyone of suitable age in Atlanta may recall my successful appearances at the 'Give Opera House and the old Columbia theater that succeeded it on Marietta street; they may recall the productions I staged and managed at the old Bonita—but all that's in the past.

Was With Joe Jefferson. "I was with Joe Jefferson in 'Rip Van Winkle,'" he recalled. "I played with Otis Skinner with Richard Mansfield. I played in 'David Crockett' when Jim Jeffries, the heavy-weight champion, was the frontiersman. I was with Phil and Nellie Peters. I was with Renfrow's Pathfinders.

"I'll never forget an experience when I was playing with Frances Alder in 'Trail's End.' She was the heroine and she was to shoot me. Through some error, there was a real bullet in the pistol one night instead of a blank cartridge. I felt the sting in my shoulder, but I fell as I was supposed to and lay there, gritting my teeth, until the final curtain. An actor had to do his part in those days.

Produced Own Shows. "I produced my own shows in the days of the tabloid musical comedies. We came to Atlanta many times. I have played at the 'Give Opera House, which was later the Bijou, on Marietta street, where the Palmer building now stands."

In later years, De Groote says, he abandoned the stage and his only roles since then have been as Santa Claus in department stores at Christmas time.

"Mac's, in New York, paid me $150 a week to do the Santa Claus job. I've played Santa Claus at two Atlanta department stores."

"All that's in the past, though. I've got a long life ahead of me. I've got to beat this case and get back to work."

Claims Business Lawful. "I'm charged right now with using the mails to defraud. I was operating a lawfully licensed private detective agency, licensed by the state and the county. I was training young men to become detectives. I gave them jobs as fast as I could develop jobs. The only charge they have against me is the statement of that young boy from Kentucky—he was just a boy."

"They've got me down here under a $2,000 cash bond. I'll be here until January if I don't make it. I can't make it and so I'll stay here. I could make it if I would just let my old friends of the stage know my predicament. But, I won't do that. Anyone who has been on the stage as long as I have knows that an actor has his ups and downs and I'll work out of this."

Trouble "Mere Interruption." De Groote smiled, jauntily adjusted necktie and coat lapels and waved aside his present troubles as a mere interruption after 60 busy years of tussling with life and its problems.

He has portrayed Horatio often enough to know that there are more things in heaven and earth than are dreamt of in any philosophy. Something more practical is needed to thwart Archie Johnson, his star correspondence school detective, and the charges of using the mails to defraud that Archie swore against him Saturday.

"I'll prove I haven't violated any laws," he said. "That $100 I borrowed from Archie was a personal loan on a note which isn't even due. They have no case against me. I can bring dozens of satisfied graduates into court to testify for me. Men who have taken my course and who are now successful private detectives. I can prove I never swindled anyone. Archie is very young—he didn't understand."

Chum of Talmadge's. De Groote was born in McIntosh, Ga., Governor Talmadge's home town.

"Gene Talmadge and I were boys together. I was chief of police when he was city attorney down there. But I don't call on my old friends to help me. When I get in trouble I fight it out by myself. The stage was a hazardous game back in the old days and I learned the lesson of how to take care of myself when I was in trouble. "I'll beat this case."

TUGWELL PROPOSES TAXES ON U. S. PLOTS

Would Pay Local Government Excise on Property for Resettlement.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—A plan to permit taxation of federal resettlement projects by local governments was virtually completed today by administration officials.

Assistants to Rexford G. Tugwell, the resettlement administrator, explained that under existing laws state and county authorities may not collect taxes on property owned by the federal government.

The resettlement plan, an official said, would provide that title to property bought for a project would be deeded to some form of community organization, which would be subject to local taxes.

In the case of four major developments where homes are to be provided for about 5,000 families, an official explained that residents would form an organization which would hold title to the property under a long-term purchase agreement.

Occupants Pay Rent. The management division of the administration would assist in supervision of the projects during the life of the purchase agreement. Occupants of the homes would pay rent to the community organizations, and these would in turn make purchase payments to the federal government.

Wherever feasible in the case of individual resettlement families moved onto land bought by the administration, the official said titles would be vested in the residents, with payments made directly to the government. Thus these families and their lands, bought under long-term agreements, would be subject to the usual local tax laws.

Submarginal lands bought by the administration for forest areas, parks or game refuges, the official said, have not been yielding local taxes, and instead have been a burden on local governments.

Prevent Federal Islands. The new tax plan, it was said, was developed to prevent resettlement communities from becoming isolated federal "islands," removed from all responsibilities and duties to local governments. It has been planned to make the communities as much a part of each locality as possible.

It was explained the housing projects may increase the value of assessable property in a county considerably. Cost of the four major projects has been estimated at from $4,000,000 to $8,000,000 each, exclusive of land.

The individual resettlement cases, it was said, are expected to enable many families to pay taxes where they have been unable to do so for several years.

JUDGE W. A. FOSTER PASSES IN FLORIDA

Father of Alvin Foster Was Well Known Resident of South Miami.

Judge W. A. Foster, widely known Floridian and father of Alvin Foster, vice president and general manager of the Cable Piano Company here, died Wednesday at his home in South Miami. He was 78 years of age.

Funeral services were held in South Miami yesterday with burial in that city.

A native of Indiana, Judge Foster had been a resident of the Florida city for many years. He had served as mayor several terms and later was on the bench.

After graduating at law school, Judge Foster entered the ministry and served the Christian church for years. At one time he was sent to occupy a pulpit in London, England. He later entered the practice of law, and followed that profession in South Miami. He had been retired for about 10 years.

In addition to his son here he is survived by his wife and two daughters, Miss Bertha Foster, dean of the music department of the University of Miami, and well known in music circles here, and Mrs. Clifton Meekins, of Hollywood, Fla.

GUARDED HIS WIFE AGAINST PARENTS

Broker Admits Placing of Guard at Home To Keep Out In-Laws.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—George L. Maxwell, the New York stock broker, testified today that he placed a guard outside his home here to prevent his wife's parents from "kidnaping" her, or their infant daughter.

His statement was made at the trial of a suit in which the auburn haired Mrs. Katherine Thraves Maxwell, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. William Thraves, of Lexington, Ky., seeks a separation and custody of the child on grounds of cruelty and desertion.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves. He said one of the physicians attending Mrs. Maxwell, who was ill at that time, had informed him her parents intended to remove her from the home. Maxwell added that he had his wife's telephone removed because of protracted conversations with her mother which upset her and hampered her recovery and that he had told Mrs. Maxwell he would not be responsible for her expenses if she left him.

She did leave, however, being removed on a stretcher to the New York residence of her parents.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Maxwell had completed her testimony. She said she was devoted to her husband and had tried to stop him from drinking because it was bad for his health. She said he had worried about her fast driving and she had agreed to drive their car no faster than 30 miles an hour if he would not drink, but that he had not kept his part of the bargain.

Maxwell said that in March of 1934 he stationed the guard, who was instructed not to admit Colonel and Mrs. Thraves